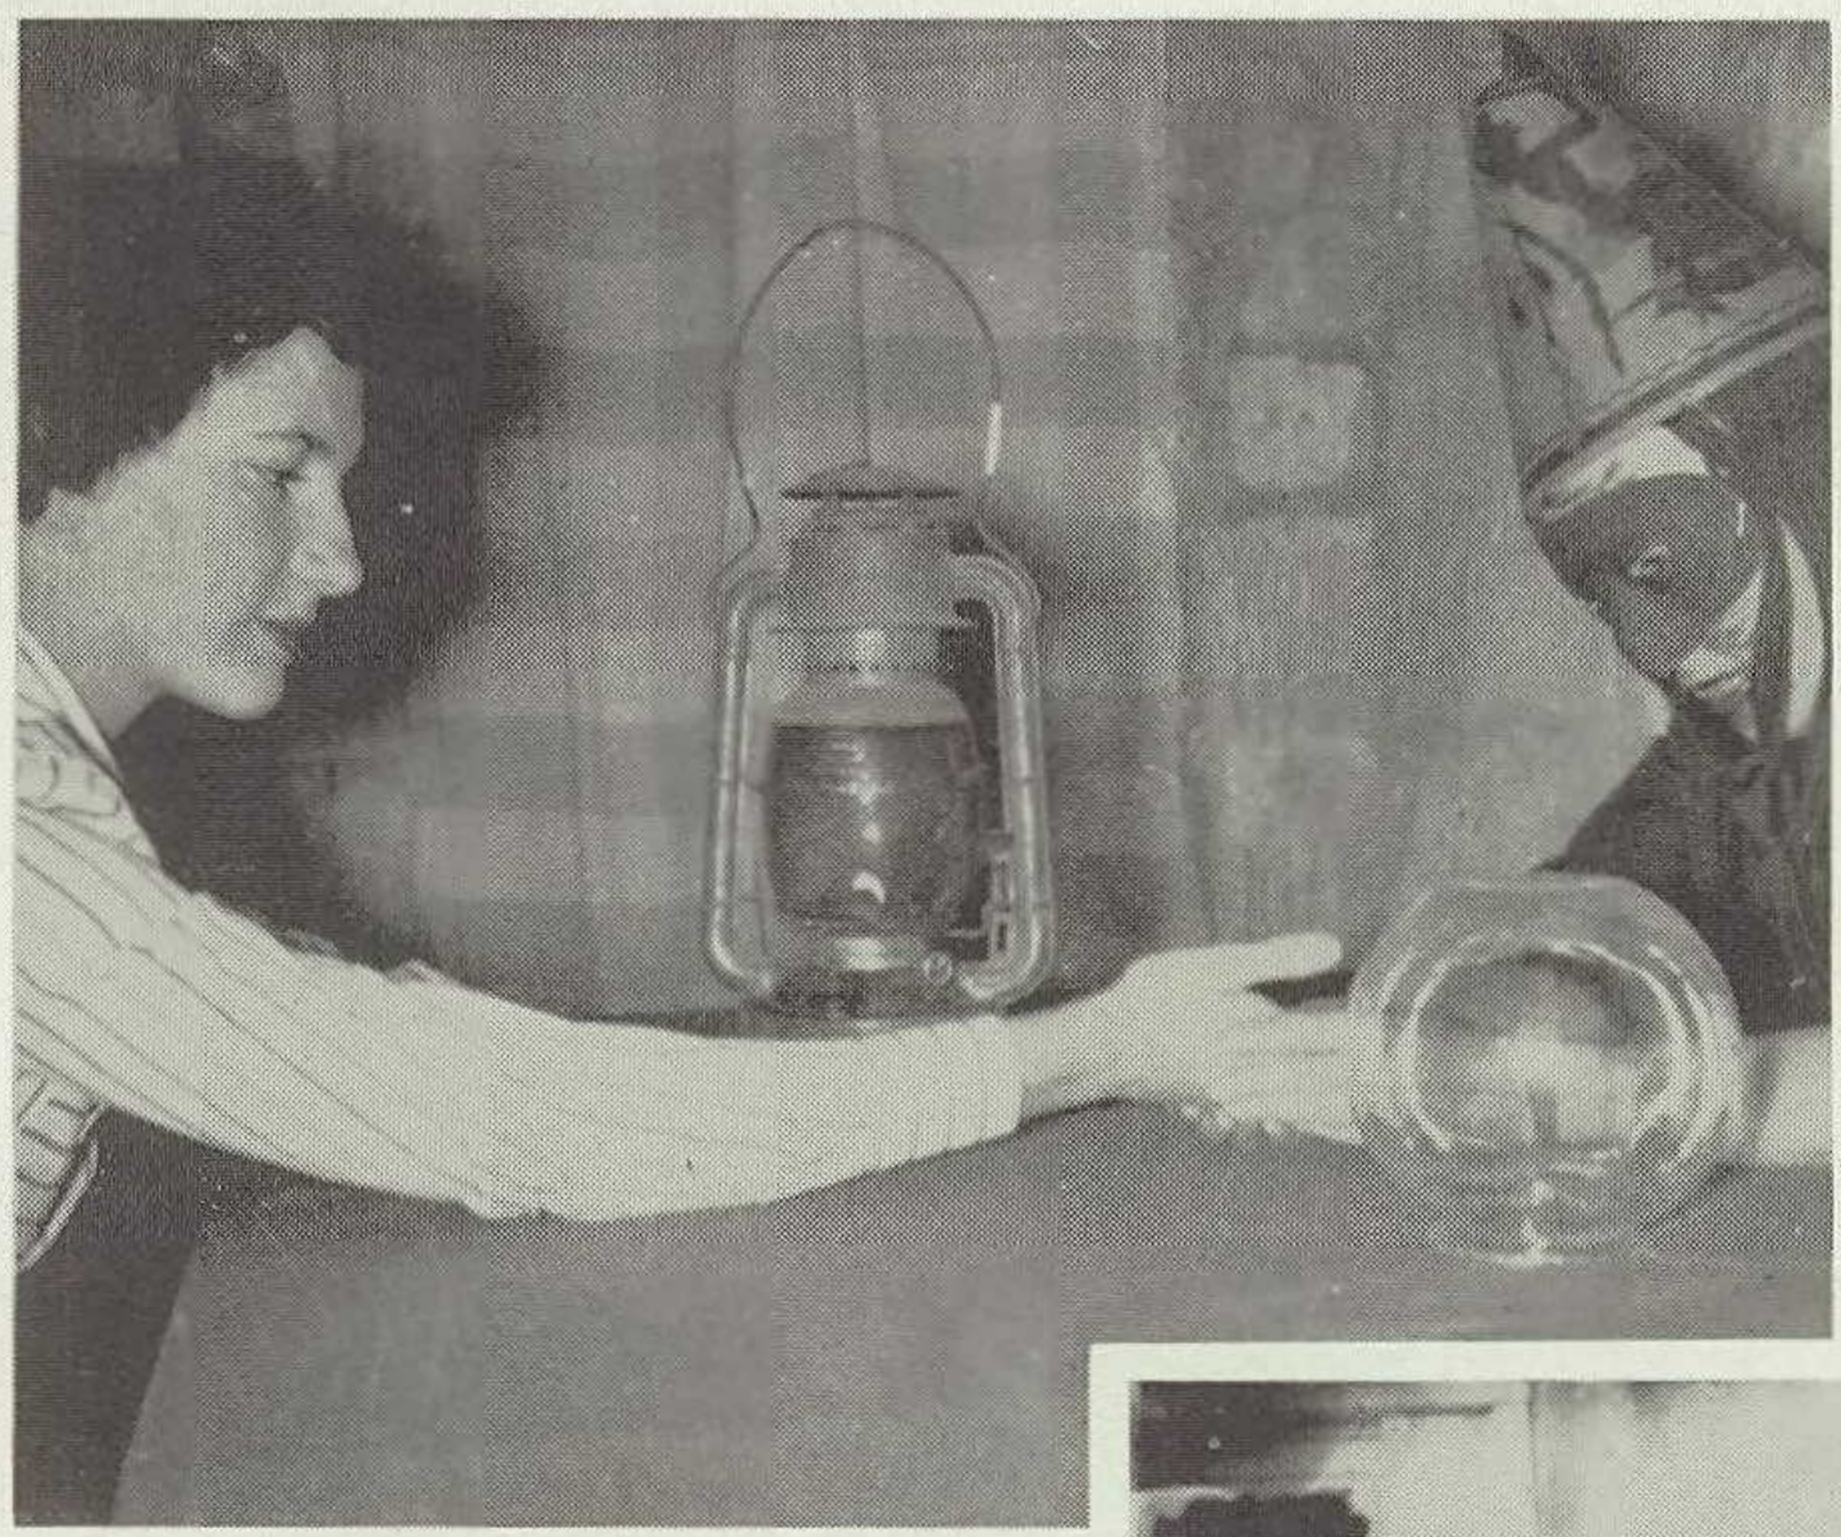
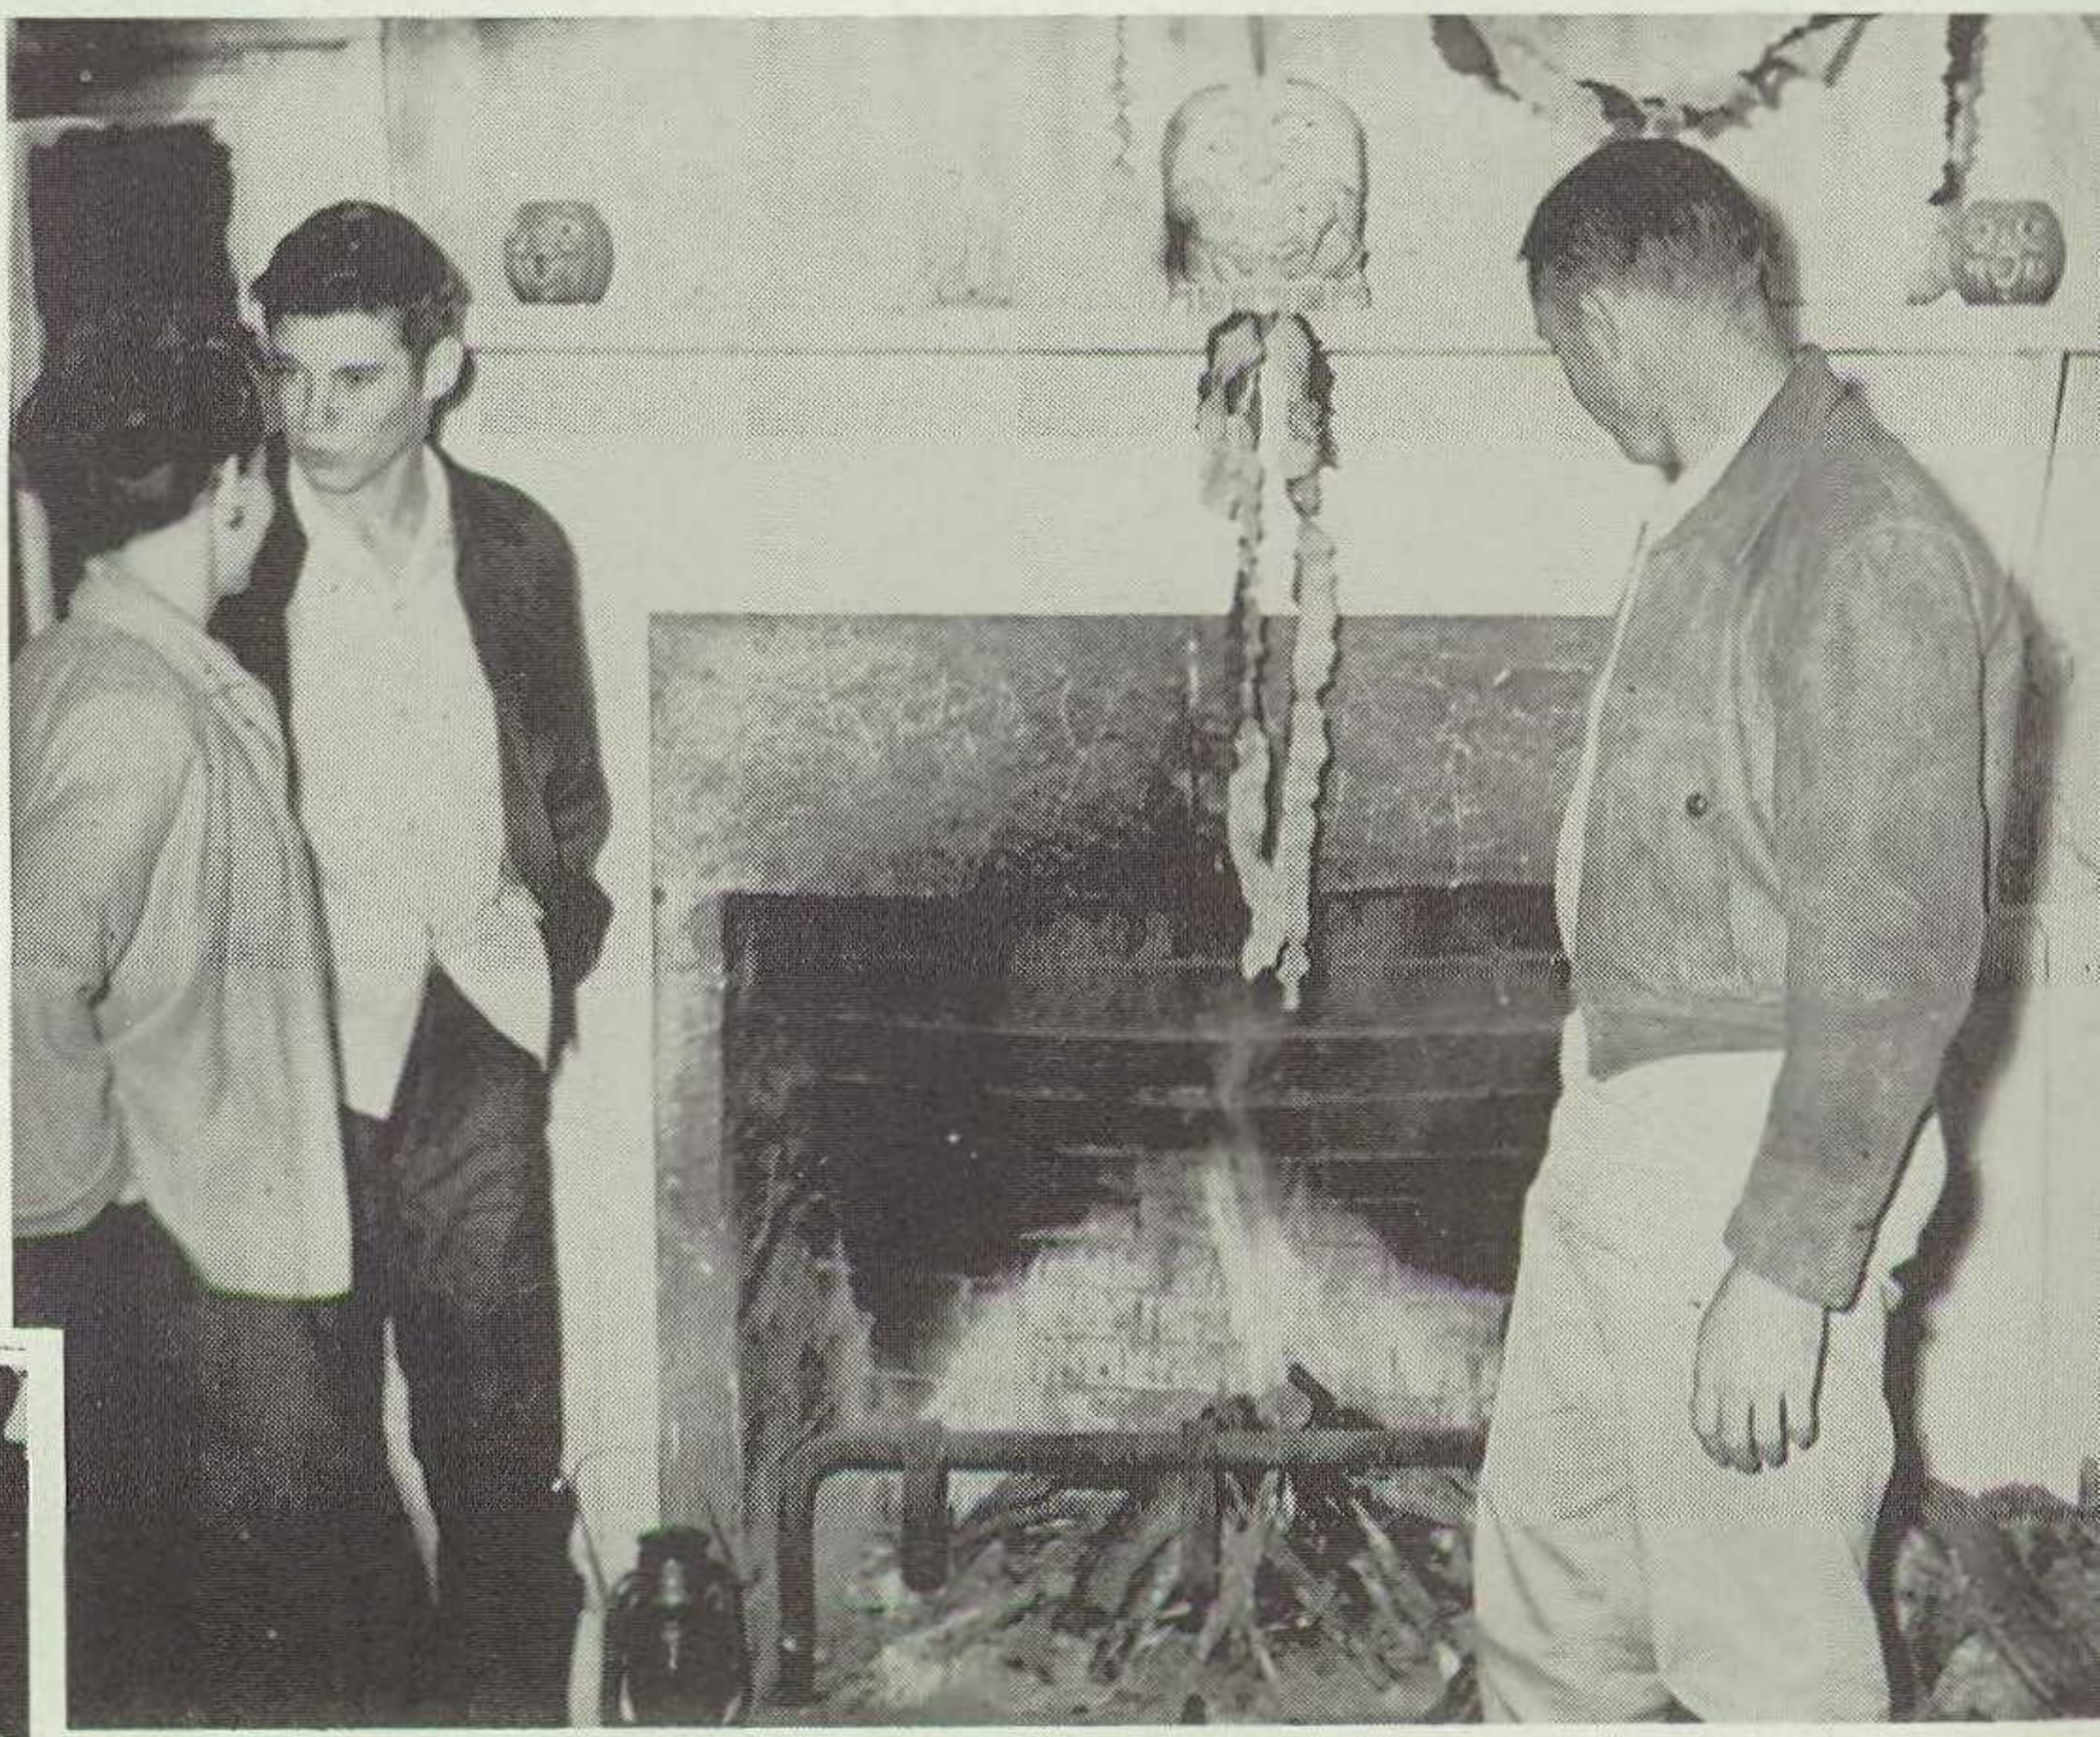
Halloween

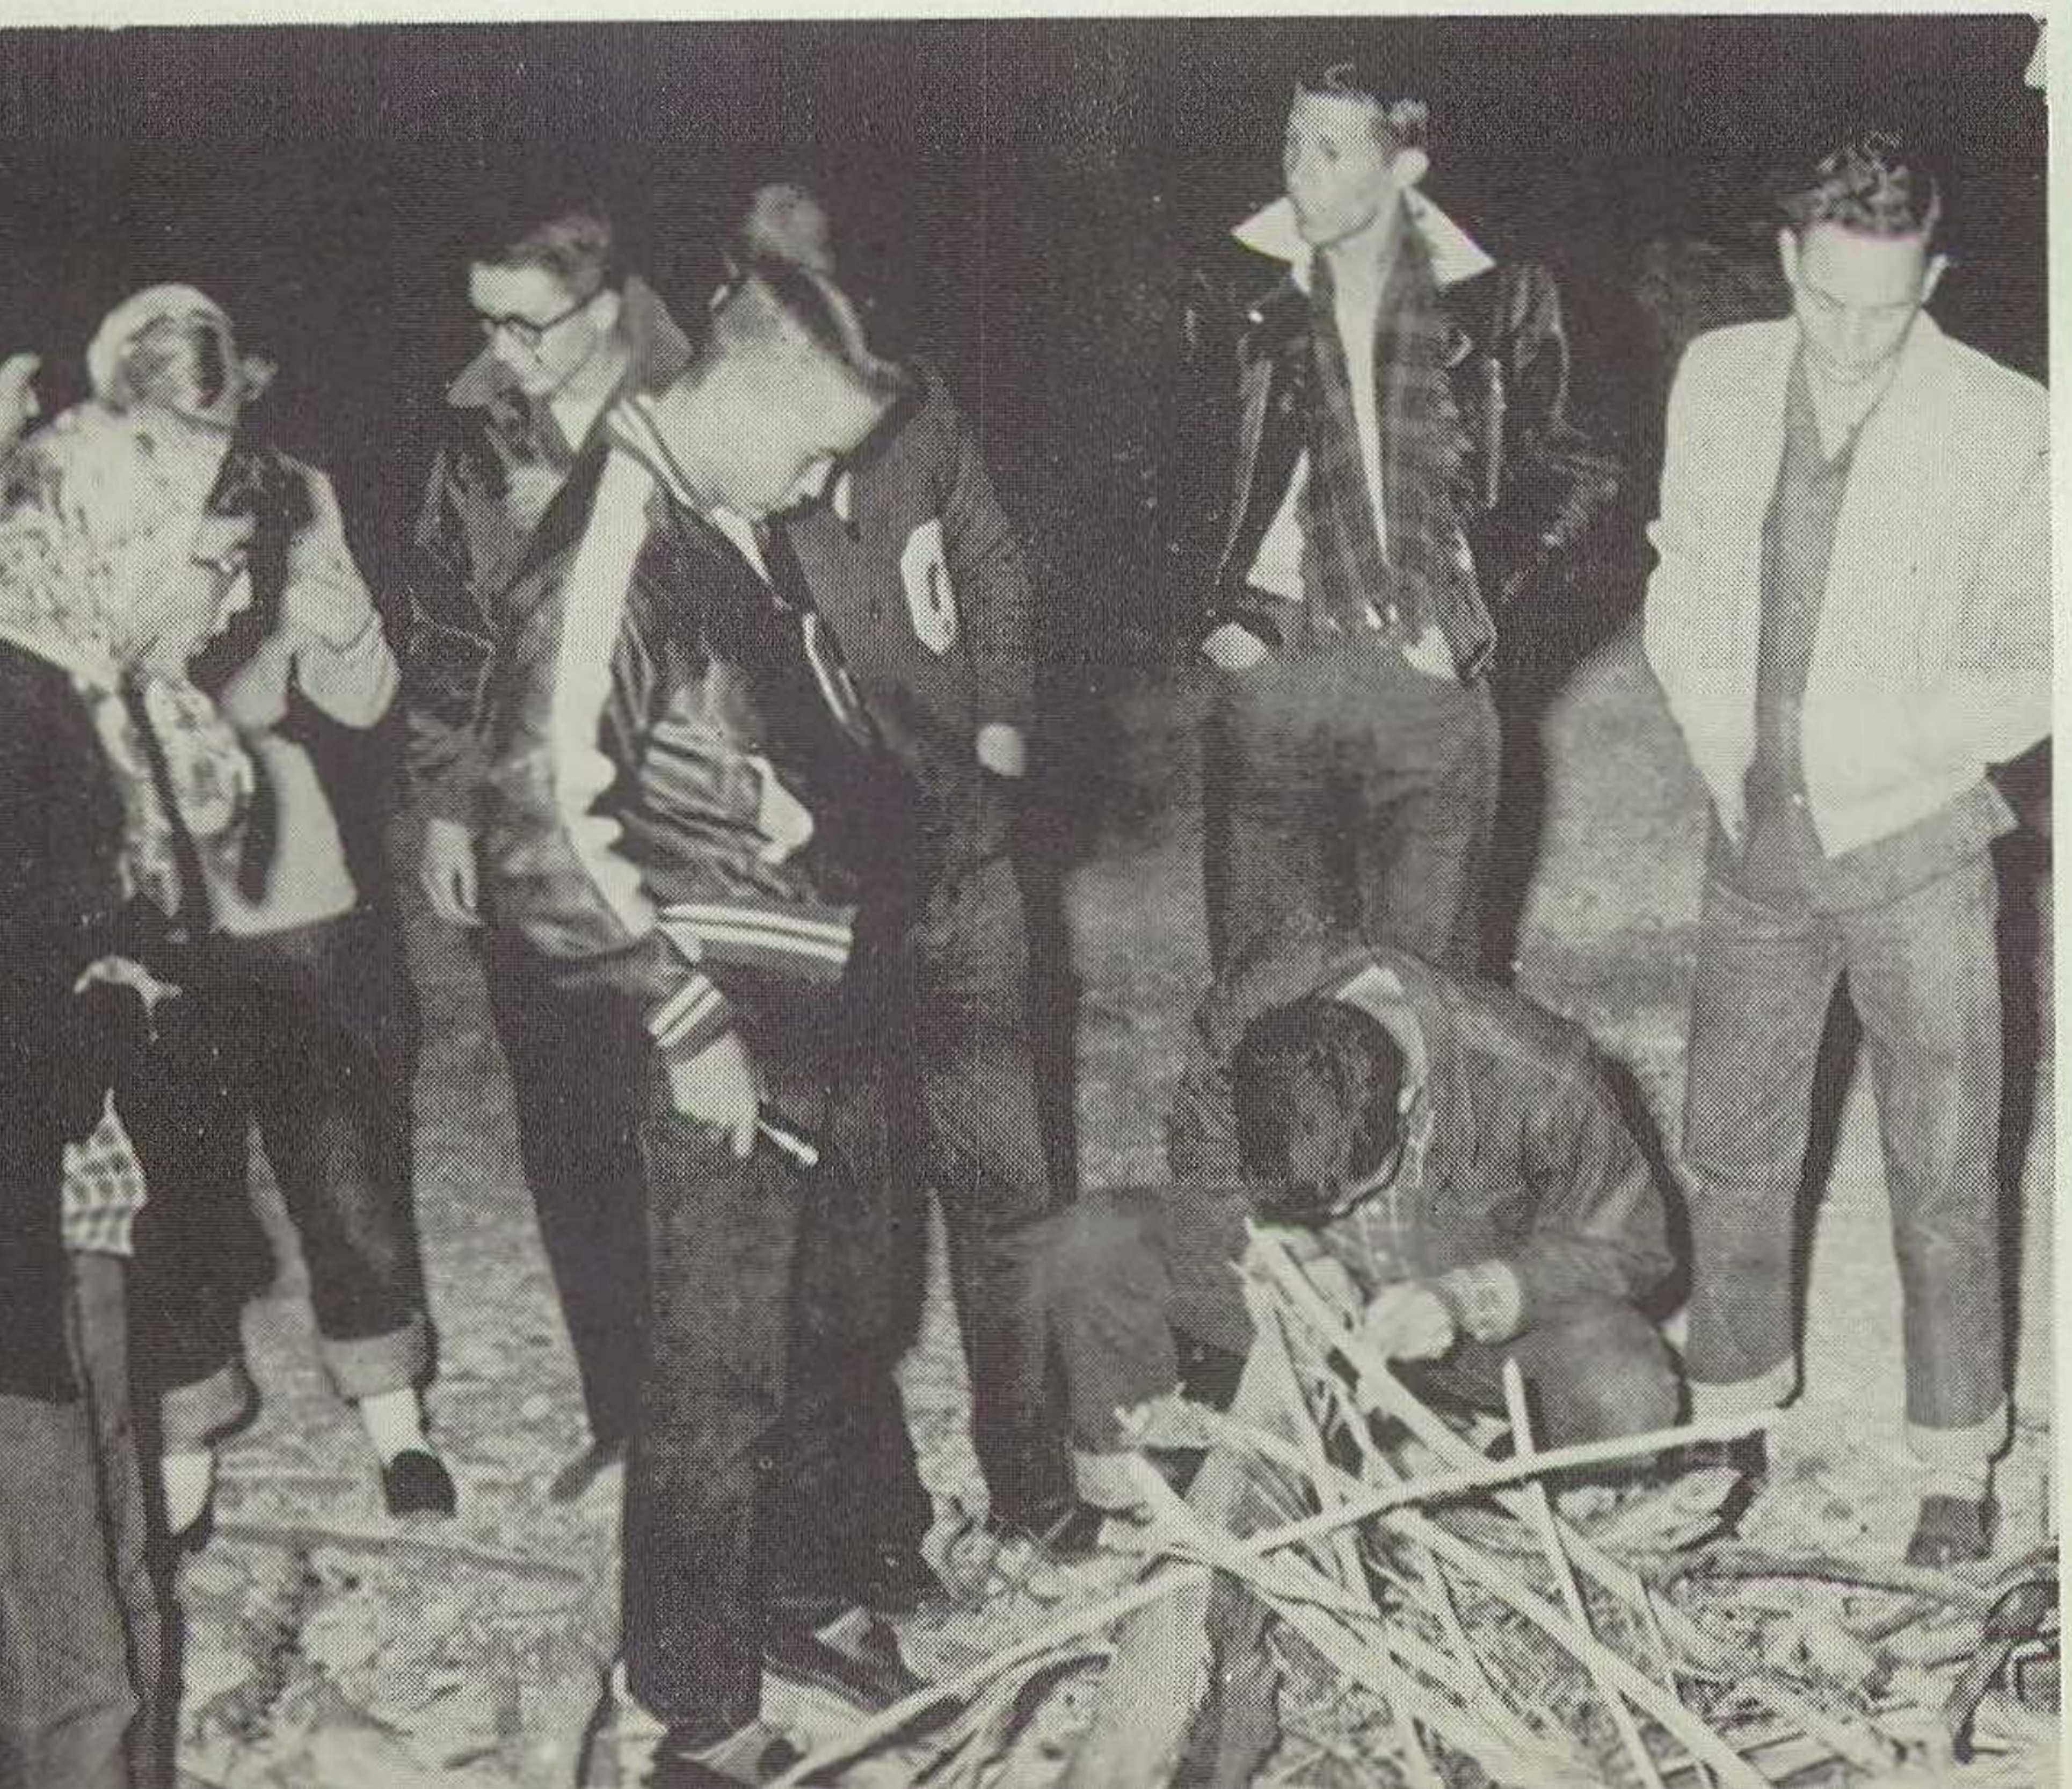
Gloria Jacob and Margie Kokel "bob" for apples at the Senior Halloween party, which was held in the City Park Building. The decorations, carrying out the Halloween theme, consisted of an electrically connected skeleton, and other weird creatures.



Patsy Gunn is greatly impressed with her fortune, as revealed to her by Mrs. J. H. McCoy. The seniors were all anxious to have their palms read.



Coach N. R. Priest gazes into the fire, which provided both light and heat for the Junior Halloween party on October 30, at the H. C. Hawes' rent house. Gloria Schmidt and Grady Bizzell forget the fire but are absorbed in conversation.



Milton Denham, Tommy Stephens and Kenneth Chambers help Tyree Finch build a fire for the sophomores to roast wieners on at their Halloween party held at Third Booty, while Joyce Box provides the wind. Watching the proceedings are Joyce Person, Rosemary Peterson, and Bill Springer.

Christmas Celebrations

During the holiday season both the freshman and senior classes had a class party. The freshmen had a "sock hop," and the seniors had a New Year's Eve party. The Spanish II class gave the special assembly program on December 22. It was an informal play picturing a party given by the Spanish class for the underpriviliged children.

Clayton Hunt comes falling in (with the presents) to the surprise of La Nell Carlson, Gary Granger and Sammy Wilcox in the Christmas program given in assembly.

La Nell Carlson, Larry Eads, and Sammy Wilcox dress David Queen to play Santa Claus in the Christmas program.

Sarah Wheeler, R. J. Mott, Carolyn Forehand, Johnny Tombs, Clayton Hunt, La Nell Carlson and Zara Reid plan refreshments and decorations for freshman party.

Lyndon Rosenblad, Don Williams, Jerry Bane, Janice Glass, Sandra Munson, and Rita McCasland were in charge of planning the Christmas party for the freshman class.

The four debating teams enjoy a midnight snack with Mrs. Springer at the Debate Contest in Waco.

Band Christmas Party

The Band Boosters' Club each year gives a Christmas party for the members of the band. This year it was held at the Country Club. The pictures on this page show the band members and friends having fun.

Patricia Lackey, Sammie Wilcox, J. E. Stubbs, and Band Boosters' president Eddie Cloud enjoy a game at the band's Christmas party.

Kenneth Behrens and June Burkhart in a "dreamy" waltz.

Norman Boufford, Mary Ann Jones, Verly Hunt, and R. J. Mott attempt to follow Virginia Whitfield's directions in one of the games played at the band party.

"Jumping Jupiter"

On May 20th and 21st Soc'n' Buskin presented "Jumping Jupiter" sponsored by the Junior class. The production was double cast, and best actresses and actors were chosen for both nights. At the left is pictured the winners of these honors: Angela Engelbrecht, Wilma Durham, Peggy Phillips, Albert Munson, Donna Hausenfluck, Gloria Jacob, and Norman Boufford.

On Friday night Angela Engelbrecht, "Butch" Johnson, Donna Hausenfluck, Harriet Berglund, and Gloria Jacob helped to make up the cast. At right, the girls prepare to attack "Butch" as he enters to sell magazine subscriptions to the group.

Soc'n' Buskin members and members of the speech class built the scenery for the production of "Jumping Jupiter," which dealt with the lives of three young girls trying to crash Broadway with only $1.96 and two months rent due. Living in the same apartment house is an up-and-coming playwright who has promised the girls parts in his new musical comedy, if it is ever produced. The conflict comes when the girls find they have $50,000, which is to be paid to the kidnappers of a tobacco king's daughter.

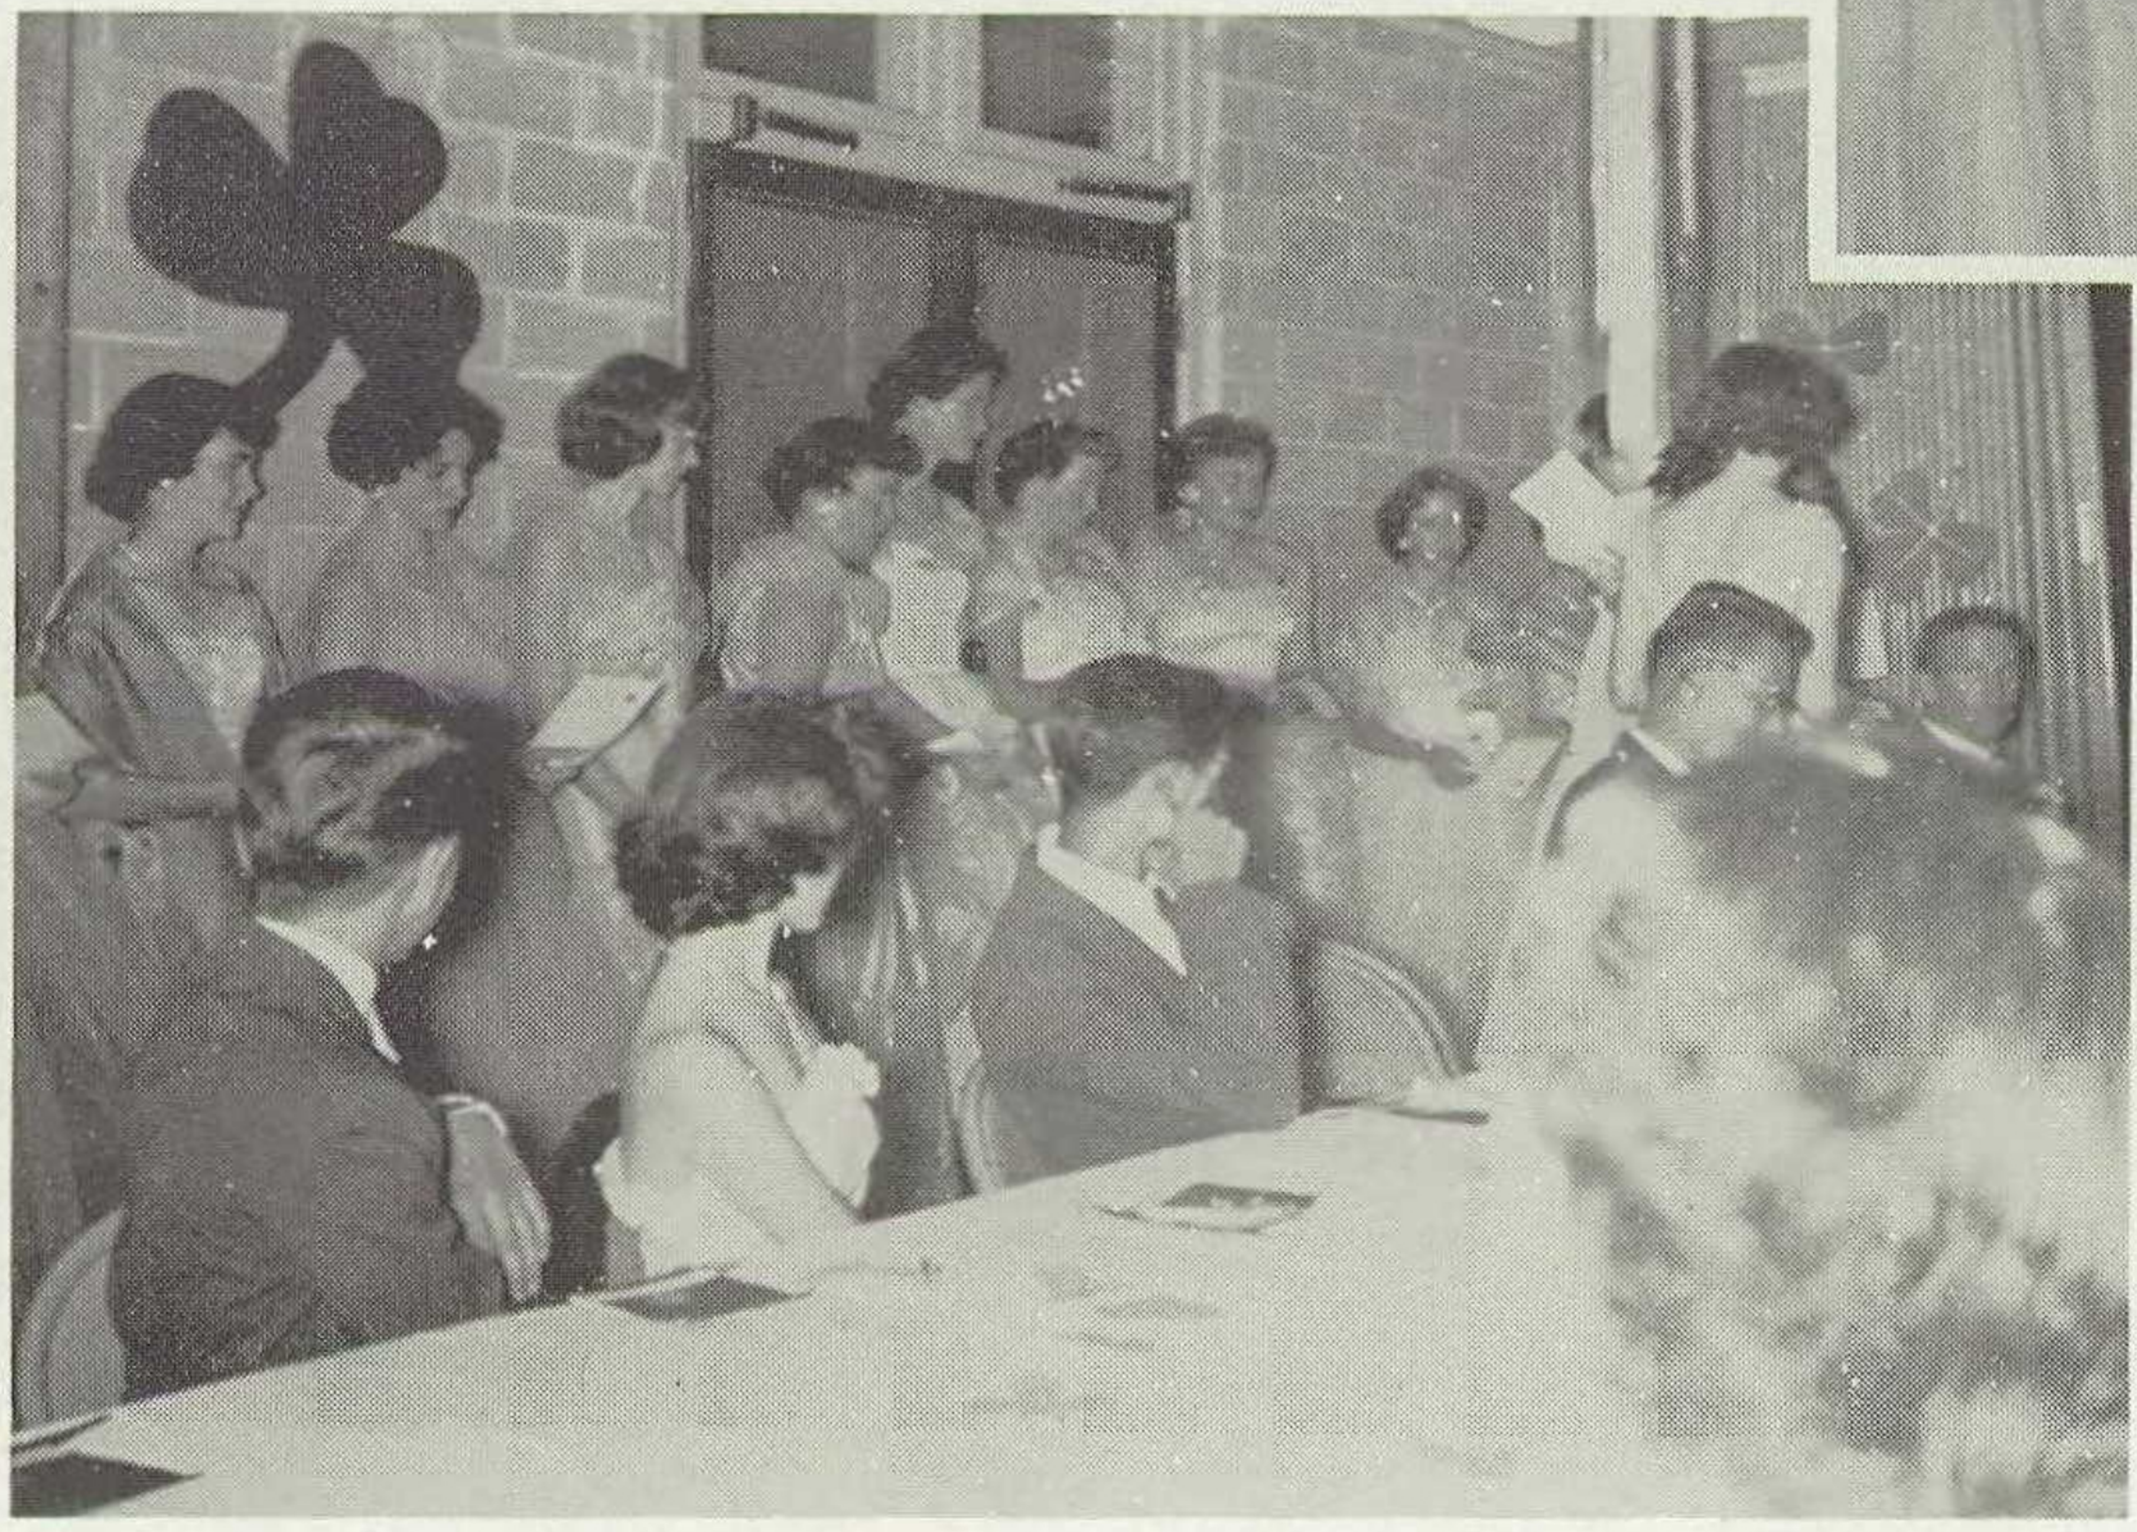
The climax comes when the kidnapped girl is dumped in the girls' lap. After much conflict the girl is returned to her father and the girls receive a $25,000 reward.

Kay Hubbard and Albert Munson give Norman Boufford the "once over" as Margie Cagle and Agusta Valentine stand waiting with their weapons in hand. This group took part in the Thursday night performance of the Junior-Sponsored play, in which members of the four top grades took part.

Spring Activities

Landa Park has been enjoyed many years by students from many different schools, including Georgetown. This year the Freshman class, of which Larry Leggett and Don Williams are members, participated in the activities of this park.

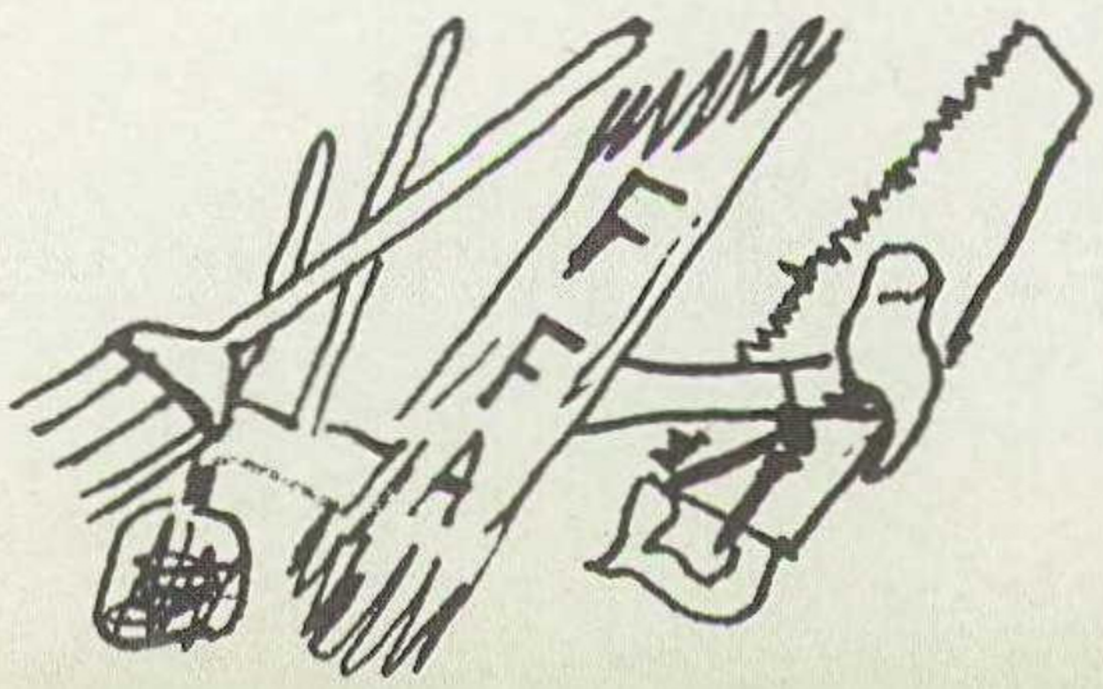
Linda Lussa, Kathy Jacobs, Pat Tienart, Martha Hoffman, Sammie Lou Henderson, Lanell Mott receive their Chapter FHA degree.



The Junior Degree is received by many different members of the FHA.

At the left, Wilford Bane makes his campaign speech in the Student Council elections in which he was elected President.

At the right, Howard Bleeke recites his speech for the FFA Area Meeting in Round Rock.



Junior-Senior Banquet

John Pettijohn gives the welcome to the Juniors, Seniors, and Faculty Sponsors at the Junior-Senior Banquet held on May 20 in the High School Gymnasium. The theme of the banquet was "In Colonial Days" with the setting on the lawn of a colonial mansion. At one end of the gym, a colonial house was erected with a brick wall and a water fountain completing the scenery. Trelises lined the three walls with willow trees overlooking the garden. Guests were served mint julep in the garden, before dinner, by members of the P. A. S. F.

Sammie Henderson, Kenneth Behrens, Martha Hoffman, and Gordon Smith entering the banquet room.

Peggy Blackmore took part on the program, presented in the form of a Negro Minstrel, which was followed by the reading of the Will and Prophecy of the Senior class.

To the right, Bill Springer reads "The Creation" in one of the more serious moments of the program.

Teachers and students alike, enjoy the meal prepared by the mothers of the Junior class members.

November 19 - Eagles vs. Ducks

The Georgetown Eagles, in the last game of the season, defeated the Taylor Ducks. The Ducks were in the lead in scoring until the last two minutes of the game when Wilford Bane ran 65 yards with aid of good blocking to put the Eagles on the twelve yard line. The Eagles ran it over for the touchdown to bring the score to stand 20-17. Just for good measure the Eagles racked up another seven points, and the game ended 27-17. The Eagles' Season always rest on the Taylor game as to whether it will be a success or a failure. This year it meant more because it also determined whether the Eagles would share the 22AA crown.

Summary of the Eagle Season

The 1954-55 Eagle Football season proved to be one to be long remembered by the Eagle team and fans. The Eagles played good clean ball all season and even though they did lose three games they were never beaten. They ended the season with a 7-3 standing.

The Eagles who made the Austin American First All District Team were: Barney Stanley, Wilford Bane and Curtis Gibbs. "Bubba" Kimbro and Earl McKeithan were on the Second All District Team. Coach Birklebach was named All Central Texas Coach of the year.

Billie Finnie, Deanna Doerfler, Barbara Pope, Margaret Threadgill, and Angela Englebretch, were a great asset to the Eagles. They helped, with their Spirit to send the team to the District Co-Championship.

Junior Cheerleaders, Karen Cole, Sandra Elliot, Murphy Wilcox, Carolyn Faught, Cammy Blackmore, and Mary McCoy were important to their Junior Eagles also. Here they pose with the pep sign.

The Summer Recreation Program

The summer recreation program, which is sponsored by the civic organizations of our community, provides helpful training in the following phases: swimming classes, tennis instruction, organized baseball teams, cooking, sewing, and leather-craft classes.

About two hundred boys and girls between the ages of six and fifteen took part in this recreation program.

Baseball is stressed above the other activities as there is quite a bit of competition between the various teams sponsored by business firms of our town. The Babe Ruth League was composed of two teams, one Optimist sponsored, and the other Lions Club sponsored. In the final playoff, the Optimists' team won the title.

The Little League teams also presented quite a number of exciting hours for the fans of our community. Teams making up the Little League and their sponsors are as follows: Cardinals, sponsored by the Lions Club; Yankees, sponsored by the Optimist; Dodgers, sponsored by the Business Women's League; and Giants, sponsored by Jones' Auto Supply Store. In the finals, the Giants won the Little League title over very good competition from the remaining teams.

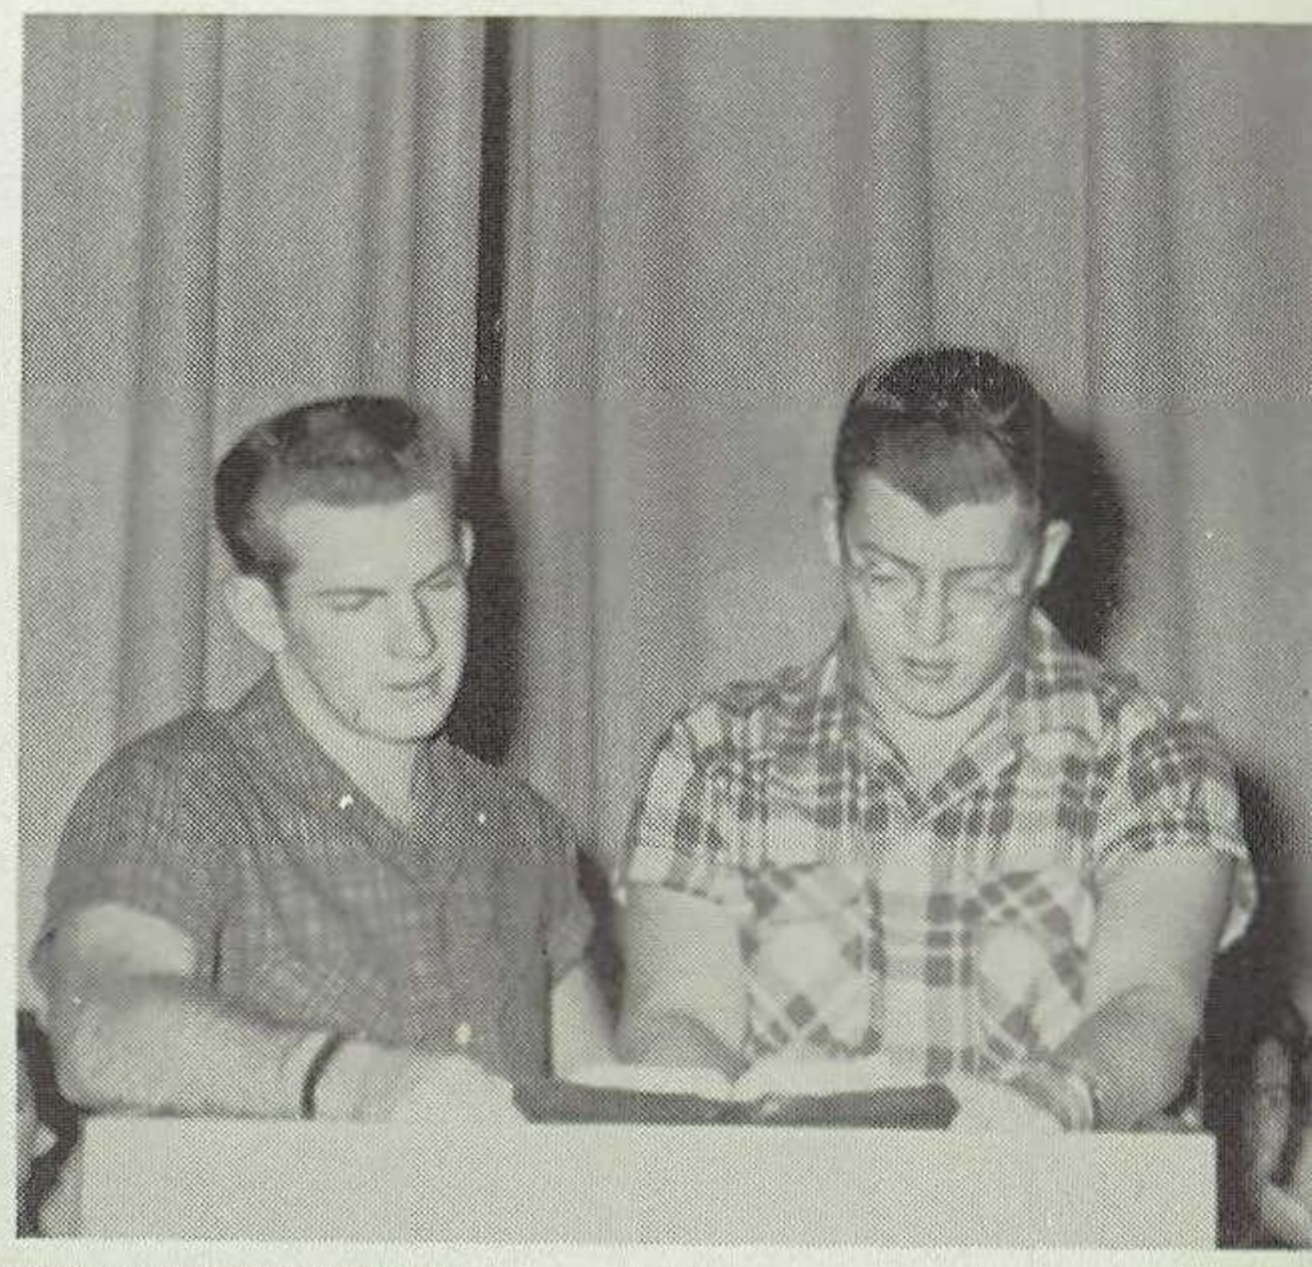
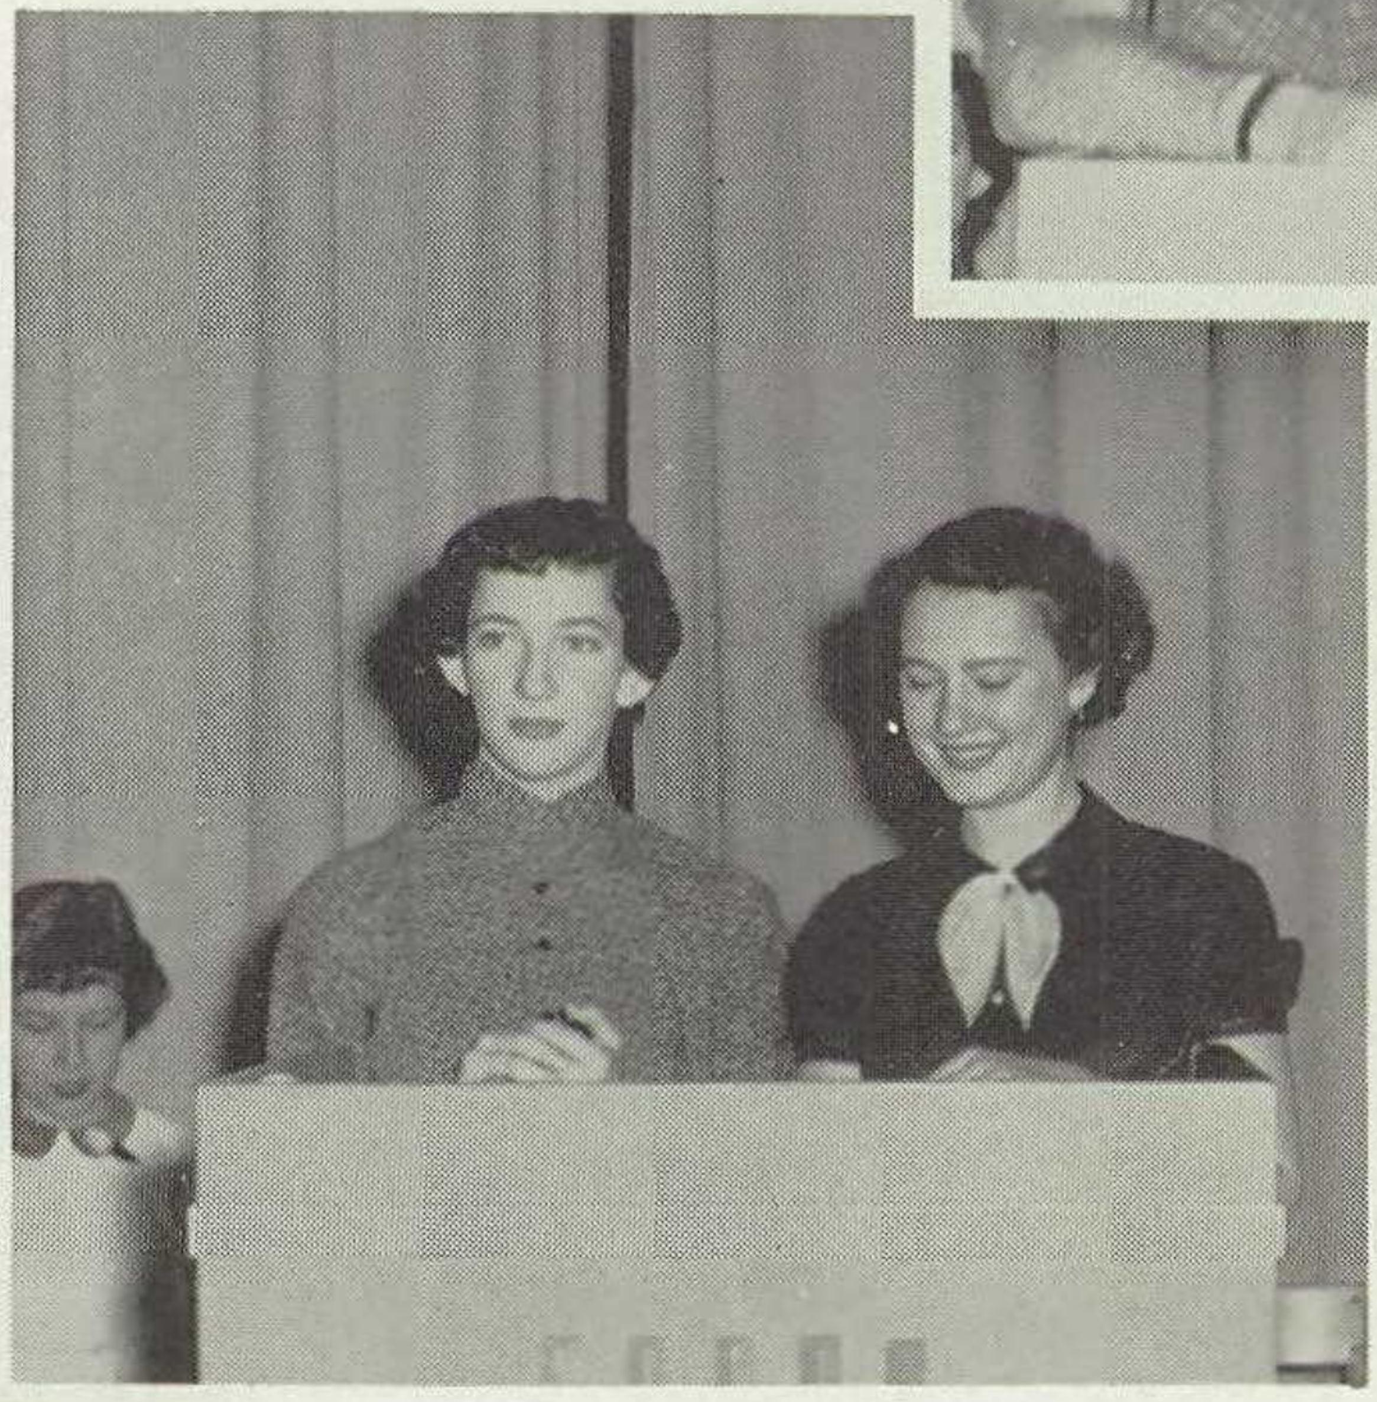
Thanksgiving Assembly

Peggy Blackmore, third vice president of the Student Council, is in charge of all assembly programs. Working with her as a committee are Barbara Pope, Kenneth Behrens and Rosemary Peterson. Mrs. Jana Greenway works as the faculty advisor. Their planned programs include talks from various pastors and other leaders in our town. Special day programs are under the direction of classes. The Thanksgiving program, sponsored by the fifth-hour American history class is typical of this type of program.



Albert Munson led the prayer for the Thanksgiving program and Gordon Smith read the 100th Psalm.



Patsy Gunn and Jean Peters gave "The Meaning of Thanksgiving," and the Thanksgiving Proclamation in the assembly program.

Linda Luksa and Kenneth Behrens gave Thanksgiving readings for the program.

Gayle Ann Smith, Patsy Gunn, Donna Hausenfluck, and Margie Cagle sang "Cherubim Song" for the Thanksgiving program.

Southwestern University

Southwestern University, an institution over 100 years old, is located in Georgetown and has contributed religious influence not only to the high school students but to the entire community. It has taken a lead in the religious activities of its denomination, and through close co-operation with the various religious groups of our community, it has encouraged a well-rounded physical and spiritual program.

Each church sponsors youth organizations to guide the young people of its denomination. Young people have the opportunity to participate in wholesome activities under the guidance of the church. The Tuesday Night Supper Club which meets each week at the First Methodist Church is an inter-denominational organization which brings the youth of our community closer together in both work and play.

The youth of Georgetown and surrounding territories agree fully that our town is a much better place to live because of the work done in and through our churches and their organizations.

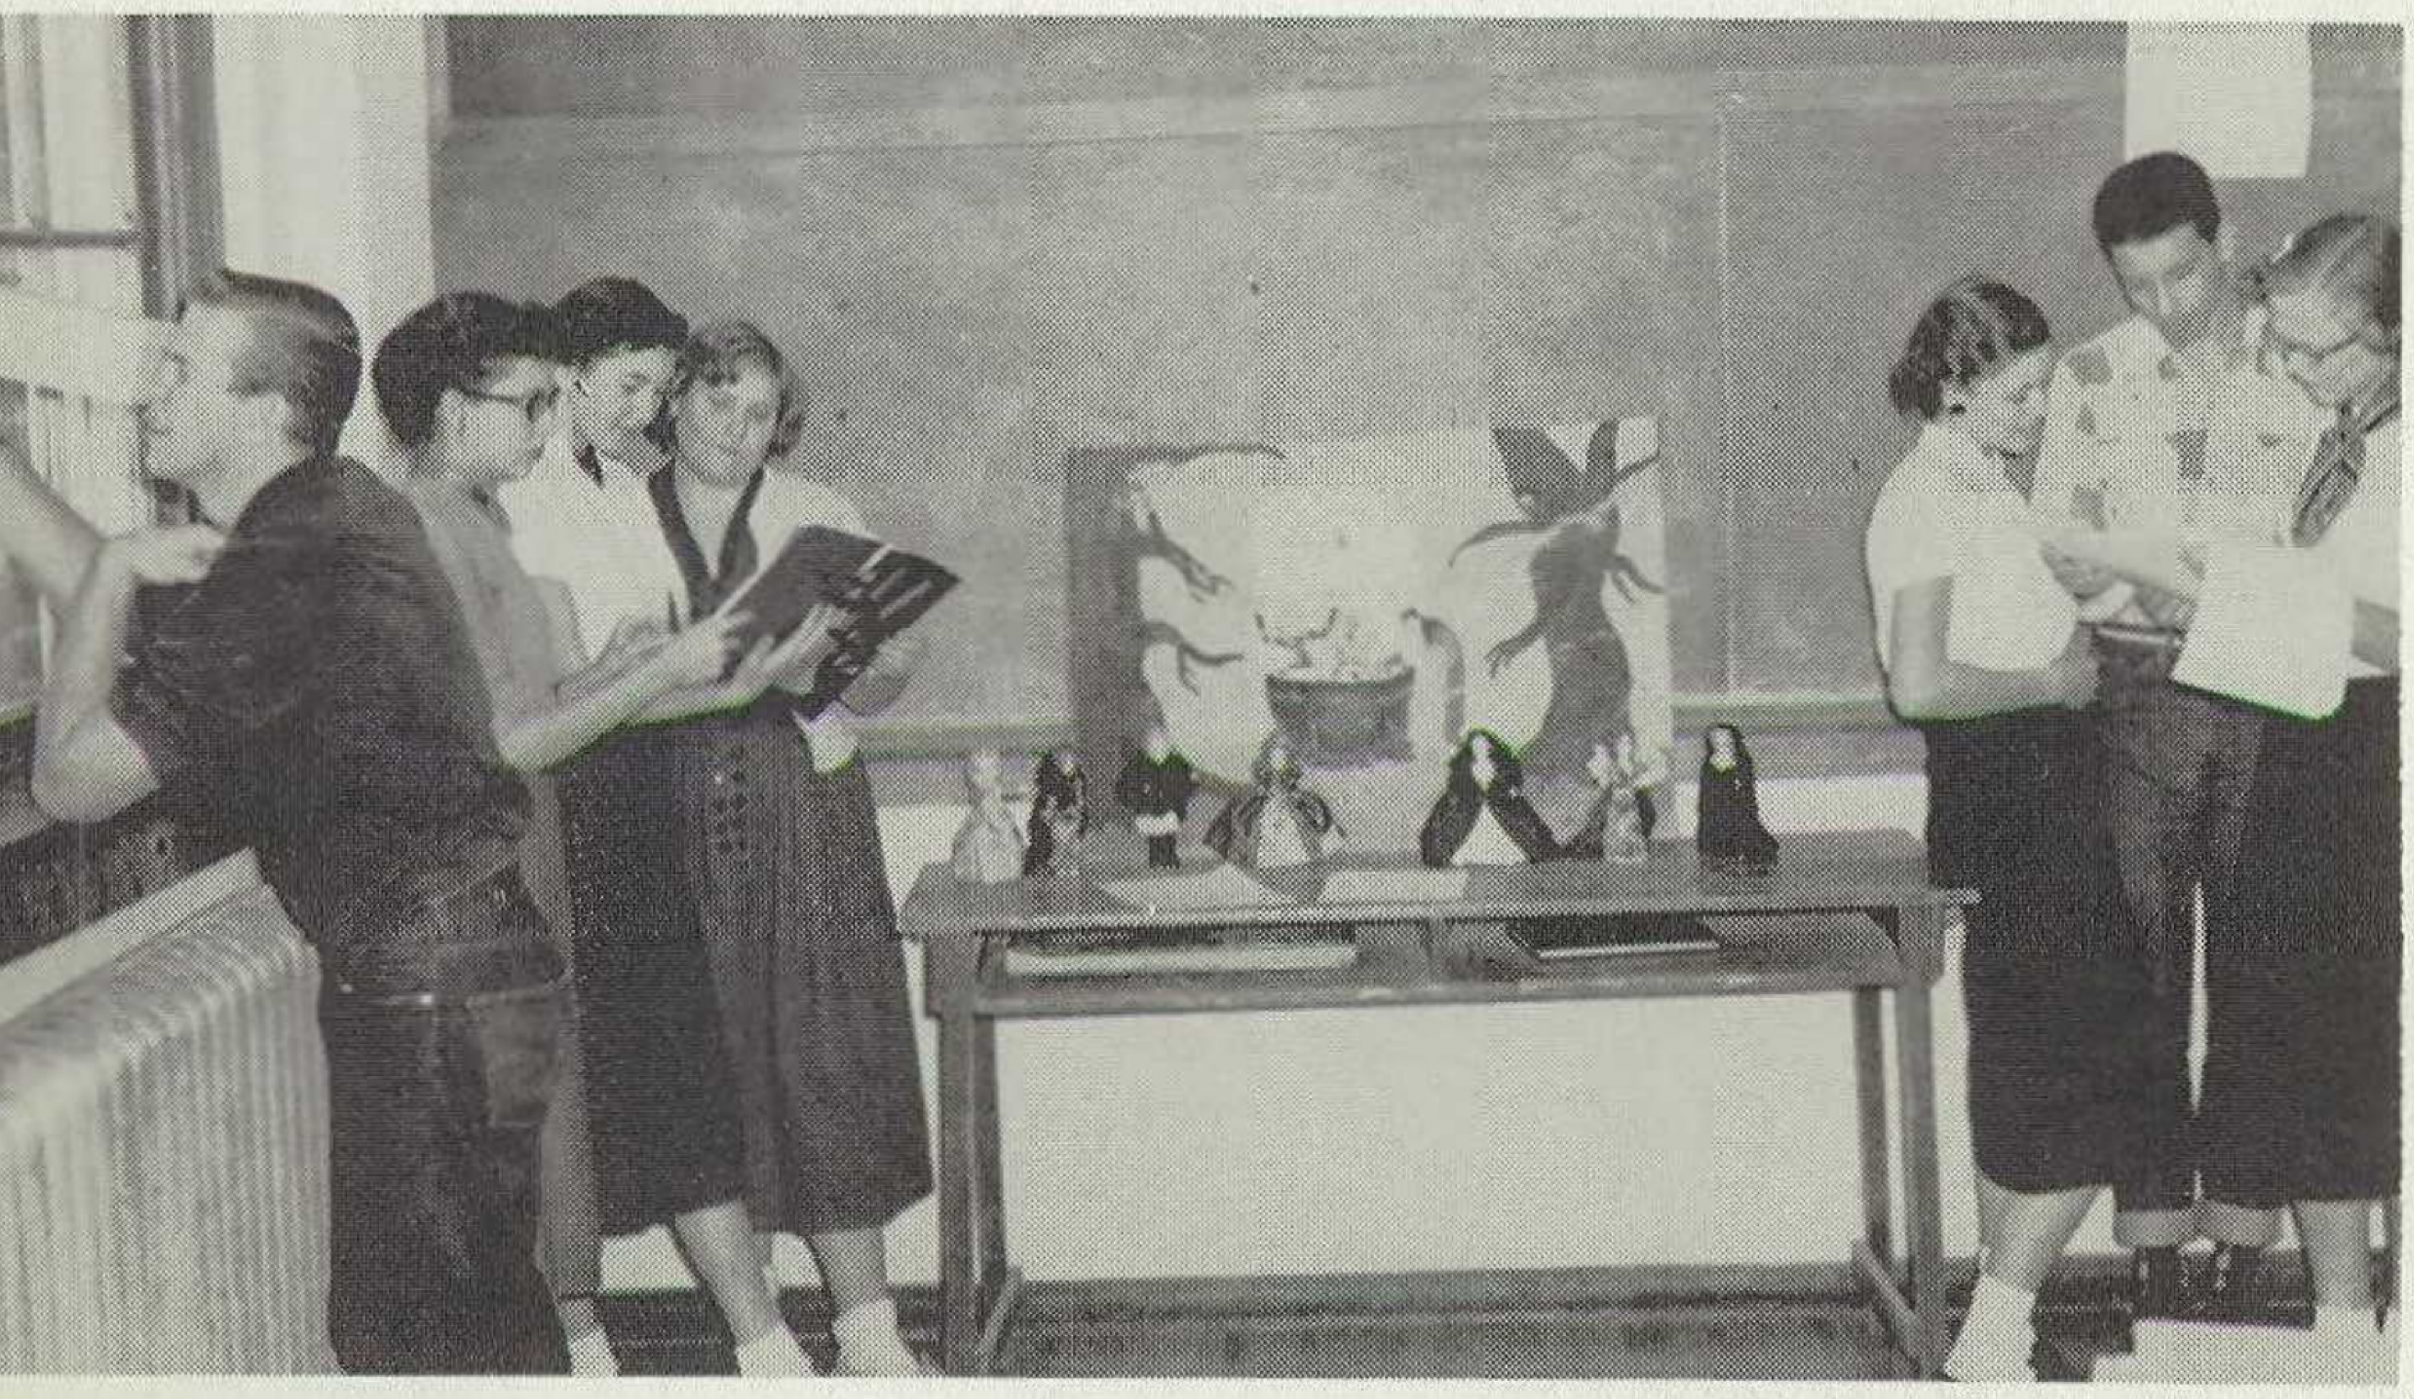
Mrs. Springer teaches junior and senior English, speech and drama. She is the sponsor of Soc 'n' Buskin and directs all activities of that organization. She is also the advisor and sponsor of the debate teams and the junior class.

Peggy Philips, Billie Finnie, Evelyn Nolan, Nancy Ellyson, Charlie Guantt, Kenneth Green, and Marilyn Allan examine the English IV projects which were made at the end of their study of Shakespearean literature.



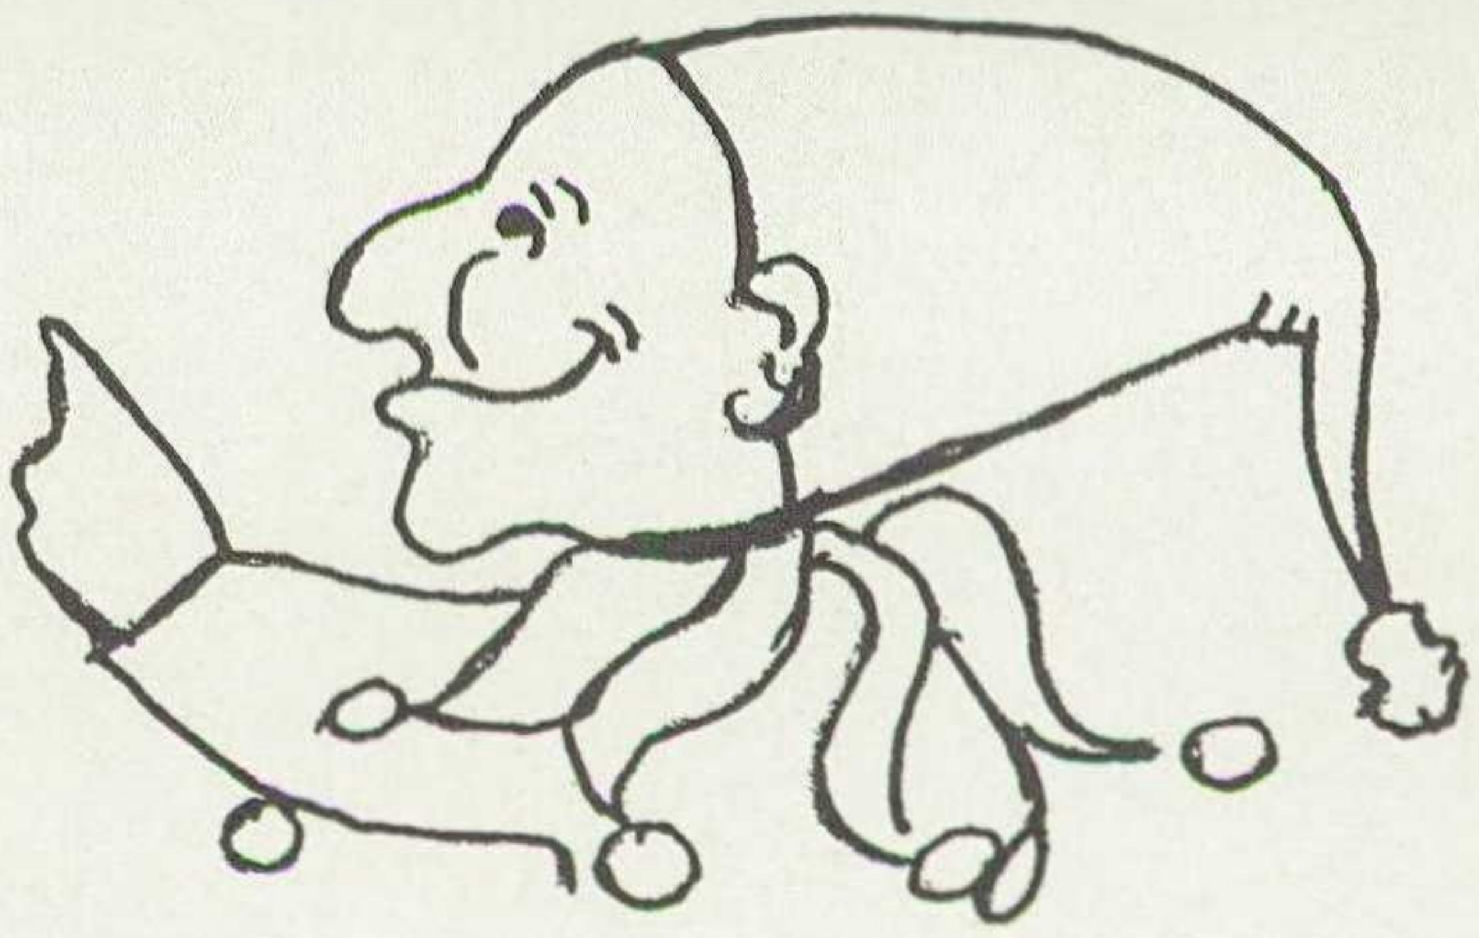
Albert Munson, La Nell Mott, Barbara Pope, Gail Thompson, Gloria Fletcher, Charlie Chance, and Gloria Jacob enjoy comparing their Shakespearean literature projects.

This year Soc 'n' Buskin put on all the class plays using members of the club in the casts. The classes and the club shared the profits.

Martin McClain, best actor of the senior play, "Charley's Aunt," nearly explodes from trying to hold his breath in one of the funniest scenes.

Soc'n'Buskin

On February 14, the Soc 'n' Buskin held a formal initiation for the new members of the National Thespians, a national honor drama society. Nineteen new members were initiated by the installing officers, Christie Armstrong and Kenneth Behrens, and sponsor, Mrs. Angus Springer.



In the Tea Scene, a scene enjoyed by the cast as well as the audience, Donna Lucia carries on a conversation with Babbs as he pours tea--into Mr. Spettigue's hat. Jack shows great consternation at the sight while John Pettijohn, who played Brasset the butler, seems to be amused by Babb's antics.

Babbs attempts to show musical ability for his 'little girl,' Ella Delahay, while Donna Lucia and Kitty Verdun watch with evident enjoyment.

Christie Armstrong, who played the part of Donna Lucia, was best actress of the Senior play.

"Sunny Morning"

Georgetown won state-wide acclaim through its production of the one-act play "Sunny Morning, " a translation of a Spanish play by the Srs. Quinters.

The schedule of performances was as follows: Georgetown P. T. A. ; student body; T. U. Student Activities Conference, Austin; District Meet, Taylor; Regional U. I. L. , San Marcos; State Meet Class "A", Austin.

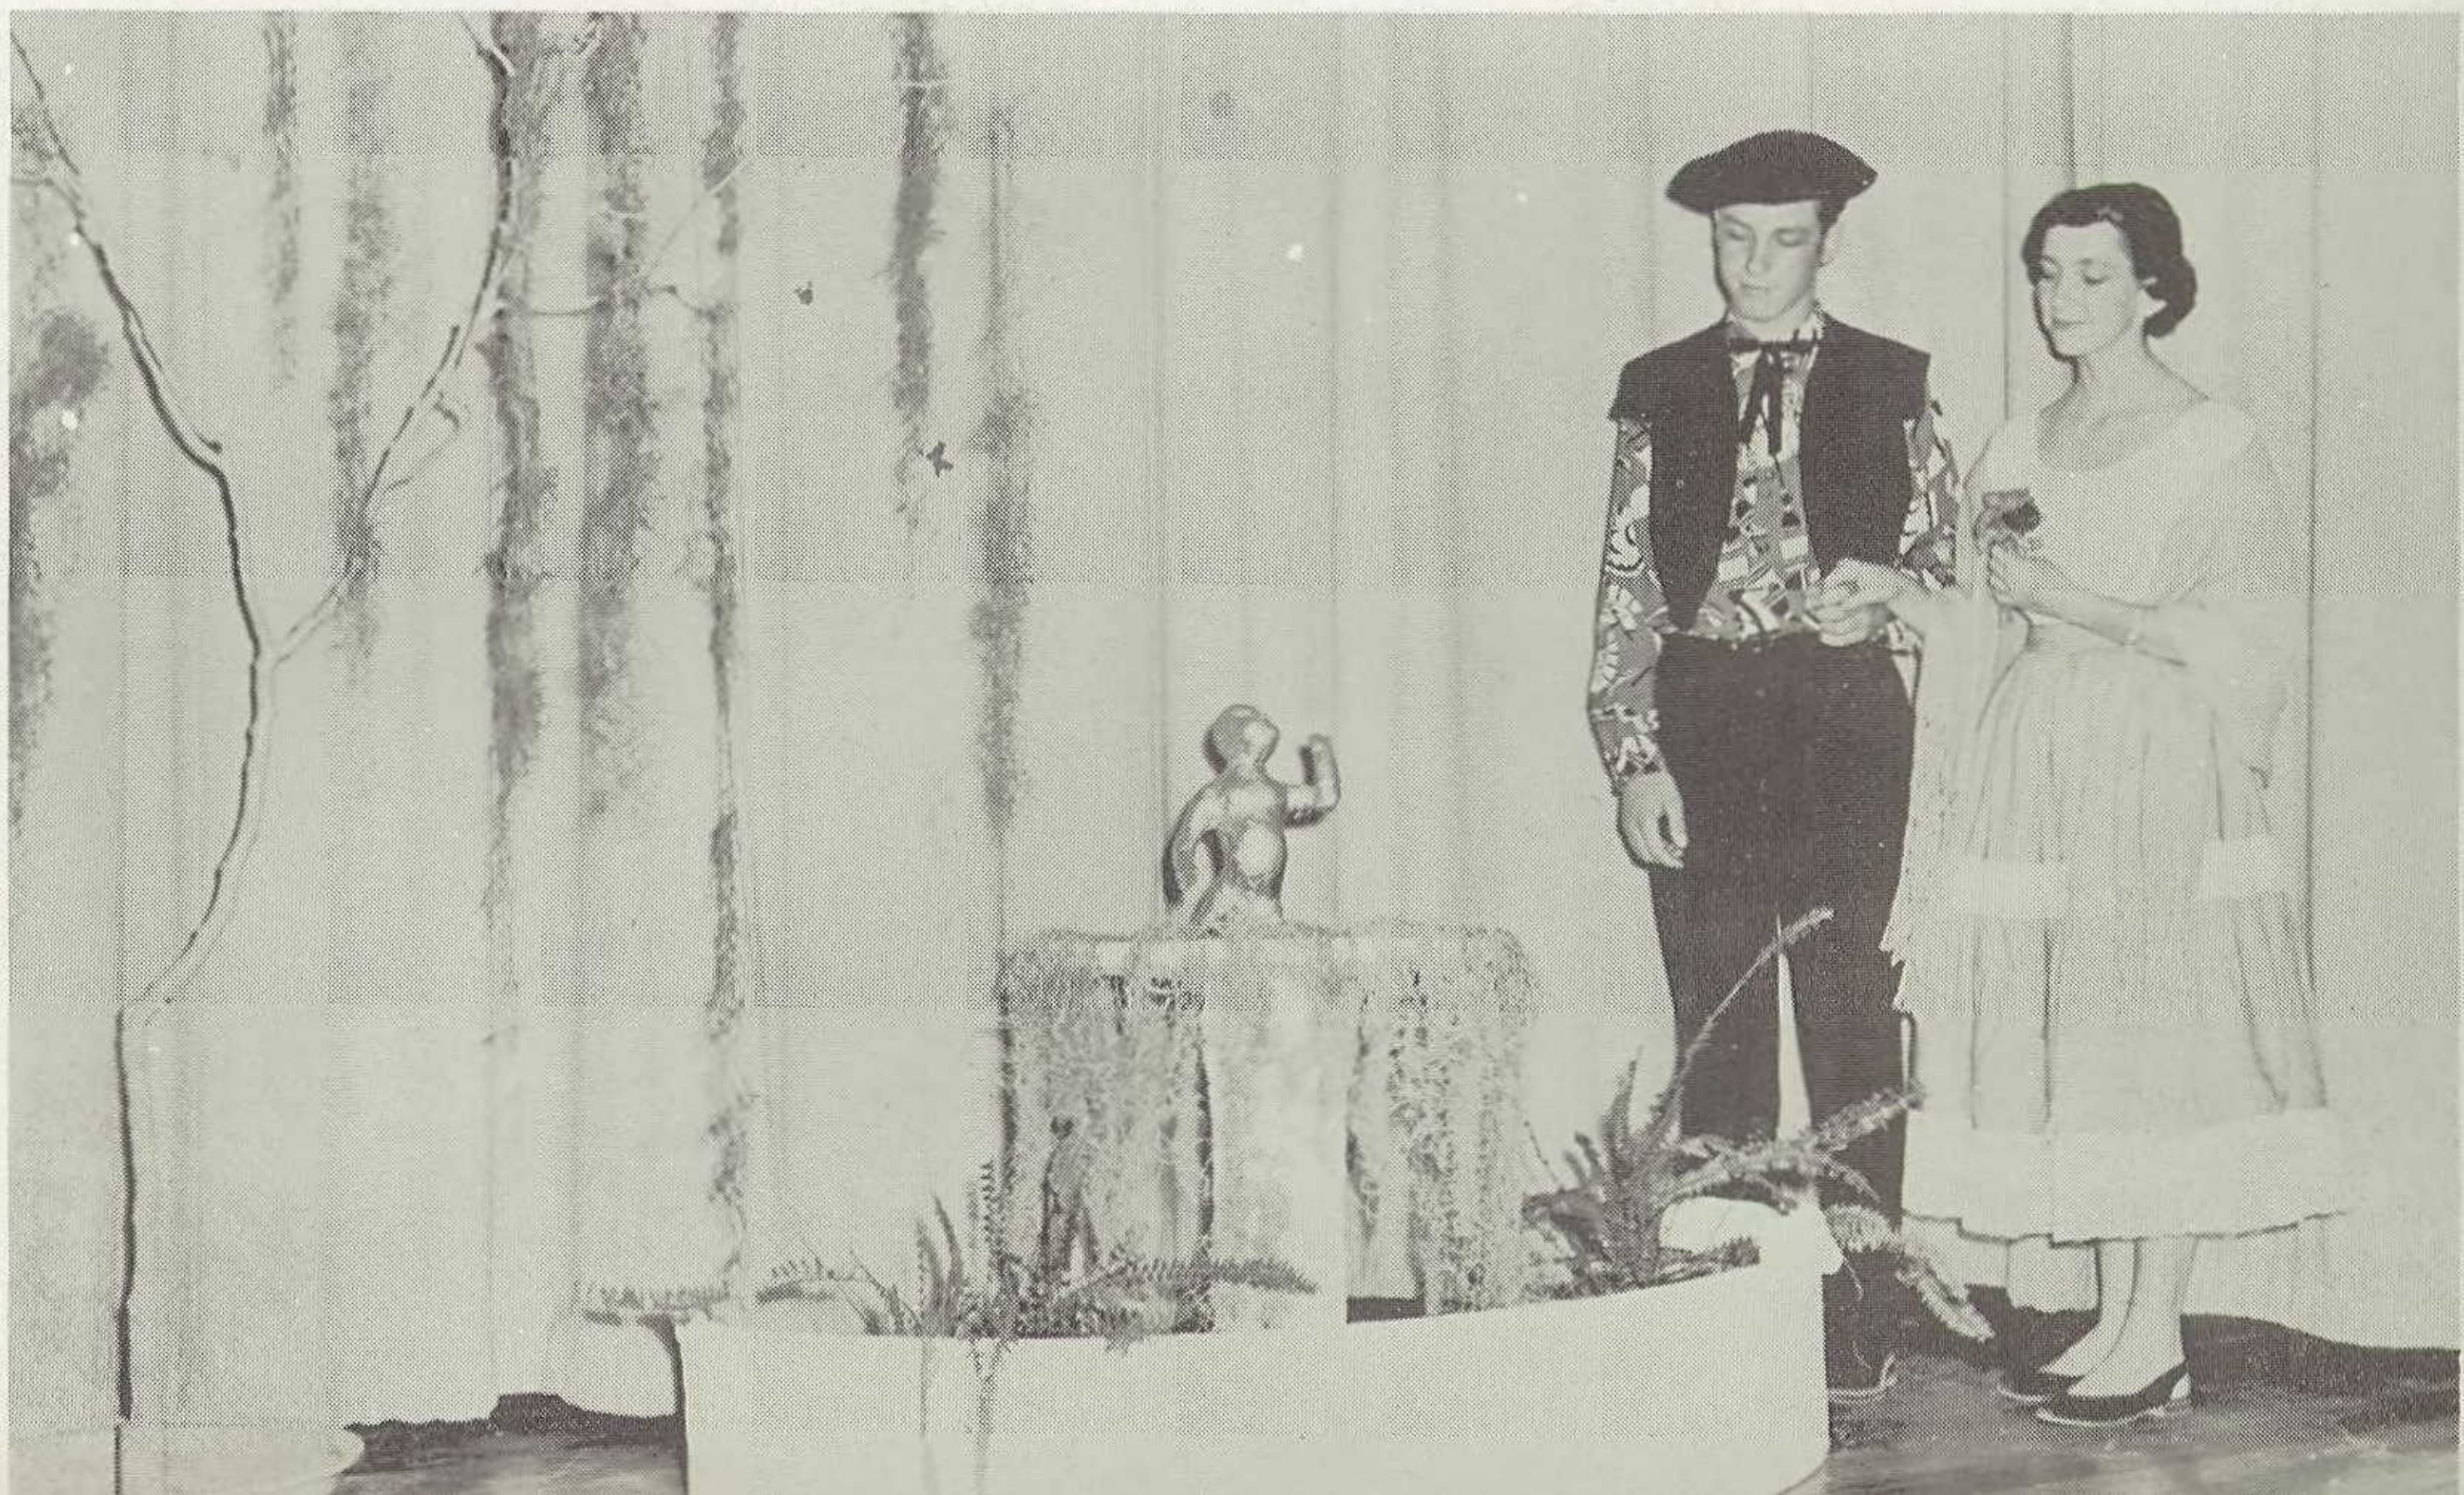
The cast consisted of Kenneth Behrens, Sammie Lou Henderson, Patsy Gunn, and Barto Patterson.

Kenneth and Sammie Lou received first place honors in all contests including the Samuel French State Award.

Martin McClain, Butch Johnson and Kenneth Behrens were creators of the colorful and fantastic scenery which received favorable criticism.

Kenneth Behrens and Sammie Henderson - Winners State First Places.

Barto Patterson and Patsy Gunn - Supporting Cast.

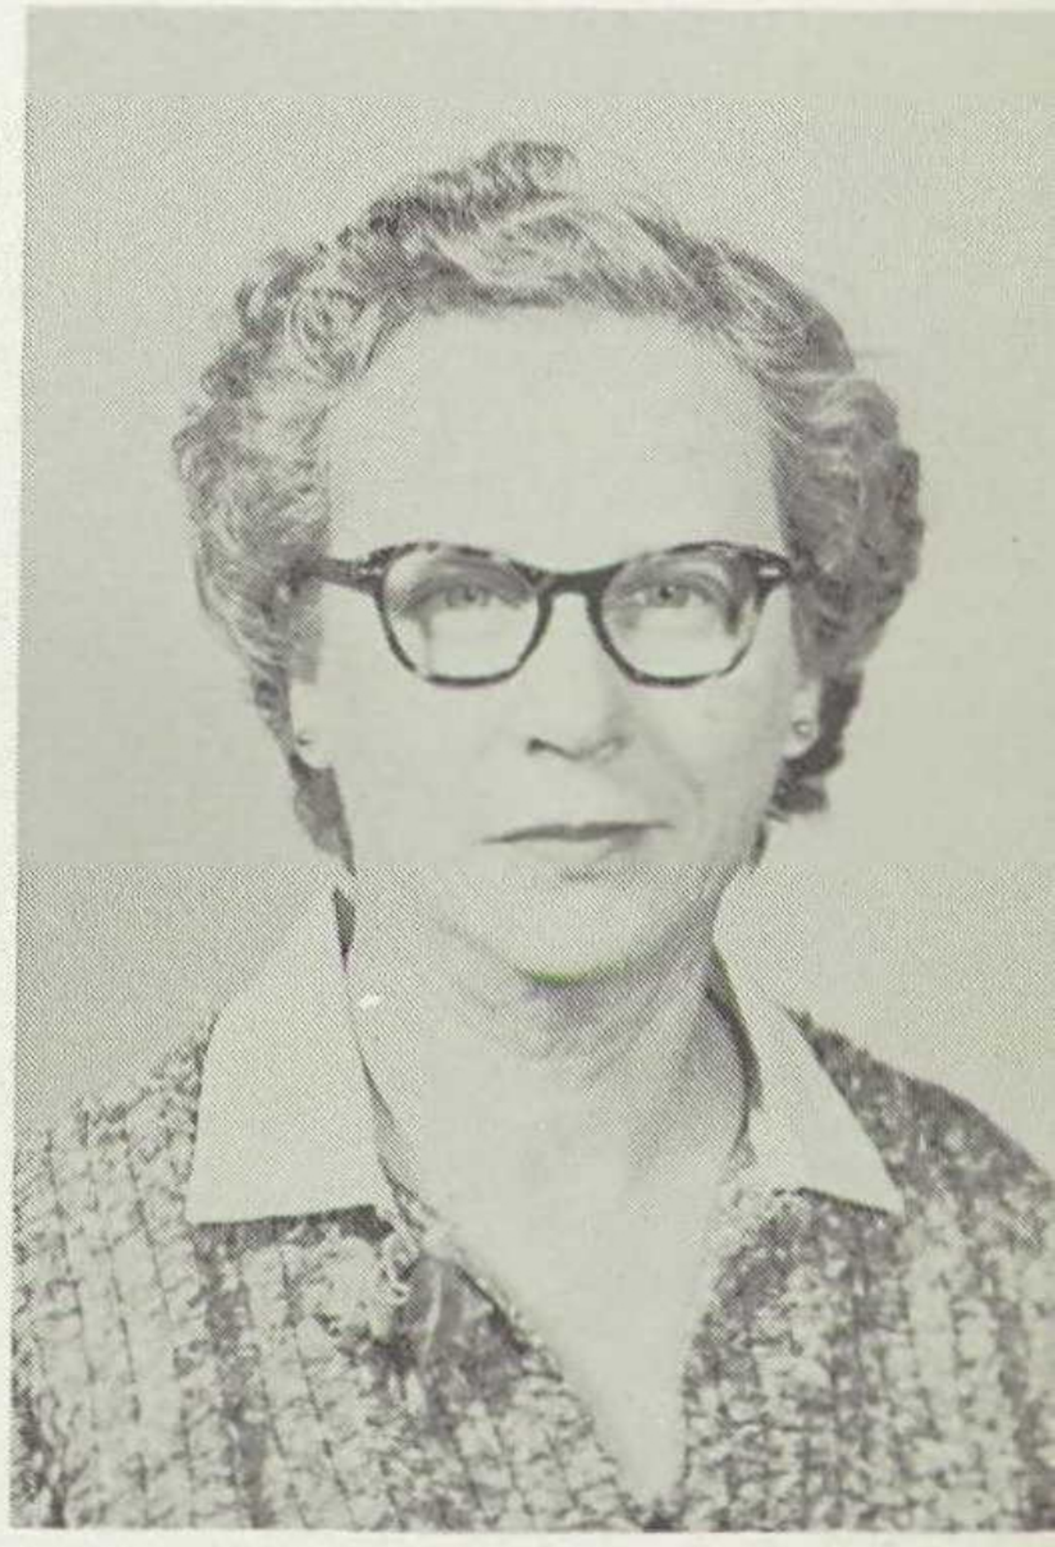


La Nell Mott was in charge of make-up and Albert Munson was stage manager.

The cast attributes the success of the play to the capable direction of Mrs. Angus Springer.

One of the high points in the English classes is acting out the plays given in the textbook. The English I class is shown in this picture as they act out "The Valiant." Lyndon Rosenblad, who is portraying the warden, gazes into space as Sammy Wilcox takes his part as the priest in a serious manner. Brian Engelbrecht seems to be in deep thought as to his future. He plays the convict who is approaching execution.

Val Jean Bethke seems to be carried away as she demonstrates (for La Vera Mickan and Patricia Tienert) how Caesar was killed.



MISS AGNES WILCOX
B. A., Southwestern University

Miss Wilcox teaches both freshman and sophomore English. She also is a junior class sponsor.

Miss Wilcox proves that she is a good sport as she cautiously enters the "spook" house at the junior class Halloween party.

MRS. LORRAINE HINDELANG
B. A., Trinity University

Mrs. Hindelang, who is teaching in a Georgetown school for the first time, teaches freshman, sophomore and junior English. She also teaches world history and is the Eagle sponsor.

MRS. PACE ARMSTRONG
B. A., Southwestern University

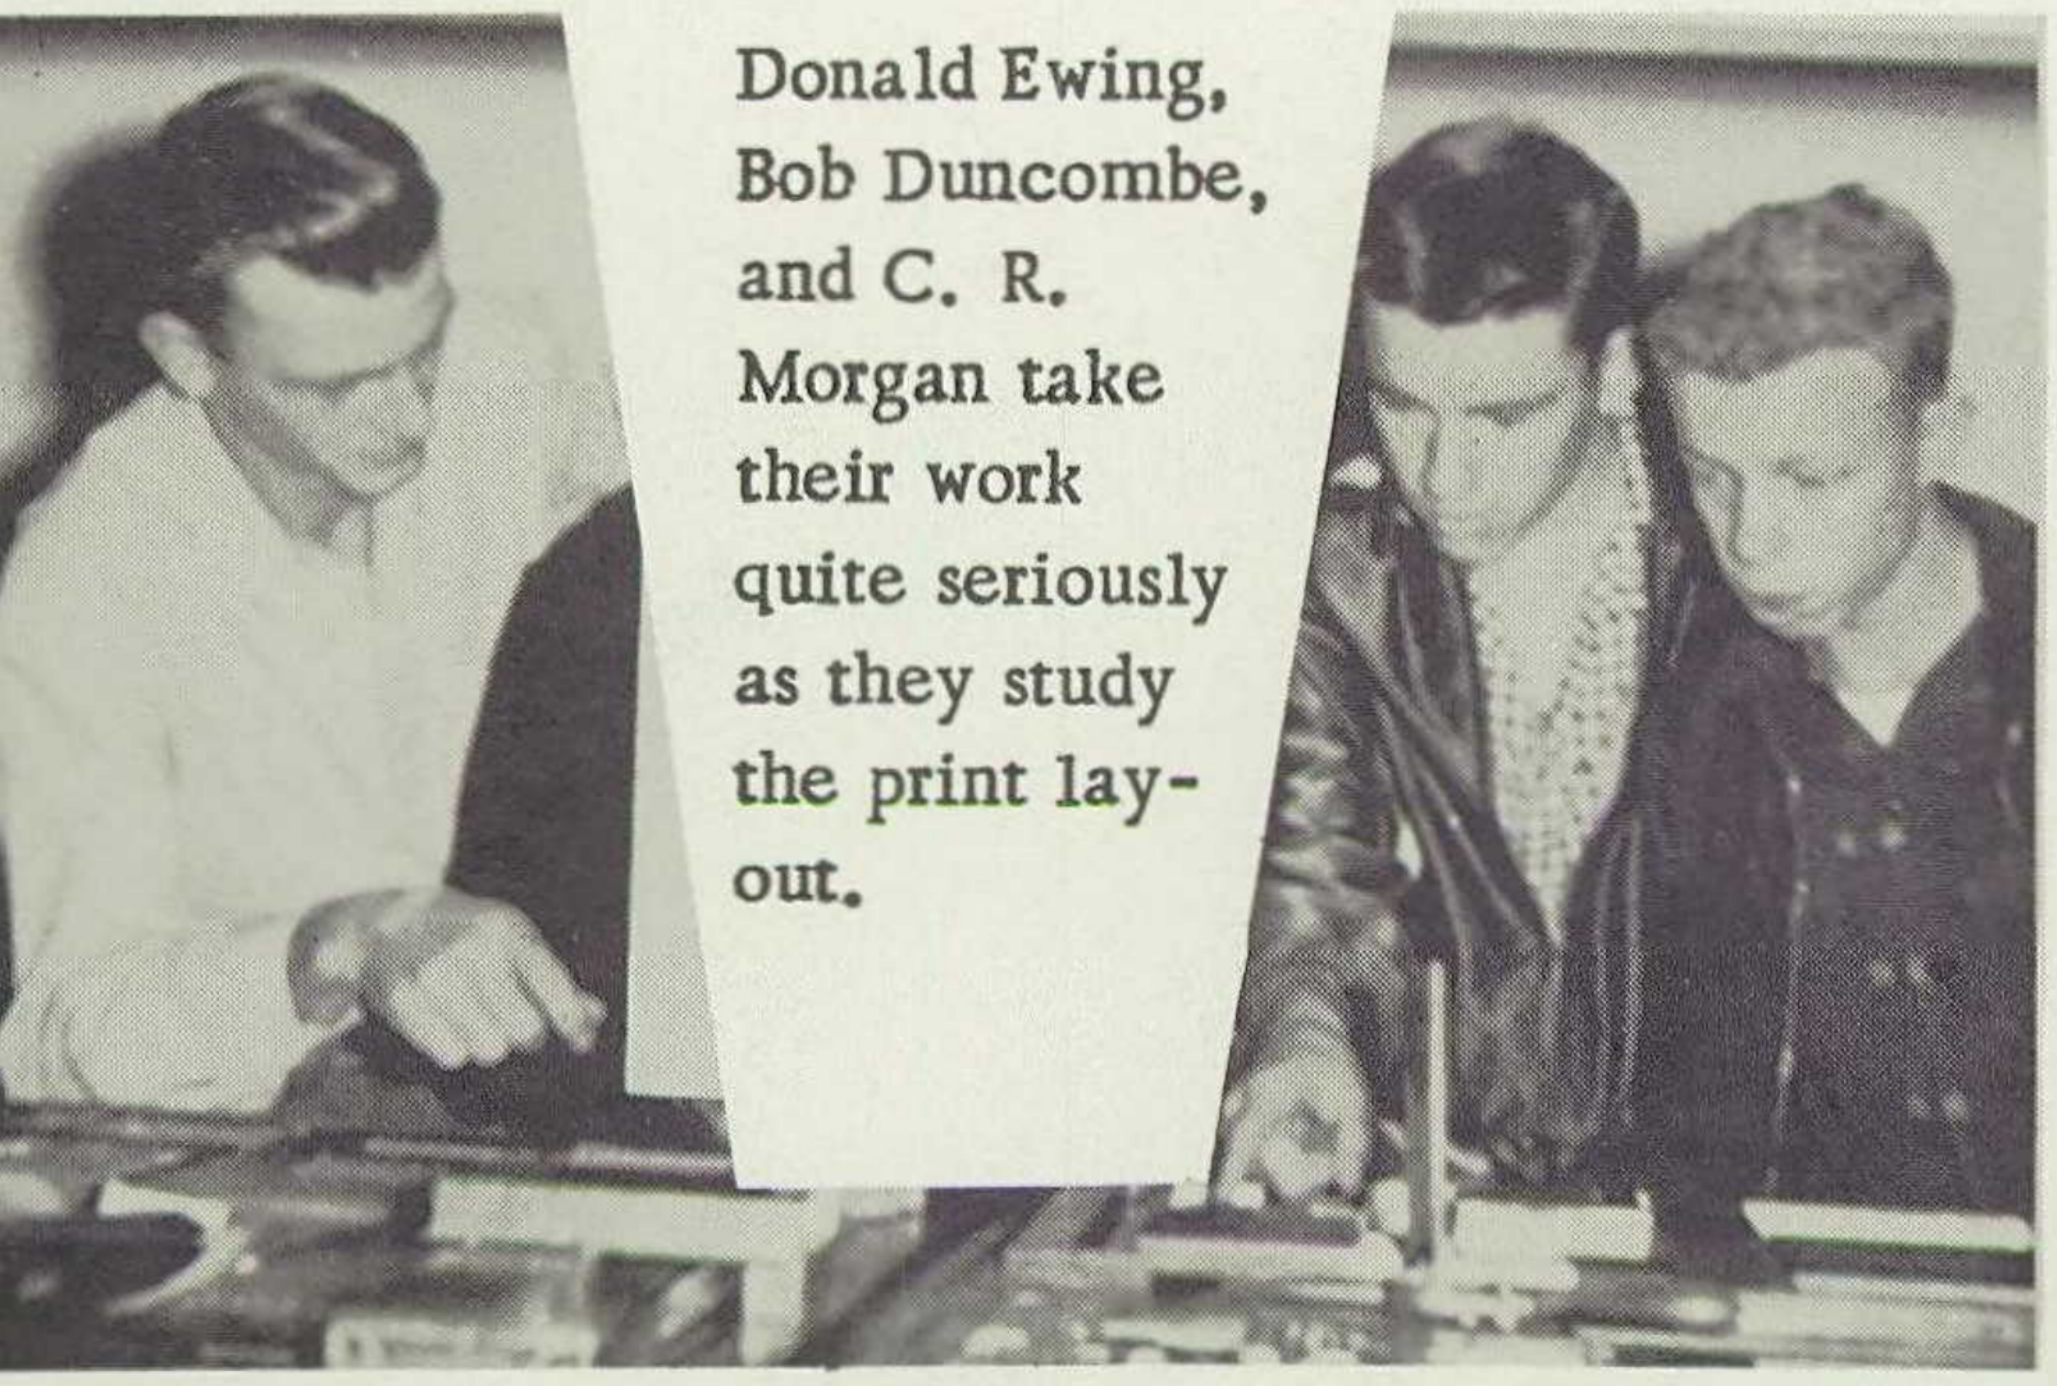
Mrs. Armstrong teaches seventh and eighth language arts and eighth grade safety. She is an eighth grade sponsor.

Mrs. Hindelang's freshman English class enjoys acting out old English ballads. The students are, left to right: Imadell Burks, Janice McDonald, Janice Glass, and Kay Adams. Below: Janice Glass, Josephine Valdez, Rita McCasland and Ann Love complete a tragic scene.

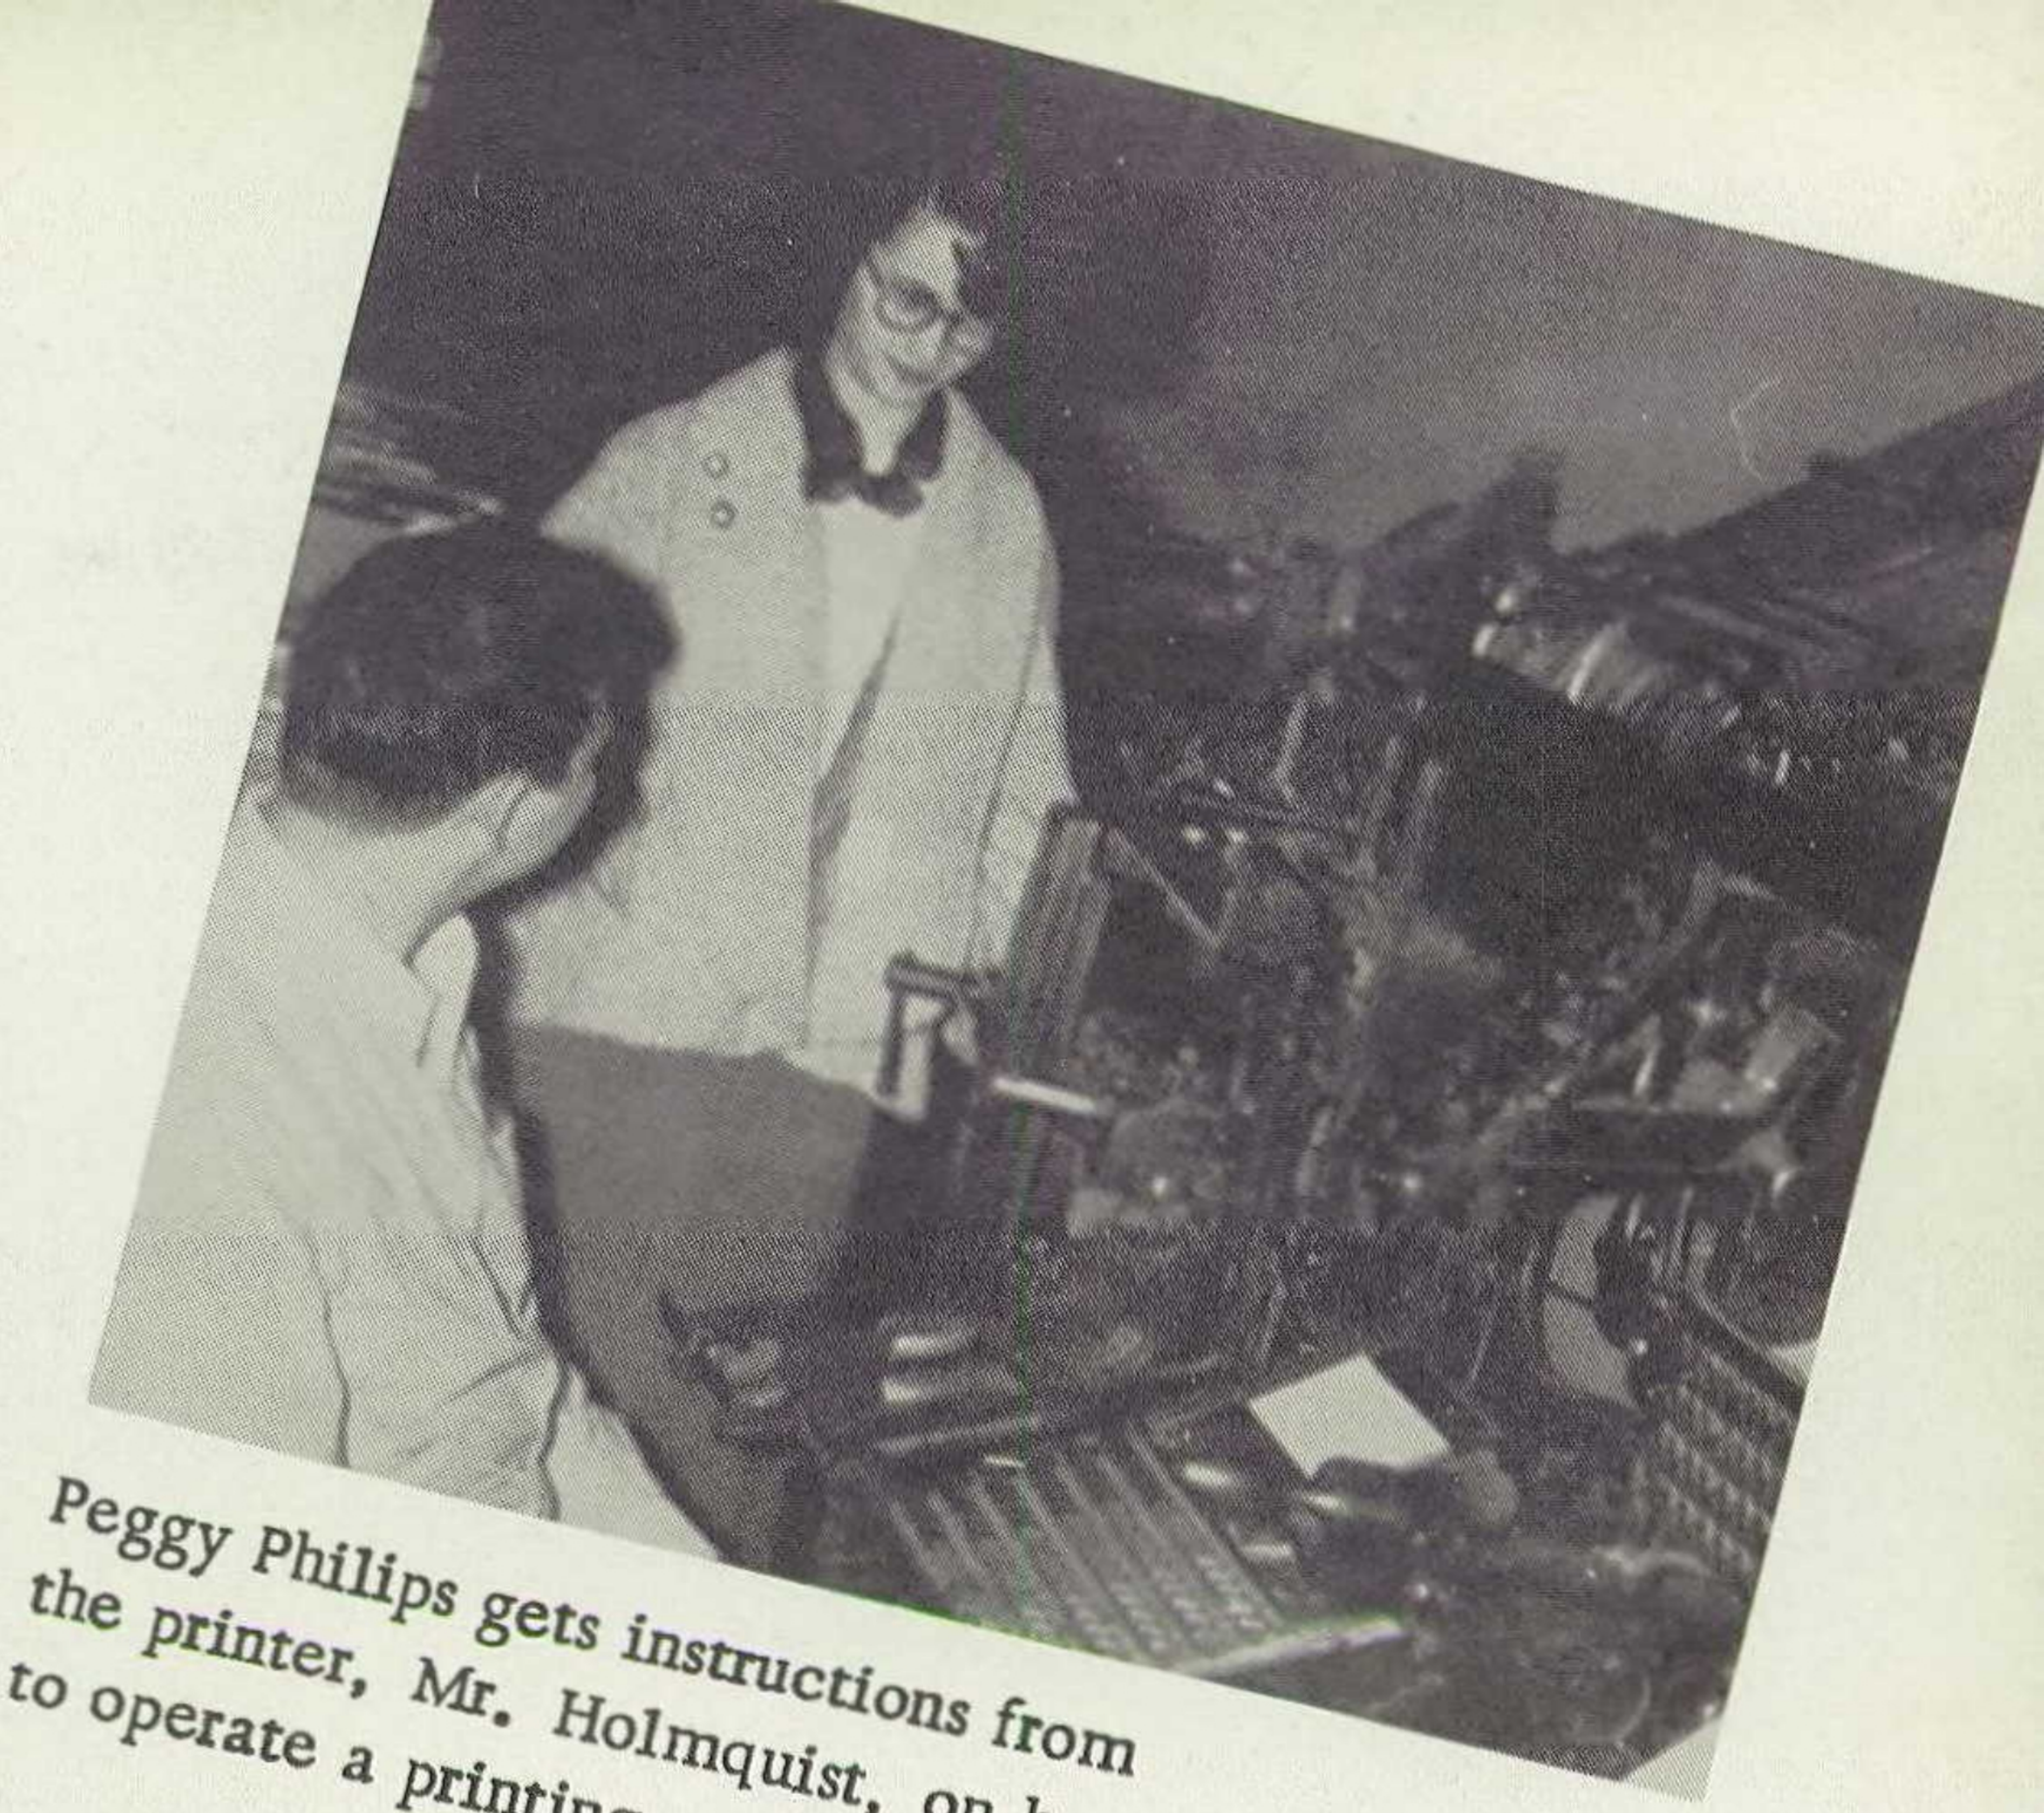
Cammie Blackmore, Rex Hawes, and Joe Bohanan enjoy working with words while Mrs. Armstrong looks on.

The Eagle

The Eagle is the school paper produced by the students of the Georgetown High School under the direction of Mrs. Paul Hindelang. The paper is financed jointly by sale of papers and sale of advertising to local business concerns.



Donald Ewing, Bob Duncombe, and C. R. Morgan take their work quite seriously as they study the print layout.



Peggy Philips gets instructions from the printer, Mr. Holmquist, on how to operate a printing machine.

Right: Rita McCasland, Barbara Knauth, Kay Adams, Enid Anderson, and Freddie Sanders read and admire one of the earlier Eagles.

Mrs. Hindelang, Janice Whiteley, Linda Luksa, Harriet Berglund, Kay Hubbard, Rosemary Peterson, and Angela Engelbrecht examine the printing machine at the Georgetown Advertiser's office.

Harriet Berglund and Angela Engelbrecht read proof while Linda Luksa types a story.

Student Council

Each year the Student Council sponsors a Public School Week in which the students and towns people take part. Special assembly programs are held each morning with a member of the Council in charge. The Student Council officers at the right display posters used.

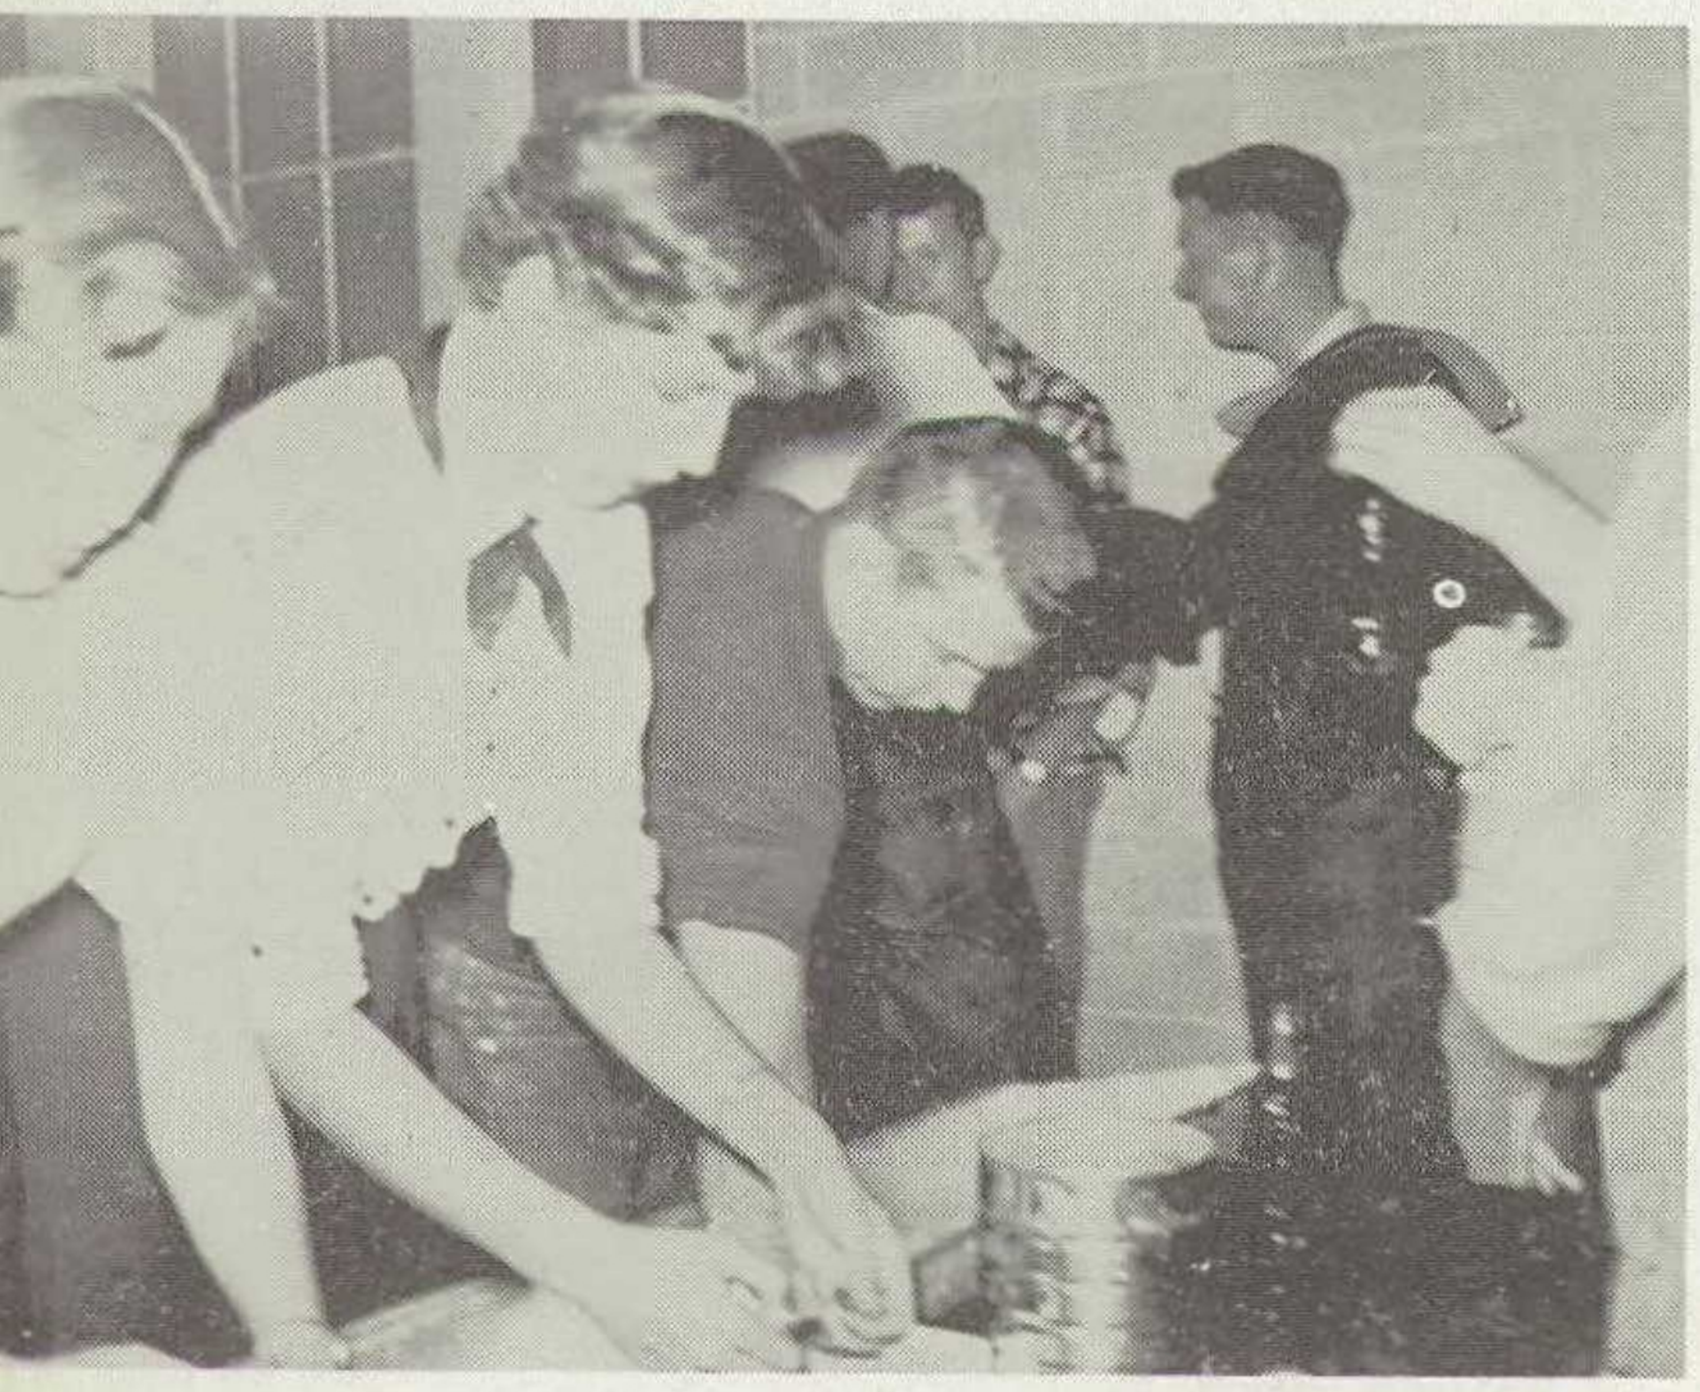
Val Jean Bethke sings at a Student Council sponsored assembly program, accompanied by Margaret Bielefeldt.

Another project of the Student Council this year was to sponsor, with the Eagle Staff, the Follies of '55. Each class entered a portion of the night's activities. The entries were judged and the winning classes in the Junior and Senior divisions were awarded a $5 prize. In the Senior division, the Junior class won while the Eighth won the Junior division prize. Tommy Stickland, at right, took part in the Eighth grade's "Family Album" skit. The Junior class's theme was the history of music in the setting of Hernando's Hideaway.



Janice Whiteley, Martha Hoffman, and Albert Munson sell cold drinks at the Student Council coke party to raise money for the Cancer Crusade.

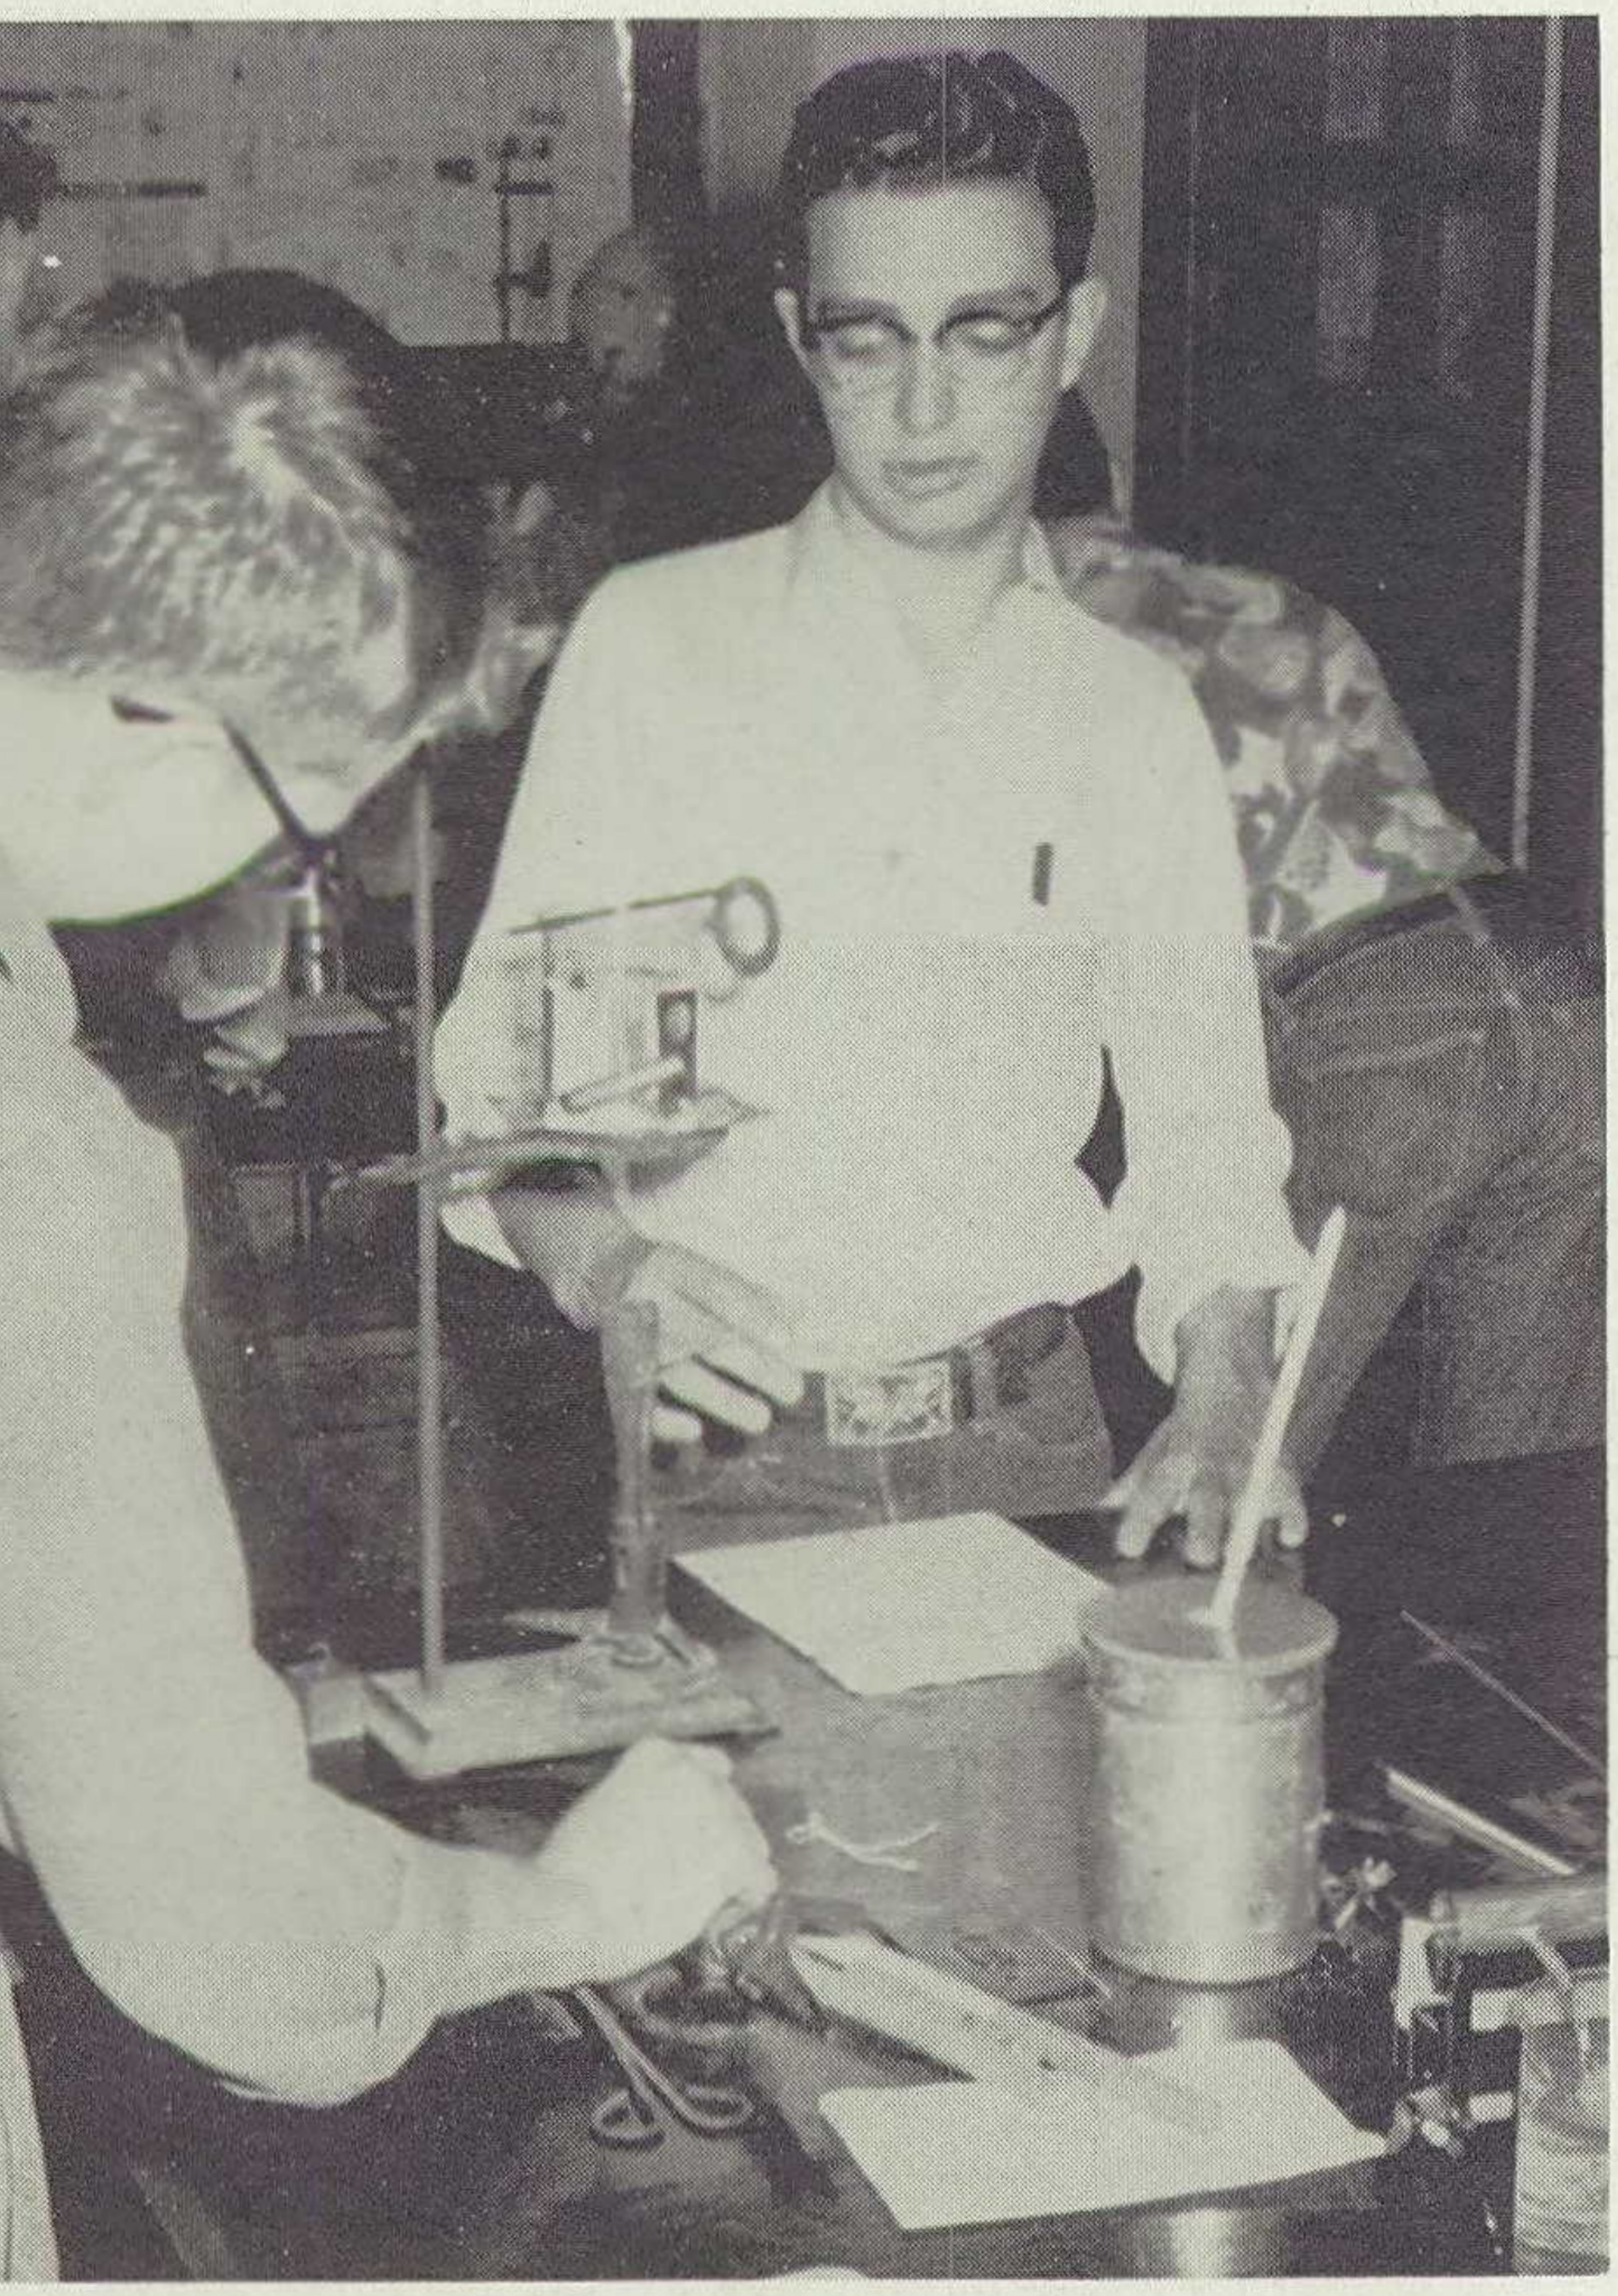
Science Classes

MR. E. W. KEITH
A.B., M.A., Texas University

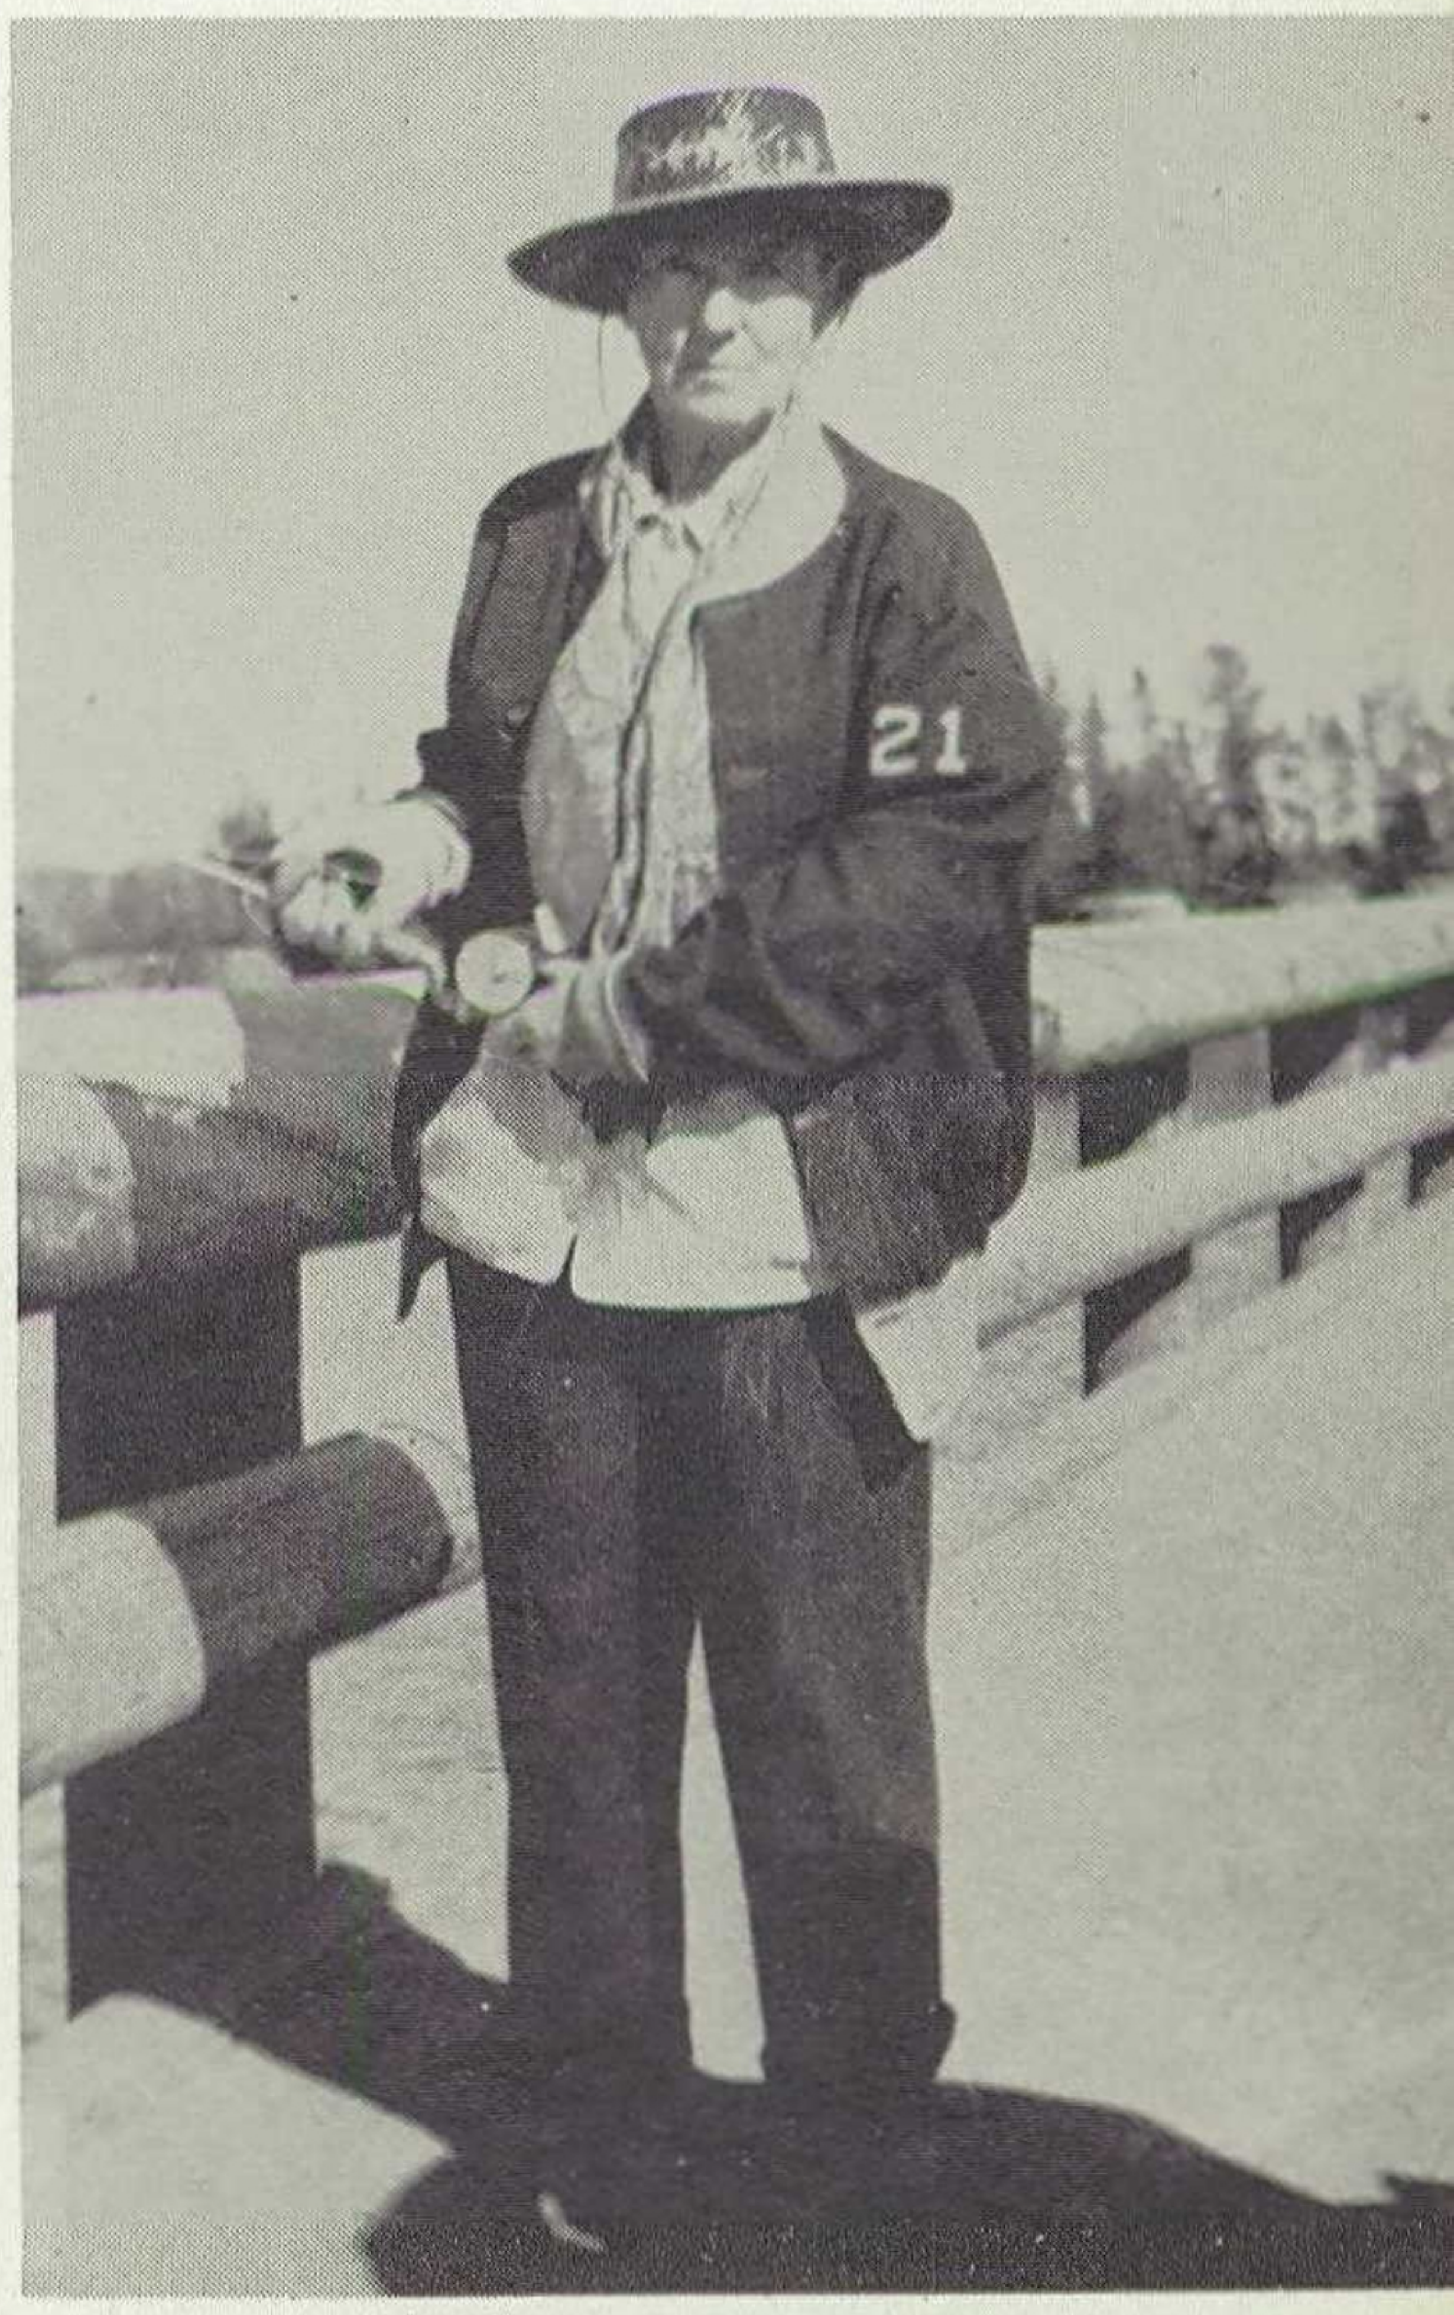
Mr. Keith teaches general science, physics, and biology, and he is the sponsor of the Student Council and sophomore class.

MRS. R. M. MEDLEY
A.B., Hardin-Simmons University
M.A., Texas University

Mrs. Medley teaches general science and algebra and sponsors the freshman class.



"Butch" Johnson and Clarence McCann make an experiment on expansion in physics class.



Mrs. Medley fishes on Fisherman's Bridge in Yellowstone National Park.

COACH BEN ROSENBLAD
B.B.A., Southwestern University

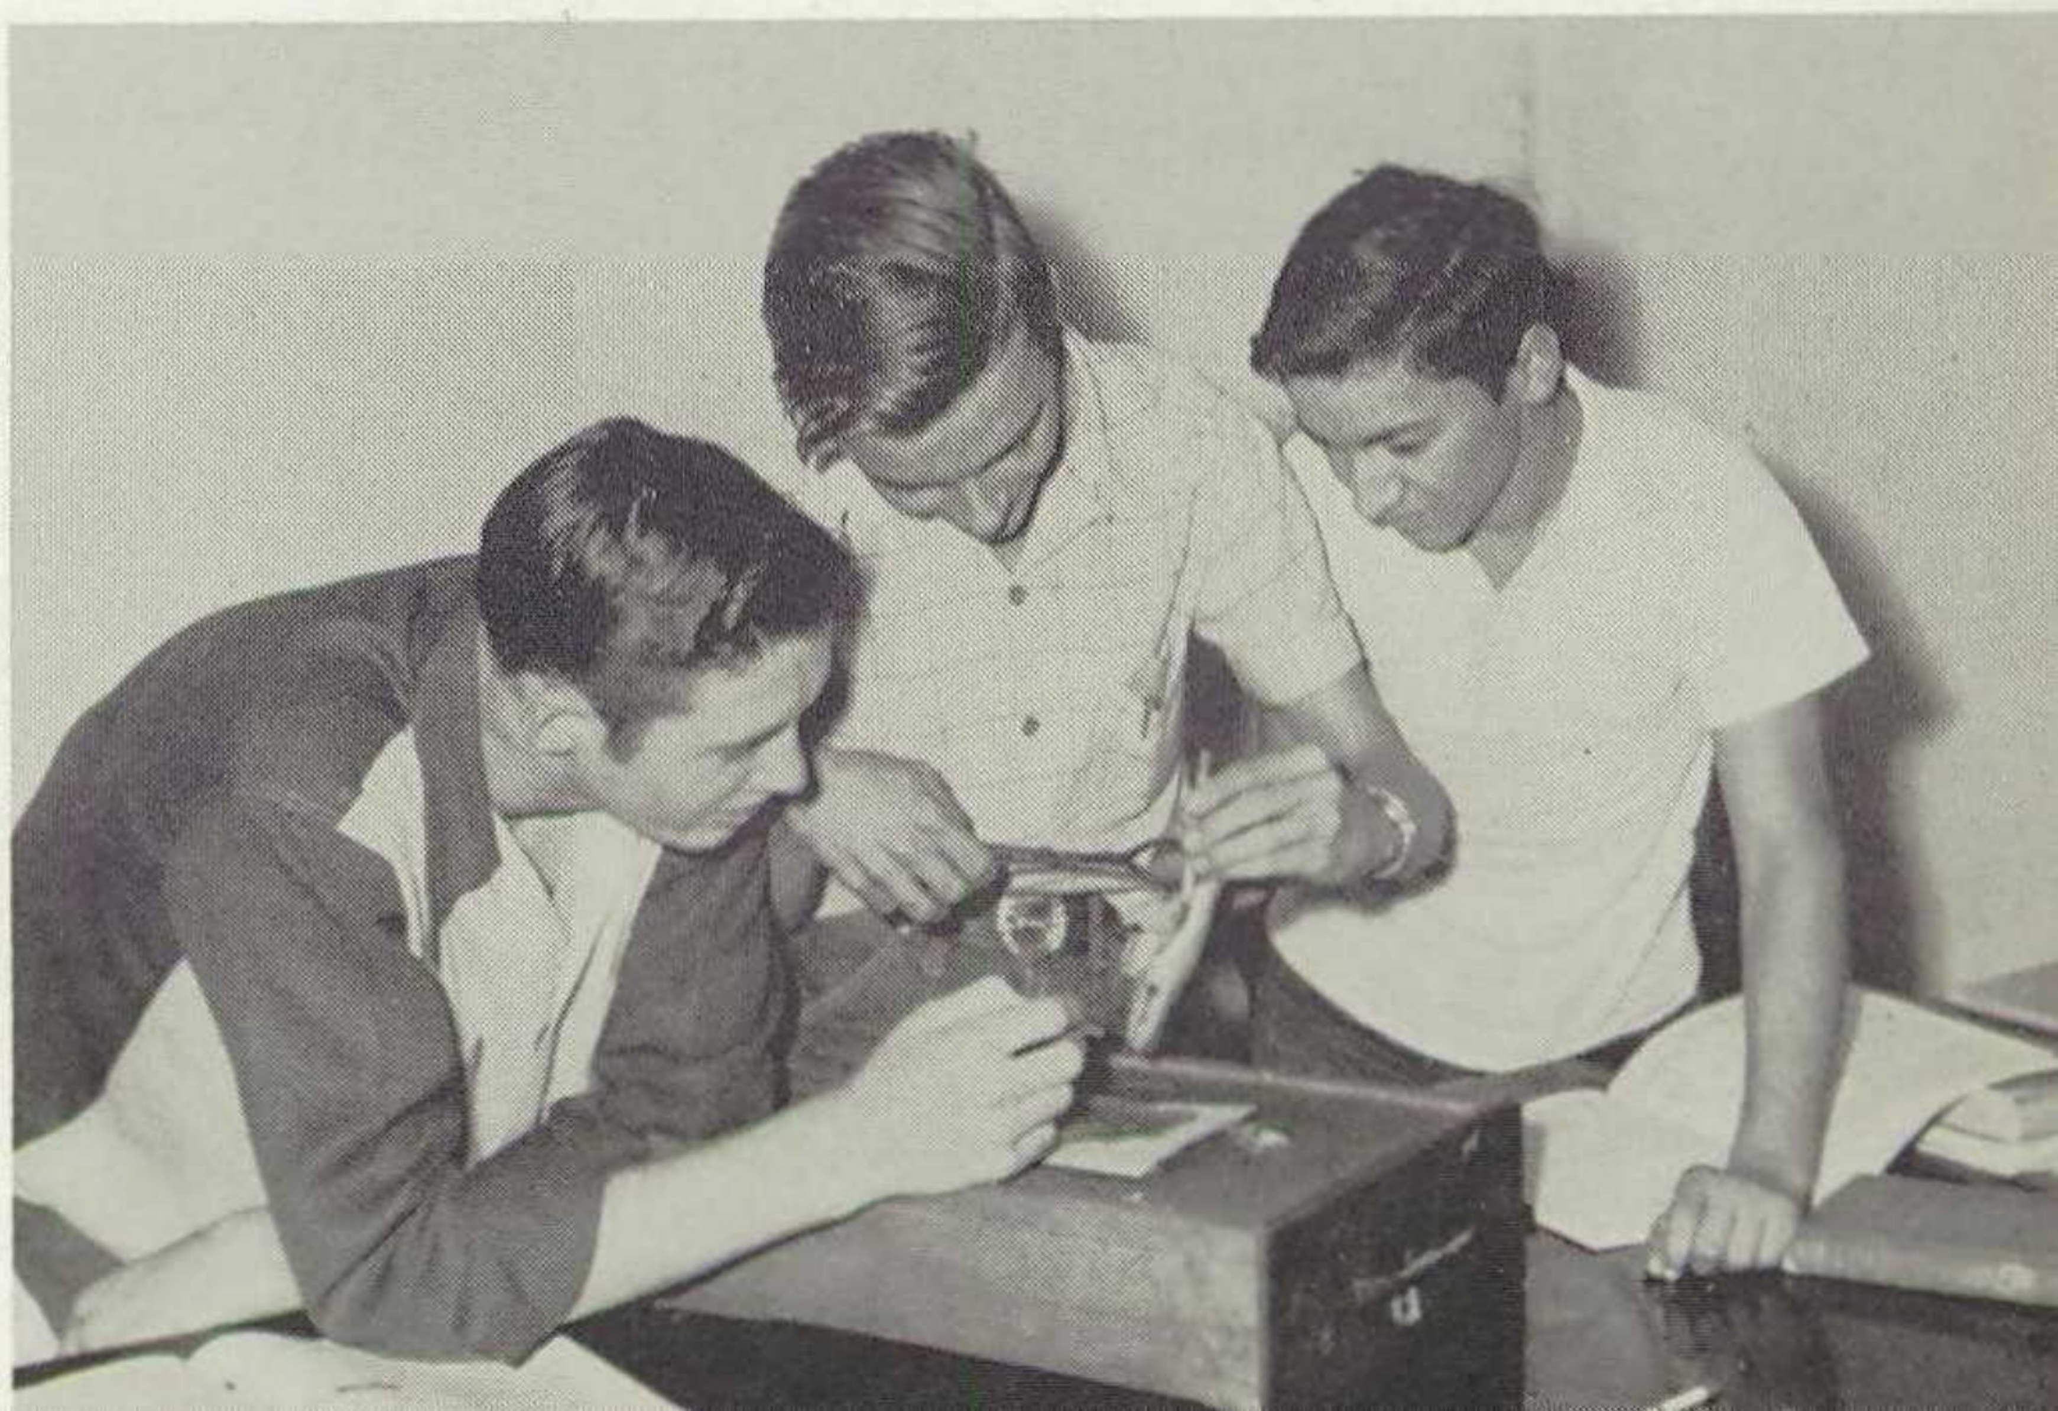
Coach Ben teaches science and math in the seventh and eighth grades. He is also assistant to the head coach.

Billy Snowden, Norman Boufford, and David Zavala dissect a perch in the fifth hour biology class.



Mathematics

Don Parker with his poster, "Geometry in Cloth," wants the attention of Donald Barrington as does Bob Duncombe with his poster, "Geometry in Insignias." These posters were made as part of geometry work and were voted best by the students.

Spanish

Mrs. McCoy gives a helpful bit of advice to Spanish II students Norman Bouffard and Tyree Finch.

"Stick 'em up!" says Officer Tyree Finch in Spanish as he halts robbery attempt on Cidela Silva's store by the notorious Norman Boufford. The students are merely acting however, and they all thoroughly enjoyed this portion of Mrs. McCoy's work.

Gordon Holcomb, Sammy Mason, June Burkhart, and Martha Cloud are giving a scene from a play which they wrote for classroom activities in Mrs. McCoy's Spanish II Class. It was based on life in a grocery store. Gordon and Sammy represent the clerks, while the girls are their customers.

Parents, Teachers, and students enjoy the food at the Spanish Supper. A Spanish meal is prepared and served each year to raise funds for P. A. S. F. projects.

P.A.S.F. — Los Aguilas

The Pan American Student Forum officers, seen studying Angela's Minutes, are Lawrence Wisdom, Publicity Chairman; Martin McClain, Vice President; Angela Enclebrecht, Secretary; Margie Cagle, Treasurer; and Butch Johnson, President.

Janice Glass won third place in the state vocal solo contest with her singing of "Perfidia" and "Frenesi." Janice, a freshman, has been very active in her first year in the P. A. S. F.

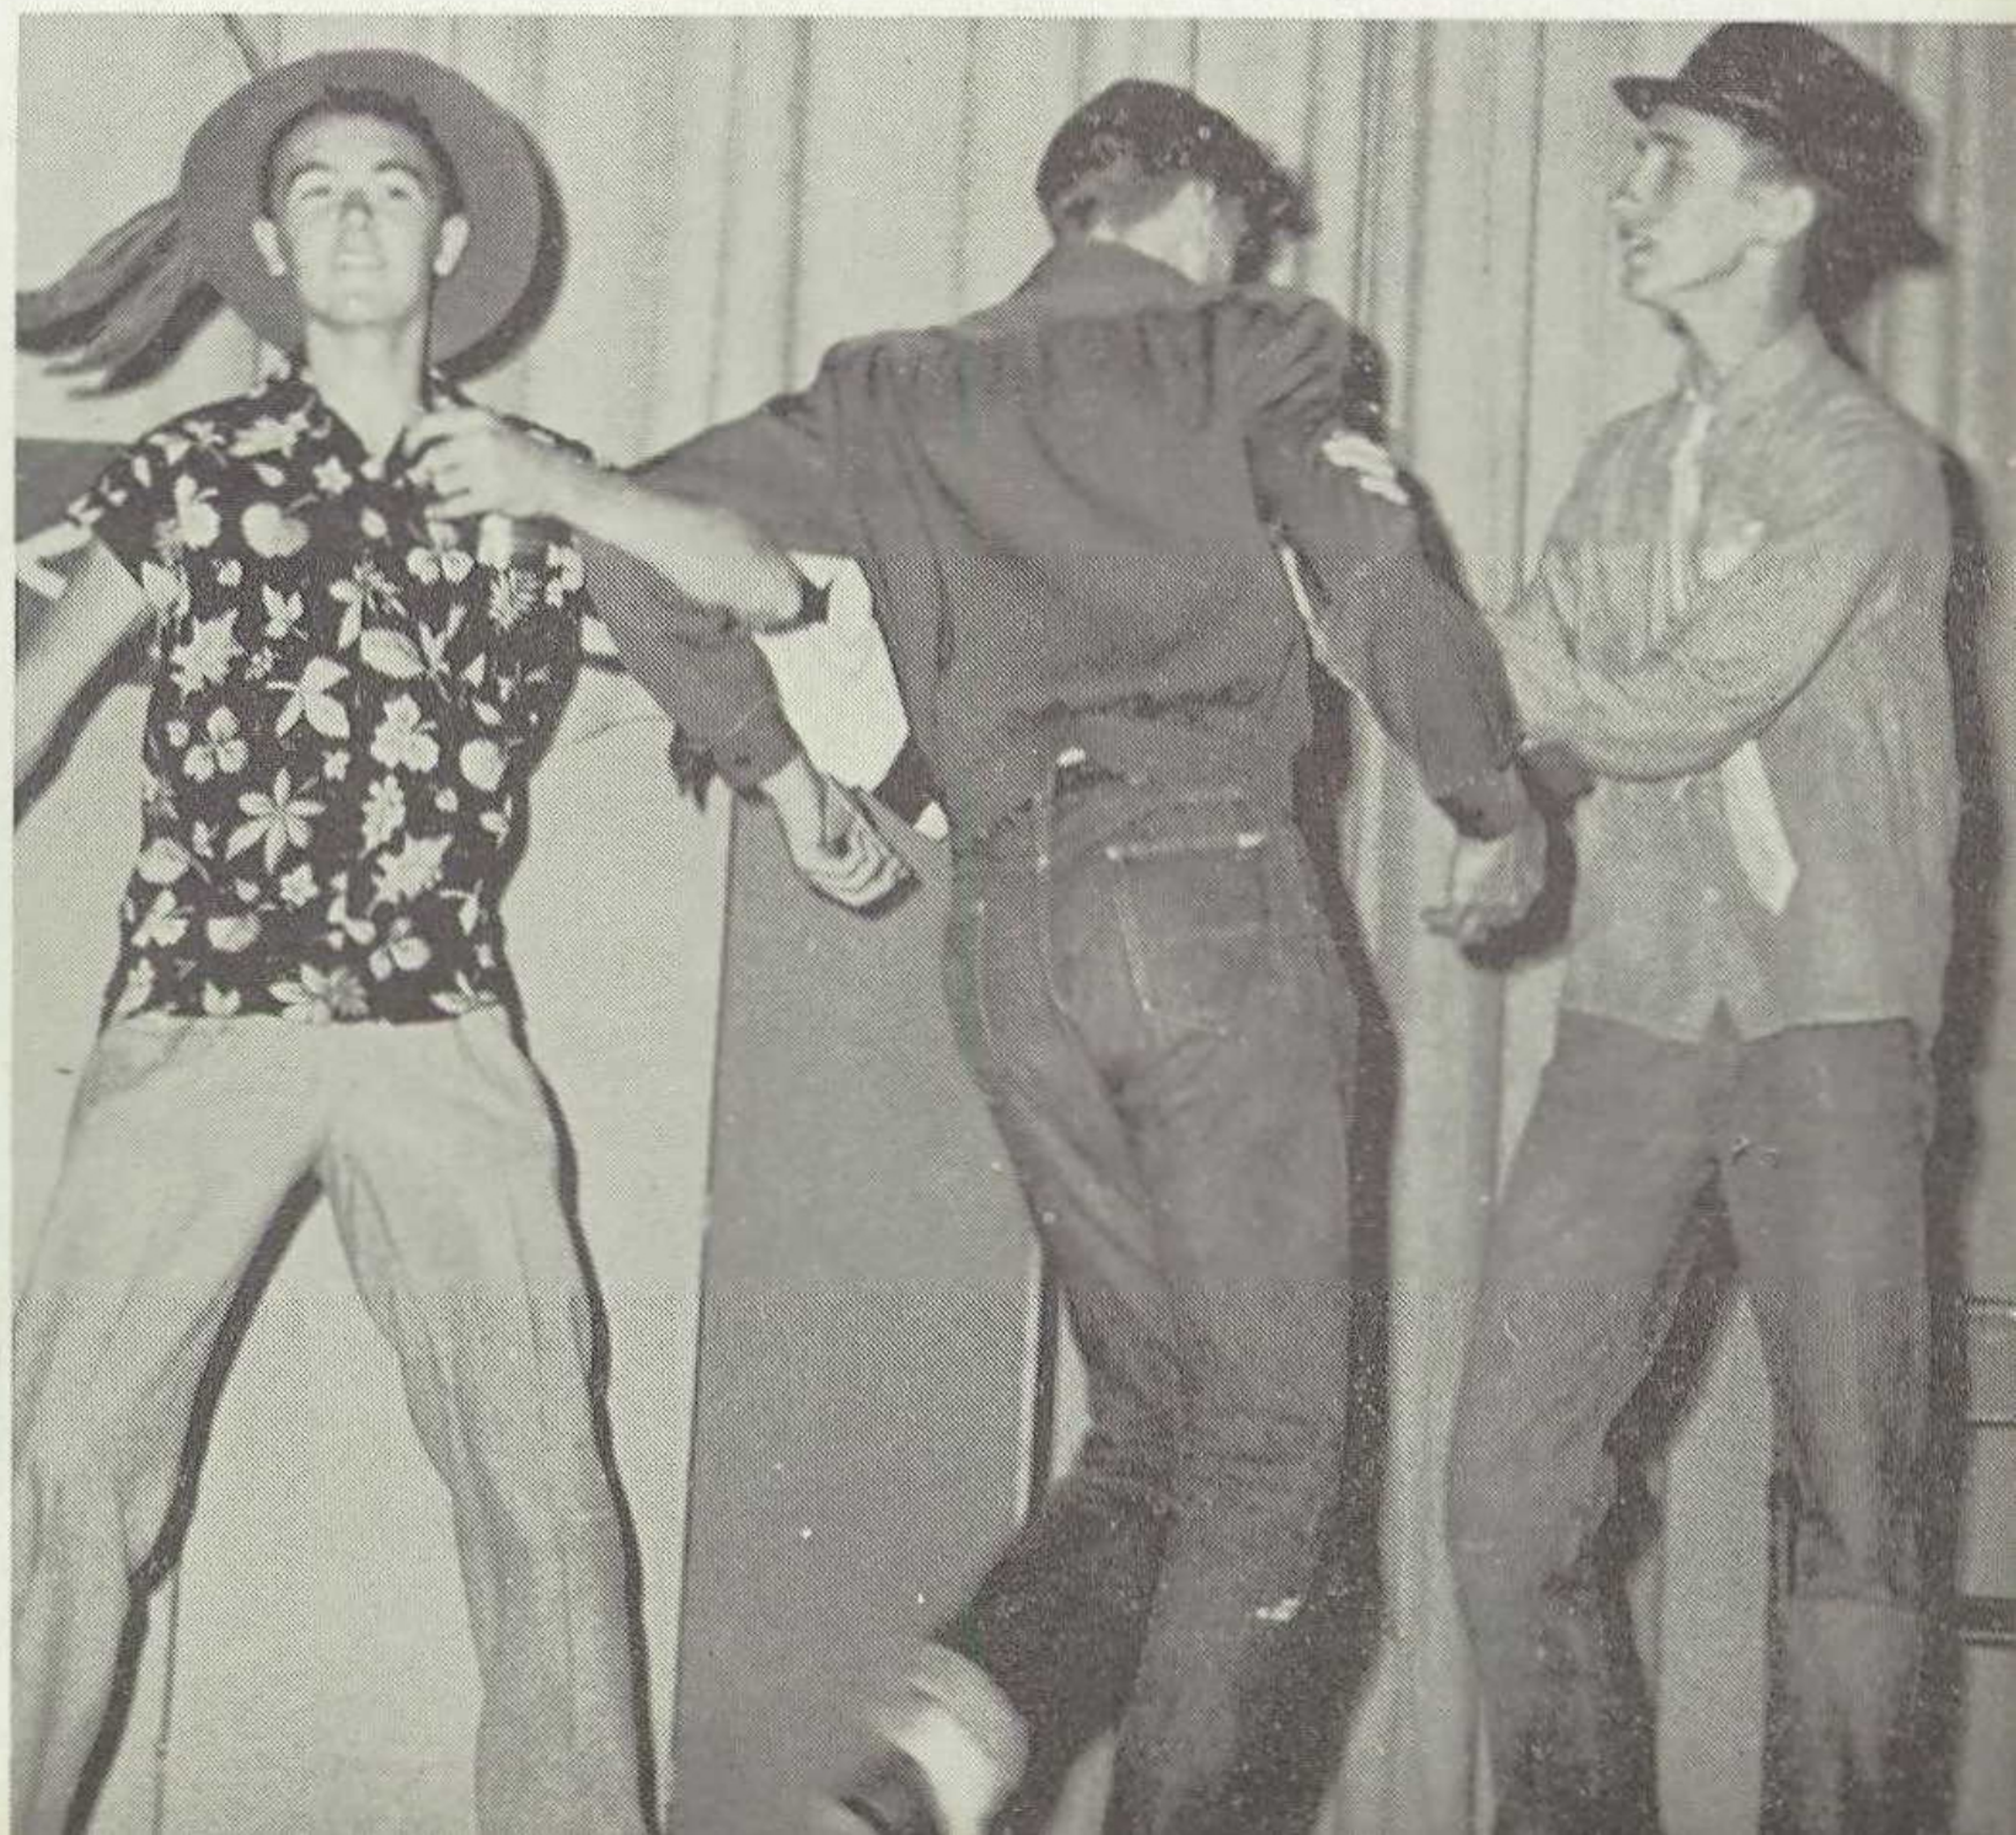
The P. A. S. F. Chorus, which entered, but did not place in the contest, thoroughly enjoyed themselves while they worked on the contest songs.

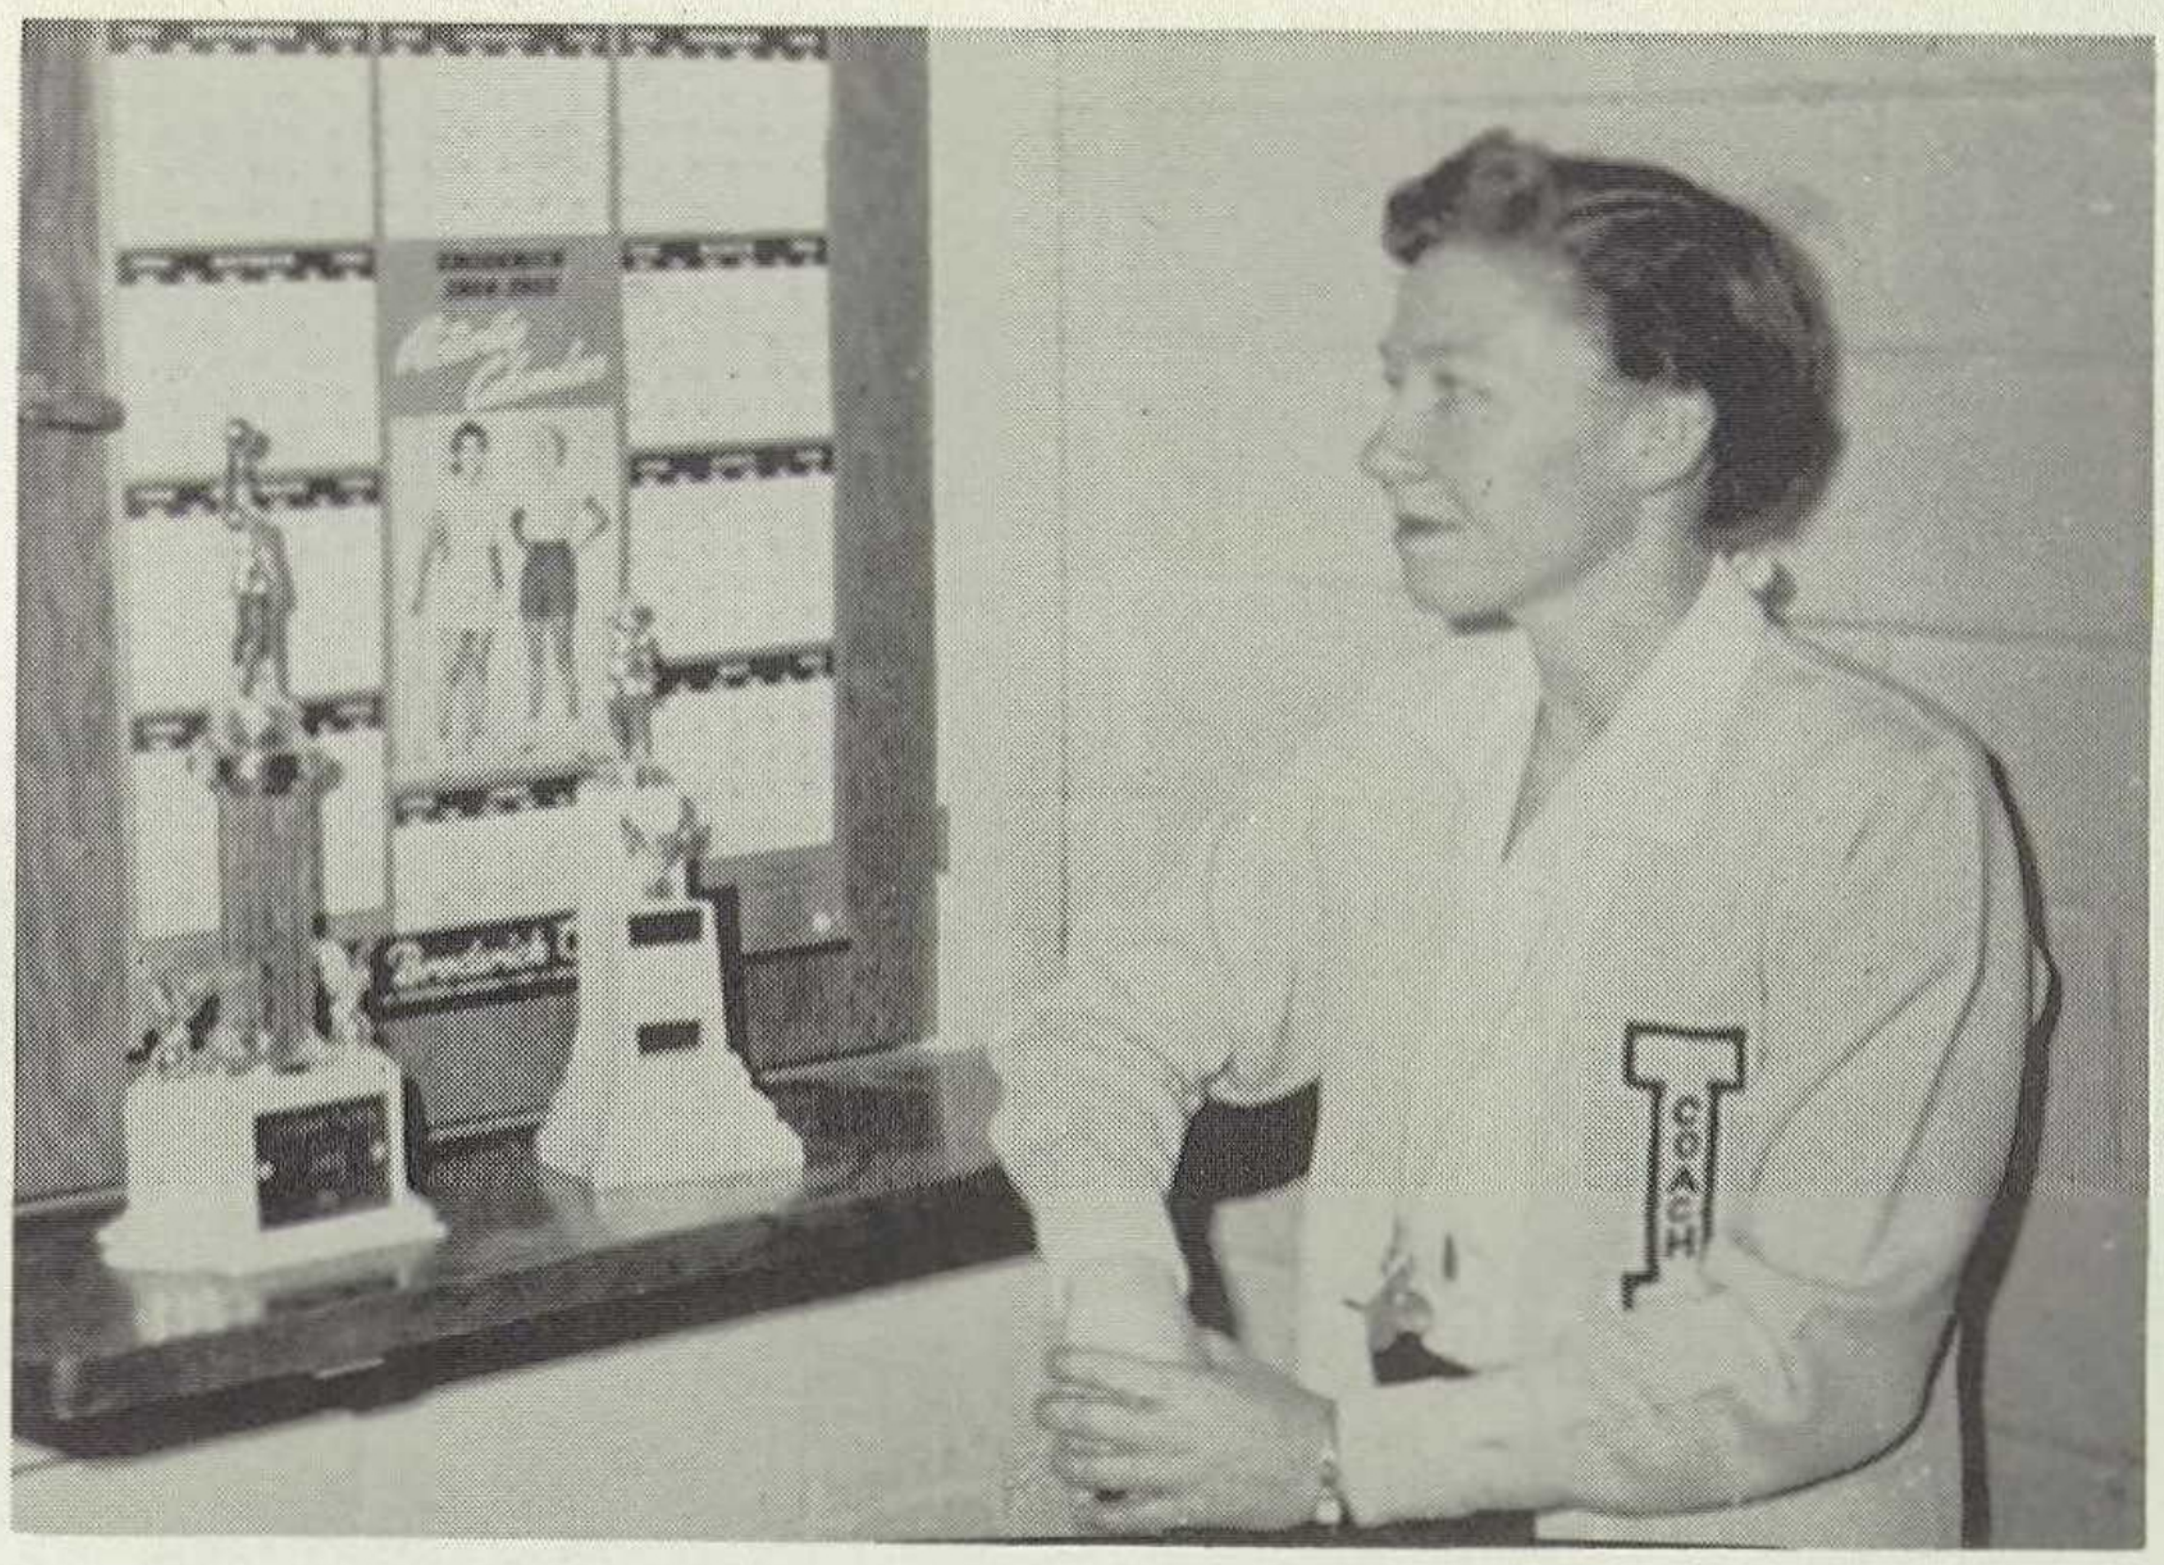
"Una Casa de Locos," which means "An Insane Asylum," was entered in the Spanish one-act play contest at the P. A. S. F. State Convention. It was awarded third place.

In the left-hand picture Bill Springer and Sammy Mason, playing two crazy men, are trying to decide who is "Caesar." Ronald Woodfin, playing an escaped convict shakes his head in disbelief when he finds out that he is "Caesar" and about to be killed. "Caesar's" escape is stopped and he is saved by Tyree Finch and Joe Guiterrez, who are not shown.



MISS ANNA JO DEUPREE
B.S. and M.A., Denton Teachers College

Health and Physical Education



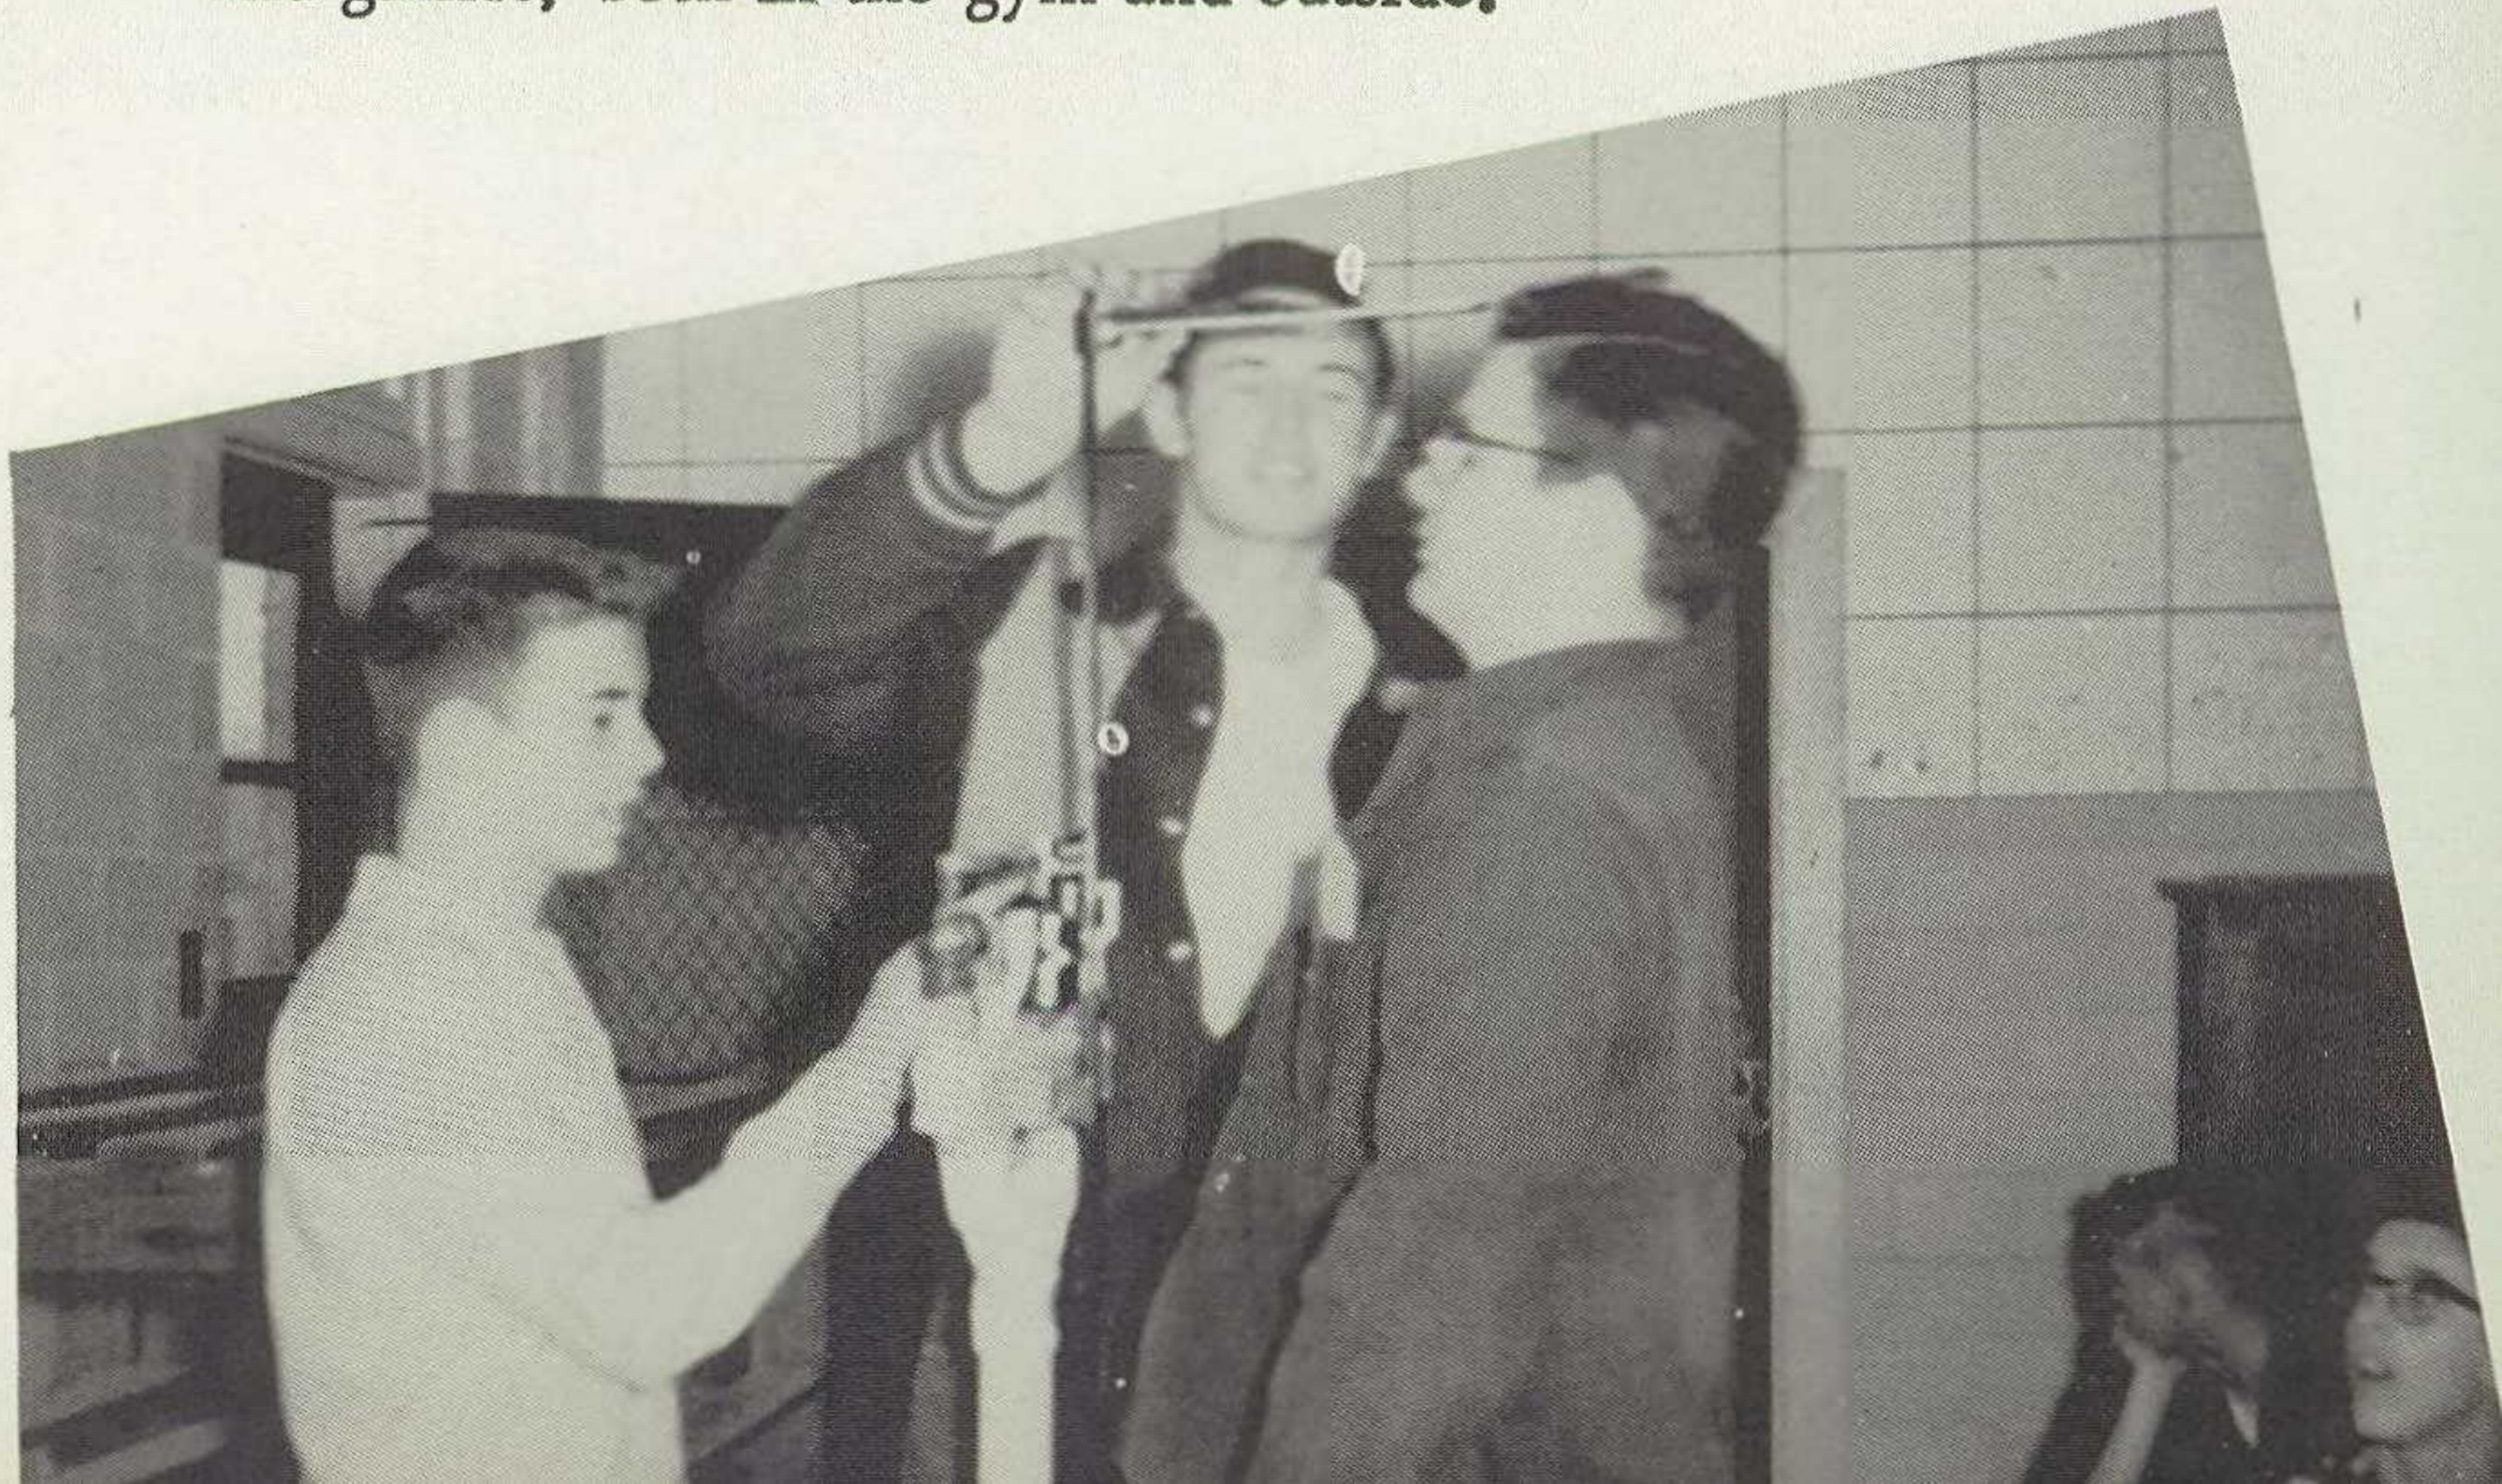
Miss Deupree admires last year's trophies and consults the calendar for this year's schedule. Although Miss Deupree only taught in our school for one semester, she gained favor with both teachers and students.

Miss Deupree talks to group before class work begins.

Johnny Engvall and Billy Ray Snowden weigh Earl McKeithan as part of the health program. In health, tests are made of the eyes and of the ears. Mr. Priest teaches health and directs the health program and games, both in the gym and outside.

COACH N. R. PRIEST

Received his A.B. Degree from Southwestern. He teaches boys' health classes.



Girls' P.E. Classes

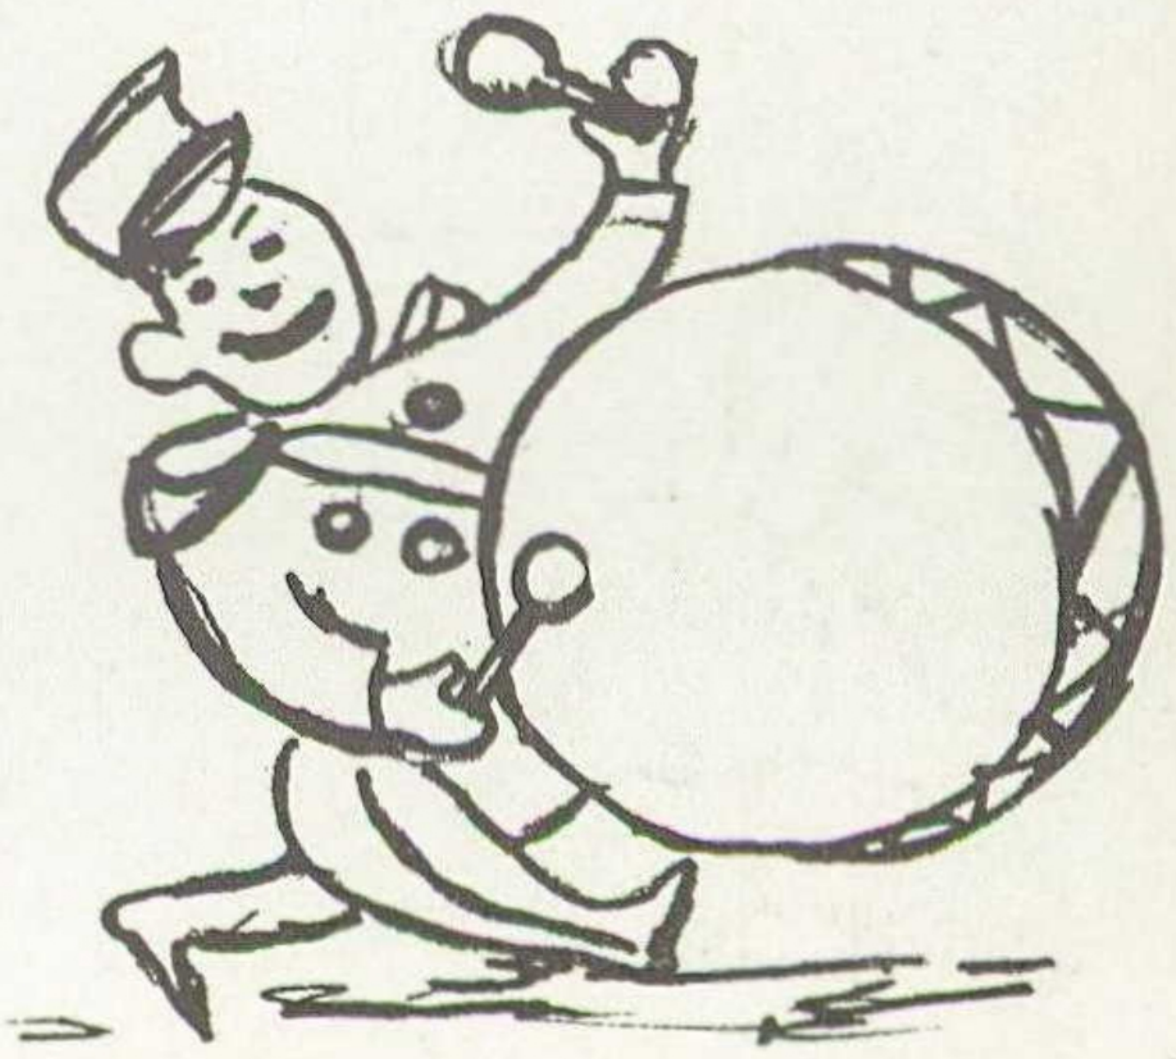
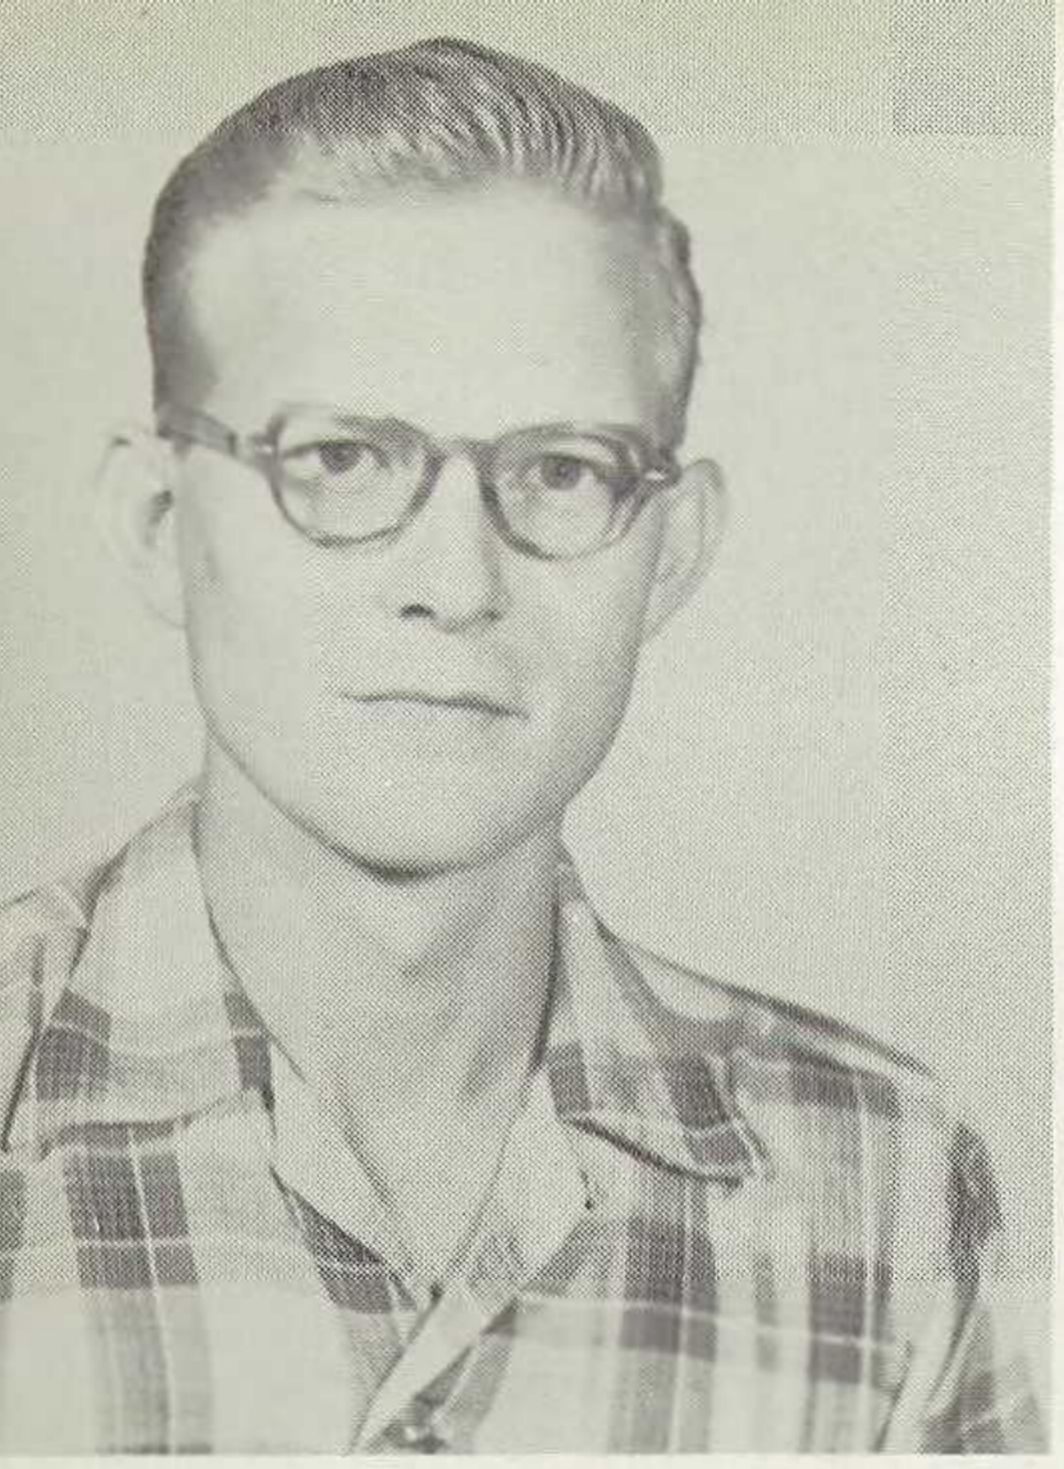
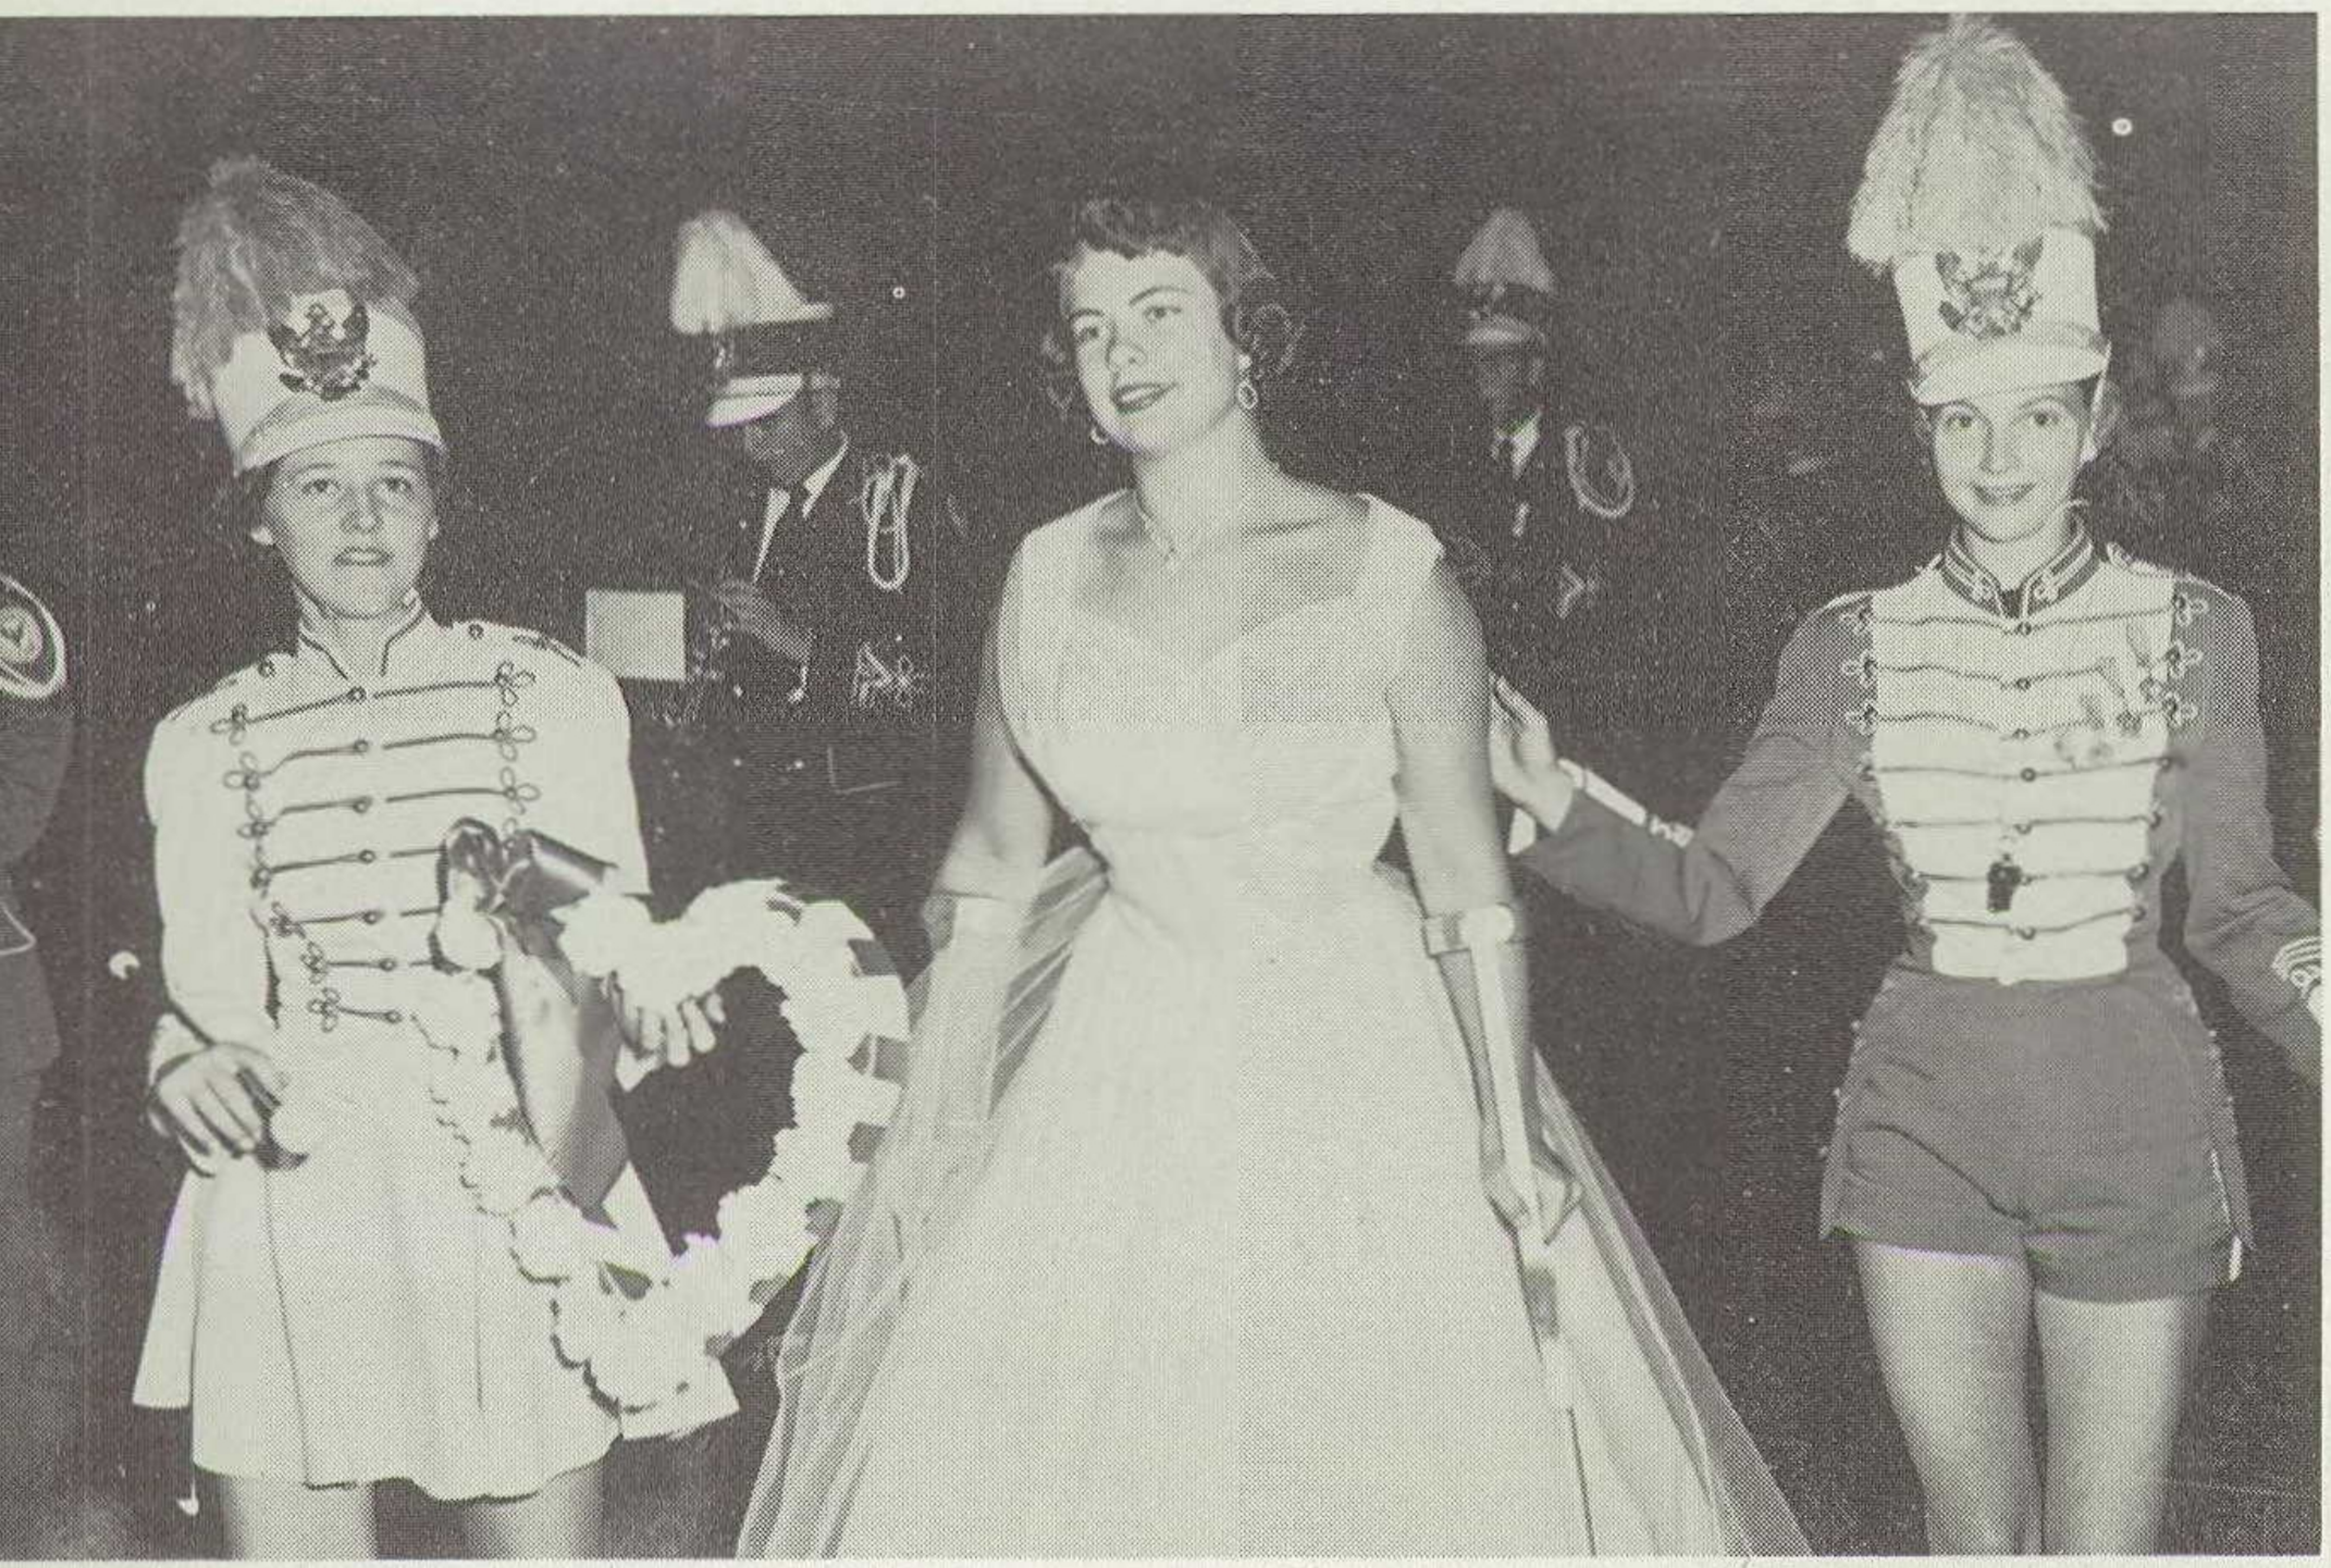
invitation in other nearby towns as they have parades. Many members of the band enter in the spring contest.





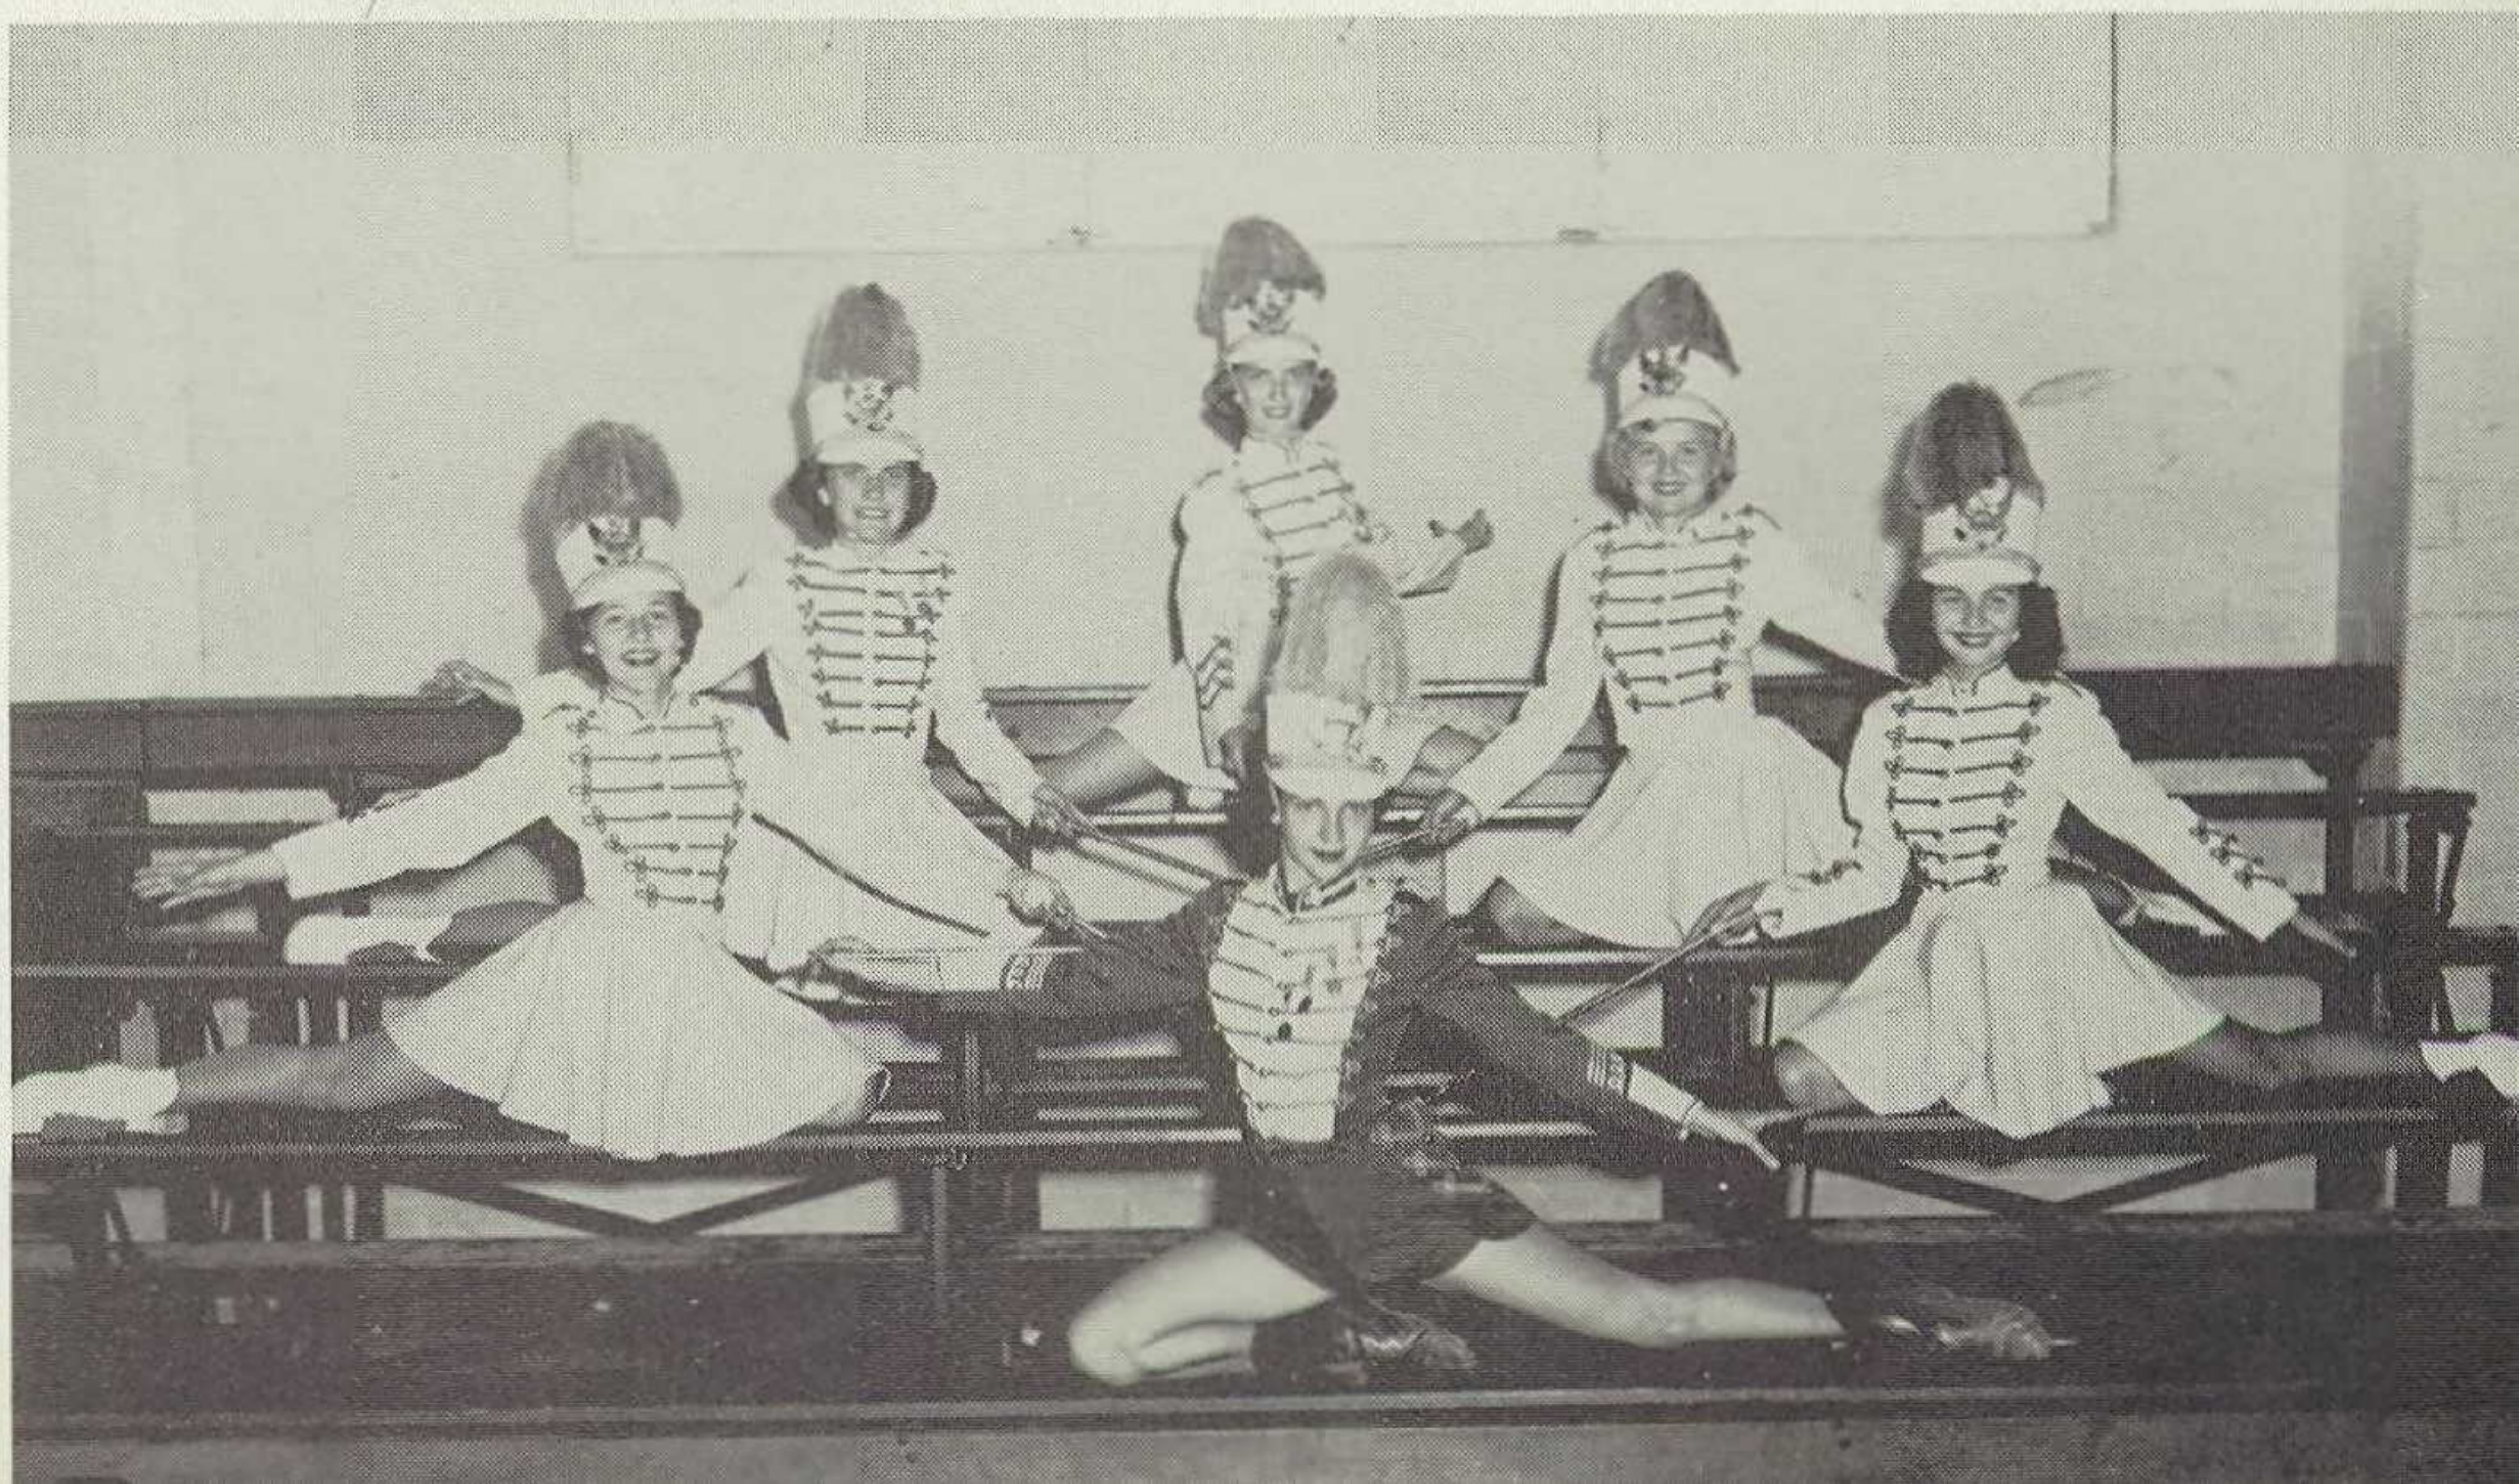
Gayle Ann Smith was chosen band sweetheart for this year by popular vote of the band. She is a favorite among students and teachers.

To the left is Mr. George Nelson, new to our school, but not to our town as he took his degree at Southwestern.



Gayle was presented at the games, escorted by Majorette Margie Cagle and Drum Major Nancy Ellyson, while the band formed a heart and played, "Let Me Call You Sweetheart."

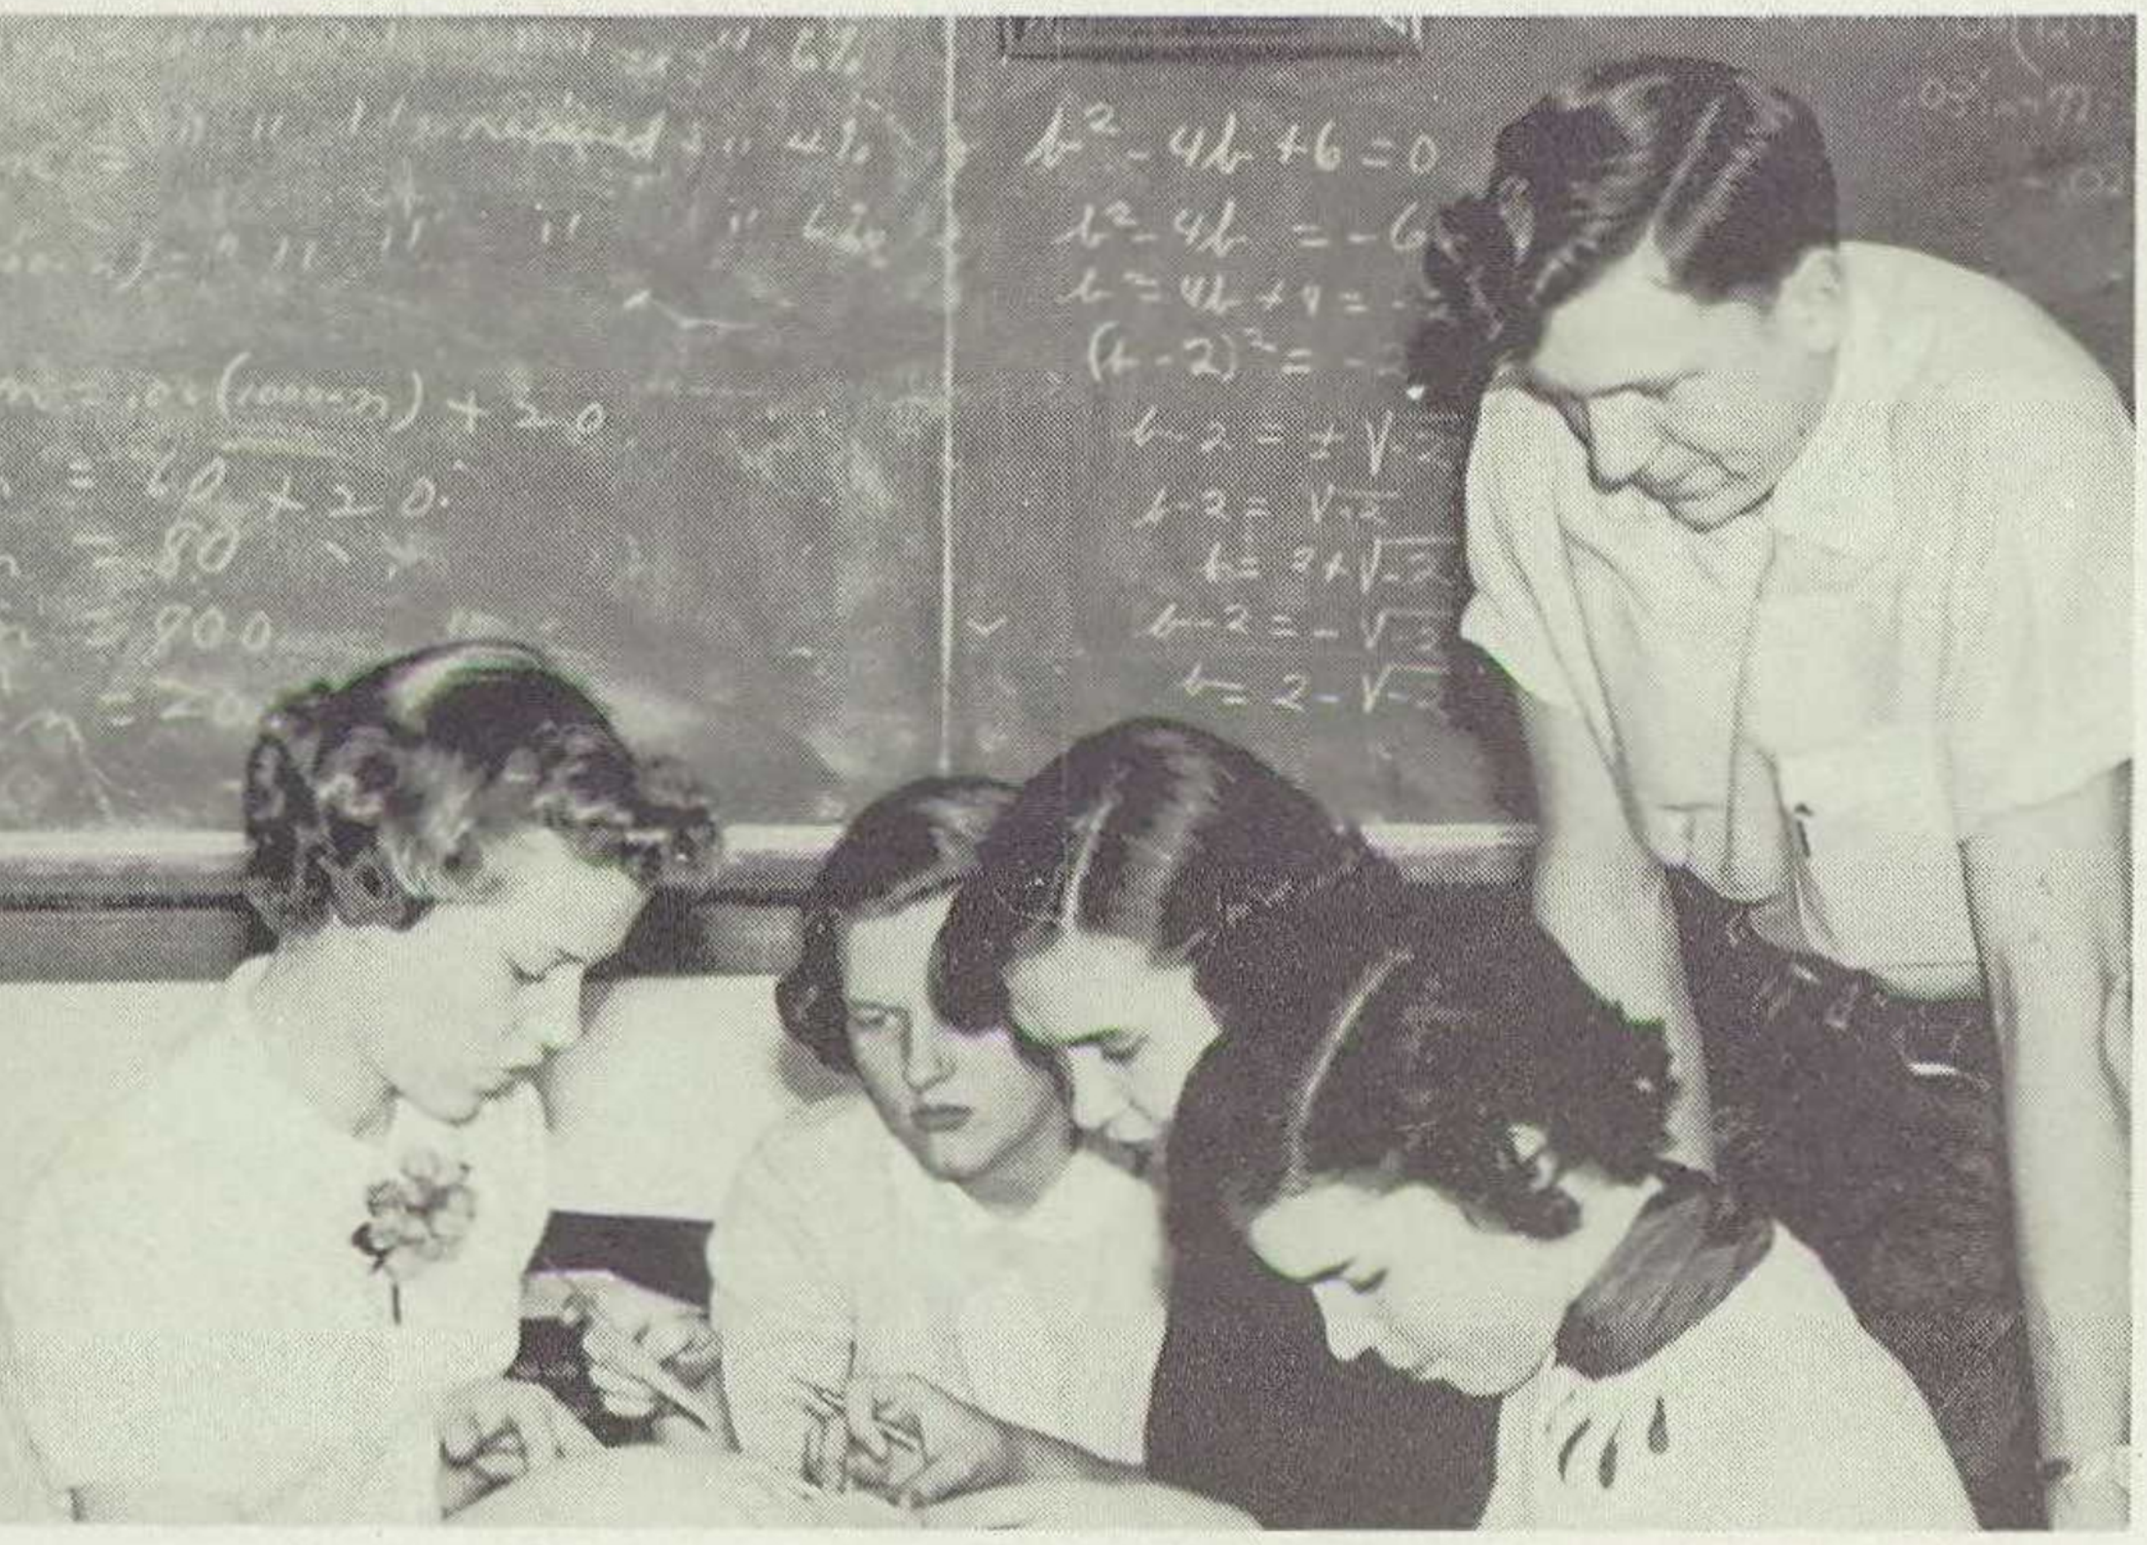
Majorettes for the 1954-55 school year were Margie Cagle, Pat Faught, Freddie Sanders, Peggy Blackmore, and Gussie Valentine. Drum Major was Nancy Ellyson. Both the majorettes and drum major were elected last spring by the band and director.



1955 Aerie Staff

Mrs. Gilbert Conoley, an assistant from Southwestern University, discusses plans for the '55 Aerie with Donna Hausenfluck, business manager, and Christie Armstrong, editor.

Below: Kristine Johnson, Sadie Lackey, Kathy Jacob, Joyce Person, and Ronald Woodfin work on lay-outs during a regular annual staff meeting.



The Aerie Staff, besides working daily on the '55 Aerie, attended many workshops and clinics where they learned how to make a better annual.

Christie Armstrong - Editor. Christie, the only Senior on the 1955 staff. She served on the staff for three years.

Joyce Person, Kristine Johnson, Katherine Jacob, Sadie Lackey, Donna Hausenfluck, and Christie Armstrong relax after working on the annual.

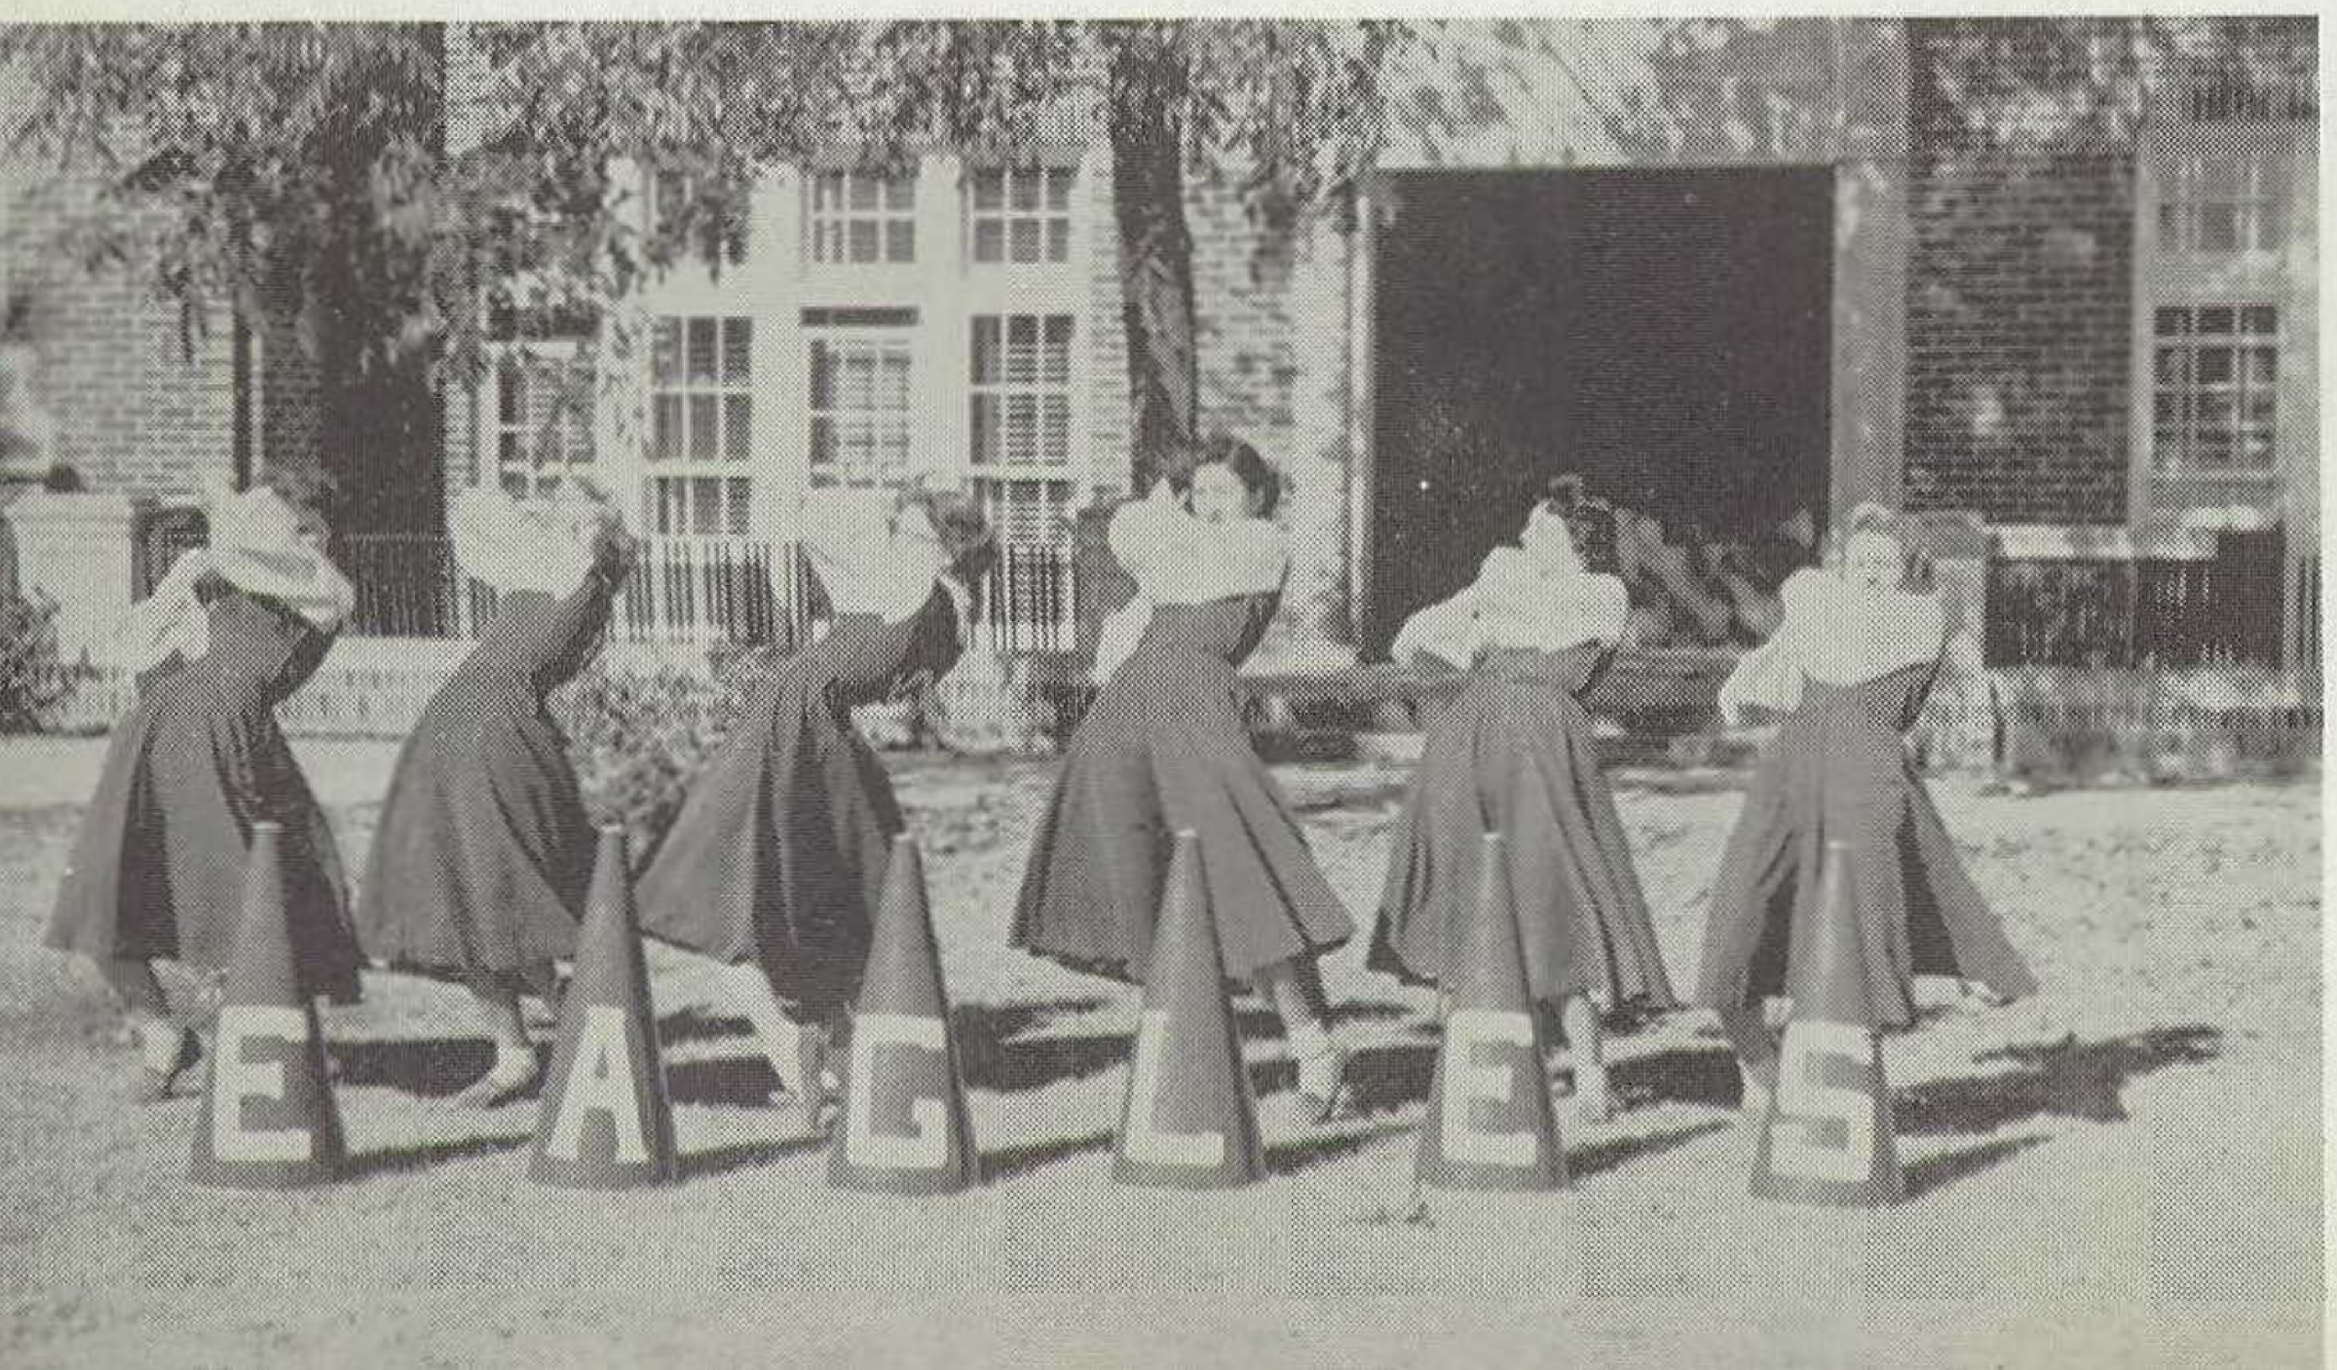
Senior cheerleaders run through practice yells for final pep rally. We are extremely sorry to lose Billie, Finnie and Barbara Pope by graduation, but we know that they and their replacements will continue to give the Eagles as much support as they have in the past.

The "Eagle locomotive" rumbles on as yell-leaders "give it slow."

Cheerleaders begin "Echo-yell" at signal given by head cheerleaders, Rosemary Peterson and Barbara Pope.

Zip! Bang! Eagles! Girls give "Wild and wooly."



Honor Graduates

Sammie Lou Henderson and Lavern Domell ranked the highest of their class. Lavern, Valedictorian, has received the D. A. R. award and also she achieved the State degree in FHA. Sammie Lou, Salutatorian, won best actress in the play "Sunny Morning," which placed first in state.

The top eight of the graduating class consisted of: Sammie Lou Henderson, Lavern Domell, Albert Munson, Marjorie Kokel, Gloria Jacobs, Marilyn Allen, Evelyn Nolen, and Lanell Mott.

Peggy Philips, Sadie Lackey, and Pat Faught have their car filled up with Sinclair's Power-X gasoline by Charles Nunn. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lackey own and operate this modernly equipped service station located on Austin Avenue. They carry a complete line of Sinclair products and Star tires. Service is rendered with a smile twenty-four hours a day.

CONGRATULATIONS, SENIORS . . .

Your journey down the pathway of life now begins and your future will be moulded greatly by the foundations gained from high school days.

As you progress ever upward, building constructively, you will learn in after-years that the greatest assets of life are the things you can't take away with you. So give to the world the best you have and the best will come back to you. May your future find contentment.
